Funeral of Dee James.

The remains of Arthur Dee James were brought to Denison on Friday morning from Chicago, Mr. John Campbell accompanying them. They were met at the depot by a large delegation of Knights and friends and escorted to the family residence, where they remained until Sunday afternoon at which time the funeral took place at the Methodist church, Rev. E. M. Holmes preaching the funeral sermon.

The Knights of Pythias had charge of the funeral and the pall bearers were selected from among their number and the deceased's personal friends and comrades of the Spanish war. The pall bearers were Messrs. Jas. Armstrong, W. D. McAhren, Ben Forderberg, Jas. Luney, Wm. Seemann and Joe Kelly.

The remains were accompanied to the church from the family home by the Knights, the G. A. R. post, the W. R. C., the Sons of Veterans and many friends. The church was overflowing with friends, many being obliged to stand in the aisles. A quartette composed of Messrs. J. I. Gibson, D. L. Boynton, Sears McHenry and B. J. Sibbert, with Mrs. W. C. Van Ness as accompanist rendered very appropriate music, and a most touching prayer was offered by Rev. A. G. Martyn. Rev. Holmes preached a beautiful sermon, calling attention to excellent war record of the deceased, his loyalty to his country, his home life and of his devotion to his parents. The sermon was a source of great comfort to the bereaved parents and brothers and sisters and in a large measure served to lighten their burden of grief. The floral offerings were numerous and beautiful, many tokens coming from a distance.

At the cemetery the grave had been decorated with flowers and made to look beautiful by friends. The Knights used their ritualistic ceremony. W. C. VanNess having the service in charge. Rev. Holmes offered a prayer and the remains were laid to rest with singing by the quartette.

The home life of Dee James had always been very pleasant, whenever possible he was with his mother whom he dearly loved, this love was returned as only a mother's love can be, and his death has been heart rending to her. His letters home had always been to her, they were full of love, and always relating to his personal affairs how he was getting along, what he had been doing the previous day, etc., and she was in touch with his daily life. His death casts a sorrow which only time can remove.

TEACHERS PROGRESSIVE.

As an evidence of the spirit of progress among the Denison teachers and the zealous interest in improving their efficiency we give the following notes concerning the plans of a number of the corps.

Supt. Savage will go to Boston this week thence, to Cambridge where he will enter the Harvard University summer term, to take a course in City School Organization and Supervision under some of America's most distinguished city superintendents. Mrs. Savage will accompany him.

Principal elect Ralph Core is contemplating spending a part of the summer at Chicago university as is also Miss Emma Rollinson where they will take courses suited to their special needs.

Misses Emma Raine, Margaret King, Jennie Austin and Susie Craft will avail themselves of the excellent teachers courses being offered by the Iowa State Normal school at Cedar Falls.

Miss Flora Polster is considering going to Chicago for instruction in graded school music and Miss Sewell will probably attend the National Educational Association meeting to be held at St. Paul in July.

We understand also that it is the expectation of Miss Myrtle Culmer the new high school instructor in science and English for next year, to spend a part of her summer in a university in Ohio making addition preparation for her work here.

Miss Elva Bond will continue the course of advanced kindergarten training which she began last year at Grand Rapids Mich.

That Denison pupils and patrons will reap the fruits of all this preparation for better school work can be doubted by none and the coming year certainly looks promising for the success of our schools.

MARRIED

GARY—PORTER—At the home of the bride in Denison, Monday, June 9, 1902, Rev. A. G. Martyn of the Presbyterian church officiating, Mr. Albert A. Gary of Storm Lake and Miss Florence B. Porter of Denison. This was a quiet but pleasant wedding event, uniting the affections and lives of two very worthy young people, both of them reared in Denison and where they have many young friends and associates, all of whom will join with the REVIEW in wishing them a happy matrimonial life.

They left on the afternoon train for their future home at Storm Lake, where the groom has a good business position.

Mr. Chas. Kinner of Missouri Valley, spent Sunday with friends in Denison.

Hy. Meeves is at Sioux City in attendance at the Gun shoot. All the best shots of the state will be there and Henry undoubtedly will have some pretty good shooting company.

Quite a number from Denison went with the North Western excursion to Lake View Sunday. All report an excellent time, there is plenty of water in the lake and steamer and sail boats in profusion.

The W. O. W. lodge held their annual decoration day on last Friday evening at 6.30. There were a number of the Woodmen in attendance and the graves of sovereigns Wilroth and Brat-hauer were decorated.

The REVIEW acknowledges a box of choice strawberries from Mr. J. H. Orr. They were the first real strawberries we have had this season. Mr. Orr on Monday picked 500 boxes and the crop is not near exhausted.

Dr. Simpson sent his Panama hat down to a Kansas City hatter today. The hat was one the Doctor purchased on one of his trips. He has worn it a couple of seasons, yet the value is $5.00 which price the hatter has him offered him for it.

The local W. O. W. camp is arranging to go to the log roll at Logan in a body, on the 21st. When the log roll was held at Denison about a hundred Logan people with their band came up and Denison now wishes to return the courtesy. Later particulars regarding the excursion will be published in our next issue.

John Campbell, who accompanied the body of Dee James to Denison, returned to Chicago Monday afternoon. Mr. Campbell was very desirous that everything be done to lighten the burden of sorrow the family endured and his personal conversation with the family lessened the anxiety regarding Mr. James' death.

U. G. Johnson, Jennie Austin, Willetta Strahn and Iva Smith, representing the Epworth League, and Master Roy Holmes representing the Junior League of the M. E. church, are attending the Council Bluffs District League Convention at Glenwood this week. Mr. Johnson as president of the district will be the presiding officer of the convention.

The juvenile band was assisted last Friday evening by a number of the old band players, and the concert seemed like old times. There are a number of new musicians in town, among them being Mr. Gregg, the photographer, and Mr. Duncan, the new jeweler. The boys' band is doing nicely, but there is material for another band, one that could take first rank in the state should they desire to get together.

The Denison clerks and the East Boyer ball teams met on the diamond in East Boyer Sunday afternoon and crossed bats. The clerks, or "Kids" as they were termed, defeated the East Boyer 18 to 13. The boys say the game was very interesting. Up until the game was half over the East Boyer boys were 10 scores ahead, but at this stage of the game the clerks picked up a little courage and went after them. From then on the balloons were flying high.

The service rendered by the telephone company the past two or three weeks has been something fierce. We suppose it is all due to putting in new wires, and perhaps a great deal ought to be overlooked, but it is an aggravation to one to try to get a call, half the time the bell will not ring, one waits and waits and then calls up central and another try is made, with the same success. It is to be hoped that when the necessary repairs are made and the wires all in that better satisfaction will be given patrons.

Card of Thanks.

We desire to take this means of thanking the Knights of Pythias, the Sons of Veterans, the G. A. R. Post, the W. R. C. corps and many friends for the aid given us during our sorrow. We especially desire to express our deepest gratitude to Mr. John Campbell, who so diligently sought to lighten our grief and who gave every possible attention to the caring for of the remains of our son and brother. To the Knights who were with us at all times we can only say that we thank them from the inmost depths of our hearts and trust that we may at some time in a measure repay them for their kindness.

MR. AND MRS. JOHN JAMES and children.

SOCIAL NOTES.

Mrs. S. G. Wright entertained a few of her lady friends in a very charming manner on Saturday morning at a buffet breakfast. Although the weather was very inclement nearly all those invited were present. To Mrs. Wright most certainly belongs the credit of introducing a novelty into the course of Denison's many social events. The buffet breakfast proved to be a delightful three course repast, at once substantial, delicate and appetizing. The ladies selected their plates from the sideboard and found their places at tables made beautiful with sea shells, cut flowers and hand painted china. The plate cards were very daintily done in shells and sea weed. On every hand were evidences of that artistic skill which is so greatly appreciated by the art lovers of Denison. The beautifully decorated china, the many paintings and works of art furnished in and of themselves a source of highest pleasure to her guests. Pursuant with the artistic instincts of the hostess, the guests were each invited to give a specimen of their drawing ability, the animals of the sea being the subjects of many sketches. It is said that after gazing at the drawing one faith in the existence of the fabulous sea-serpent became fixed and firm. Mrs. F. W. Meyers won the prize, a hand painted candlestick. Mrs. Wright waived the usual form of awarding prizes in favor of the visiting ladies in whose honor the breakfast was given. A beautiful plate done in shells and sea moss was given to Mrs. L. M. Shaw and to Mrs. Curtis a lovely violet vase. Mrs. E. F. Tucker assisted her sister in the entertainment of the guests who were unanimous in declaring the Buffet breakfast, at least as served by Mrs. Wright, a charming success.

Mrs. F. J. Young will give a tea party this evening in compliment to Mrs. Shaw.

Mrs. Carl F. Kuehnle entertained a party of ladies at dinner on Friday evening, complimentary to Mrs. L. M. Shaw and to her guest, Mrs. Jacob Sims of Council Bluffs. The dinner was a triumph of culinary skill and was perfect in its every detail. The dining room was made beautiful with handsome decorations, the color scheme of yellow being carried out in the center piece, the handsome candelabra and the vases of lovely roses. Handsome cards done in water colors marked the places of the guests and roses were the favors. Mrs. Kuehnle is a most charming hostess—her genuineness, her tact and her real affection for her friends, combine to make a visit to her home a real pleasure. The out of town guests were Mrs. Shaw, Mrs. Sims, Mrs. Curtis and Mrs. Louis.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Garrison entertained a number of their friends at dinner Monday evening in honor of Mrs. Secretary Shaw of Washington, D. C. and Mrs. C. S. Curtis of Wausau, Wis. It is needless to say that the dinner was a success as anyone who has ever accepted of Mr. and Mrs. Garrison's hospitality will verify.

Invitations are out for a reception at the Isenminger residence Wednesday afternoon, given by the following ladies: Miss Isenminger, Miss Stevens, Mrs. A. D. Randall and Mrs. J. W. Mills.

AFTER TEN YEARS.

Mr. F. W. Meyers is in Iowa City today attending the reunion of the class of 1892 of which he was a member. It seems hardly possible that ten years have passed since the boys and girls left the old "versity" to see what they could do when they ran up against the real problems of life. It will doubtless be a great pleasure to meet the old classmates and to note the "ravages of time."

At the meeting of the Knights of Pythias last evening, W. D. McAhren, W. D. Luney and Hugo Gebert were elected representatives to the grand lodge which meets in Des Moines this fall.

Richard Peters, of Pellworm Germany has been visiting with the Sibbert boys the past few days. Mr. Peters likes this country very well and should he succeed in getting a good position he will remain.

Frank Pfarr returned last evening from a week's visit in Kansas. He was looking after his farm interests near Parsons. Mr. Pfarr says crops never looked better in Kansas than now. Small grain is at its best, corn is tassel-ing and farmers are much encouraged.
