J. P. JONES MARRIED.

The following notice of the marriage of our fellow townsman is taken from the Cedar Rapids Gazette:

JONES-BLAKELY.

A beautiful wedding was celebrated this morning at the church of the Immaculate Conception. The rites of matrimony were solemnized with high nuptial mass by the very Rev. Dean Gunn, at 8 o'clock, for Isabelle Cecelia, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Dempster Blakely, and Mr. James P. Jones. One hundred guests were invited to the church to witness the ceremony.

Exactly at 8 o'clock the full choir sang the bridal chorus from Lohengrin, and the groom with the groomsmen, his brother, Mr. John Jones, entered from the vestry and awaited the bride at the chancel steps. The two ushers, Mr. George Kern and Mr. Charles Burns, led the way through the center aisle and were followed by the bridesmaid, Miss Grace Blakely, sister of the bride. Miss Blakely wore a gown of pink silk mouseline de soie and a picture hat of white chiffon. She carried pink carnations.

The bride was brought in by her brother Mr. David Blakely, Jr. She was very lovely in a gown of white Persian mull, ruffled and tucked elaborately, and finished with a bertha of point lace, the work of her sister, Miss Elizabeth Blakely. The bridal bouquet was a shower of lilies of the valley, and the toilette was completed with a large white chiffon hat with long white ostrich plume.

The organist and choirmaster, Mr. E. A. Leo, played softly through the marriage ceremony, and in the celebration of the nuptial mass which followed, the choir sang Rosewig's mass.

In conclusion, Father Gunn made a brief but impressive address, reminding the newly wedded pair of the duties and responsibilities they had just assumed. He also spoke in the highest terms of the bride, commending her fidelity to her church, her parents and her friends. Miss Blakely had been organist of the church for eight years and for the past two years has served as assistant. A letter from Mr. Jones' pastor in Denison, also gave Father Gunn the assurance that the bride was united to a man of worth and Christian excellence.

The wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents, Shady Brook farm, Otis road, relatives and a few intimate friends being invited. The bride and groom received congratulations under a floral canopy, and the house was decorated with roses, peonies and syringa. The breakfast was served at twelve by the Misses Ann and Rhea McCauley, Nellie Robinson, Nellie Healey. The bride's sister, Mrs. F. H. Cleary, was in charge of the dining room.

The bride, who from life-long residence, and many winning qualities of mind and personality has numerous warm friends, received a great number of gifts in all the usual variety. The groom's present to his bride was an elegant Steinway parlor grand piano. Mr. and Mrs. Jones left on the Colorado Special east and will visit Chicago, Buffalo, Niagara Falls and New York city. They will be at home after August first in Denison, Iowa, where Mr. Jones is engaged in real estate and live stock.

Guests present from a distance were Mrs. James Hogan of Manchester and Mr. and Mrs. John Green of Stone City, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Roessler of Dubuque, Mr. John Jones of Denison.

Mrs. E. M. Holmes is enjoying a visit from her mother, Mrs. Page, of Sioux city.

Gene Gulick is out with a fish story as might be expected. He sends word that he caught 108 fish in one day this week. Guess again.

Miss Margaret King returned from Duluth yesterday. She and Miss Jennie Austin and Miss Craft expect to go to cedar Falls tomorrow.

Mr. Shaw, accompanied by Master Earl and Miss Erma, arrived in Denison this morning. Miss Enid will arrive tomorrow. They expect to remain until Sunday or Monday.

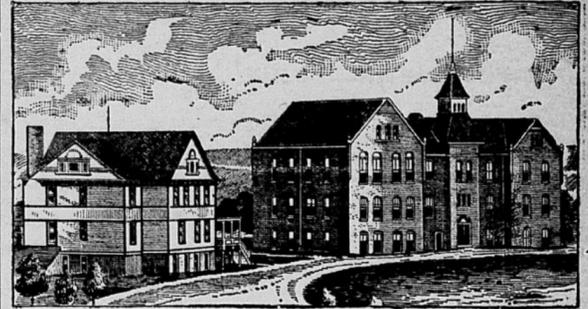

Frank Gibson, of Kenwood has gone to St. Paul to attend a reunion of the Minnesota regiment of which he was a member during the civil war. The reunion will be held to-day and tomorrow.

Mr. and H. V. Failor graduated from the law department of the State University of Nebraska on June 10th. We have not heard their plans for the future but with their splendid equipment of intellect, intelligence and legal training they should surely win success. The REVIEW joins with their other friends in extending congratulations.

The Carroll Sentinel, democratic, has the following to say regarding Mr. Powers who was nominated by the judicial convention for judge. "The people of the county and of this city especially, rejoice in the nomination of Mr. Powers. As a citizen and a lawyer he stands high in the community and few there are who have aught but words of praise for him and congratulations for his success."

EXPANSION NOTES

The proposition to extend the city limits was carried at the election held Tuesday by three votes. There was not much interest shown by those living in the limits at present, and no special effort was made to carry the vote. Many who were opposed to it were quite active and did considerable work, getting fellows to the polls. Almost everyone felt that the extension was lost, and the winning was a great surprise.

Denison is proud of her financial institutions: there are not many cities of her size supporting so many solid banking houses. And the end is not yet. On last Tuesday three more banks were added namely, Mills Northwestern bank, E. O. Christies bank on Packing House avenue, and Frank Jackson's bank on South Canal street front. They are all good banks and worthy of the sand patronage.

The strike continues at Randall's packing house south of Canal street. Lon is doing all his own killing.

Little did "Chuo" Conyne realize when he was advertising "Greater Chicago" that in the near future it would become a reality. His post factory is another worthy addition to Denison.

Marshall's Park, on the north side was thrown open to the public on Tuesday last. "Keep off the grass" signs have been displayed. As soon as the animals arrive the Zoo will be opened up, at which time Bert Stevers' horseless carriage will make daily trips for the accommodation of the patent medicine concerns.

The summer pavilion on the West Side is still accommodating the crowds. The pavilion is a nice, quiet, homelike hostelry and many a weary traveler has been refreshed under her welcome shade.

Ed Jackson's chaffeur narrowly escaped death one evening recently. In driving Mr. Jackson's automobile along Canal street he attempted to cross over, just as the draw bridge opened for Frank Leshner's ice tug. A terrible catastrophe was narrowly averted.

O. W. Wheeler's chicken sanitarium on the north side will be another valuable addition to Greater Denison. When the general public learns of the many Fourth of July fries, the sanitarium will be well patronized, particularly by those who do not care to have their presence known.

Berkshire Park with the many beautiful driveways, byways, hogways, runways and waterways will always be open to the weary. Here under the shade of the beautiful elm, the busy bee may be found gathering the sweet of the land.

Miss Belle Bartholomew is visiting at the Kuehne home.

Temperance Lectures.

Do not fail to hear Mrs. Anna M. Palmer National Evangelist of the W. C. T. U. at the Methodist church Friday, Saturday and Sunday evenings, and at the Baptist church Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Missouri Prohibitionists Meet. Clinton, Mo., June 20.—At the Prohibition convention yesterday the committee reported and several addresses were delivered. W. S. Crouch was made permanent chairman. Hon. Volney B. Cushing of Bangor, Me., and others addressed the delegates at the evening session. The ticket will be selected today.

Coleman Pleads Not Guilty. Brookings, S. D., June 20.—At the opening of the trial of Joseph P. Coleman, charged with the murder of his brother Edward, to secure $10,000 life insurance, the accused entered a plea of not guilty. The trial is attracting much interest.

Missing Men Are Found. Creede, Colo., June 20.—The injured in yesterday's fire are recovering. William Stewart and Fritz Zint, who were reported missing, have been found.
