The instruction he receives there will come to Crawford county and to the Denison Normal school and the benefit will be two-fold.

New telephone cards will be issued tomorrow. Most of the numbers have been changed, and many of the patrons will have to study up a little. We never operated a telephone line, but we do not see the necessity of changing a man's number every time a wire gets out of gear. Many of our business men have their telephone number printed on their office stationary, and the changes cause confusion, but then they can get more stationary printed.

Gentry's Dog and Pony Shows gave two exhibitions in Denison on Wednesday last, and those in attendance pronounce the show better than any circus that has been in Denison in many a year. The intelligence displayed by the ponies and dogs was almost human, and each act created great applause. The performing monkeys and elephants were laughable to see, especially the elephant orchestra and the monkey fire department.

The town council of Schleswig has accepted the gasoline engine and pump-boat just put in by the Stewart Lumber company. While the test showed that the well could not furnish the required quantity of water prescribed by the contract entered into with the well driller, still the councilmen concluded to put in a tank and lay pipe to give the town some fire protection. The fire committee was instructed also to erect a building to protect the pumping machinery, shelter the fire apparatus and provide a room to be used as a mayor's office and council room.

The Rev. Allen Judd will hold services at the Episcopal church next Sunday morning and evening. In looking over his report for the year ending May 1 1902, we find that Rev. Judd has held services on Sundays 107 times, on week days 111 times at 29 different places, the total attendance has been 5,506, he has celebrated Holy Communion 83 times, has made addresses 155 times, baptized 18 persons, presented confirmation to 10 persons, married nine couples and buried 3; he has traveled 11,452 miles by rail and 138 miles by team. Considering the fact that Rev. Judd was ill at his home from August 8th to November 10, this is an excellent record.

We are informed that most of the Denison business houses will close their places of business on the Fourth to enable clerks and to help celebrate. We believe this is a good move and our business men should visit the other towns that are celebrating.

W. A. Tucker, representing the J. W. Butler Paper Company of Chicago, was a Denison caller on Wednesday. Mr. Tucker makes his headquarters at Des Moines. He has lately purchased a fine eighty-acre farm 30 miles out of that city and intends to stock it with fine cattle.

We received a letter from John F. Dalton, of the Manson Democrat, saying that his entire office was destroyed by fire on Wednesday morning. The loss will aggregate about $3,000 with $2,000 insurance. Mr. Dalton will immediately rebuild and put in a much larger plant.

Mr. Lally attended commencement at St. Clara College Sinsinawa Wis. his daughter Maggie taking a prompt part in the exercises. He reports a most enjoyable time as well as an intellectual treat. The closing address of Father Durand was rated by Mr. Lally as being simply sublime.

Sarachon Sisters have purchased the Barrett building on Main street formerly occupied by Dr. Holmes, and are now having it remodeled and will soon move their millinery stock to that location. This will make an excellent place for their business, and we congratulate them upon having secured it.

Freight Agent Snyder, of the North-Western at Cedar Rapids, in an interview with the Gazette, says the boys were royally entertained while in Denison last Monday. Thanks, Messrs. Gable and Mahoney are known all around this place for their hospitality, and upon the occasion of the railroad boys' visit to our city they were doubly so.

How Often Do You?

Complain about sore feet. Most people do quite often and the reason for most of the trouble at this season of the year is because you are wearing high cut shoes, when you should be fitted with a pair of our low cut shoes, which will give your feet room to breathe. Try a good fitting pair of low cuts and be comfortable, at

KELLY'S Shoe Store.
