Vail and Dunlap crossed bats on the Vail grounds Sunday afternoon and it took eleven innings to decide the contest. The game was full of errors. It seemed to be an off day with our boys and if they had played their game the visitors would have gone home with very few scores. There was a nice crowd present and the gate receipts were very satisfactory. Following was the line up:

VAIL	DUNLAP
Riley C. Bruce
Strasser Malone
M. Sherwood B. Brown
Duffy Fisher
F. Sherwood B. Bruce
Buckley Wilnot
Quirk Aldrich
Servoss Dugan
Sheridan H. Brown

Score by innings:
Vail.....0-1-3-0-0-2-1-2-0-3-13
Dunlap.....2-2-0-1-0-0-2-3-0-2-12

In last Friday's issue of this paper we printed a number of the wonderful free attractions engaged by the Denison Business Men's Association for their Street Fair to be held Sept. 23, 24, 25, 26. Expense has not been considered as they are determined to make this the greatest street fair ever held in Western Iowa. Below we printed another list of the free attractions. The cuts are exact representations of the attractions.

HANLON & SINGER.—Two of America's leading performers. Performing the most wonderful and difficult gymnastics before the public. This is not an ordinary flying ring act, but instead a distinctively graceful, difficult and picturesque entertainment, undisplayed heretofore by any other athletes. Engaged for the Denison Street Fair at a great cost.

MILLER SISTERS.

Terpsichorean artists and dancers without an equal. Sing all the new and popular songs. A pleasant entertainment that will please young and old. Nothing vulgar, everything of the highest class.

This is bound to be one of the most pleasing free attractions of the fair. The Miller Sisters have a reputation as being among the very best in their line and the committee was fortunate in securing them.

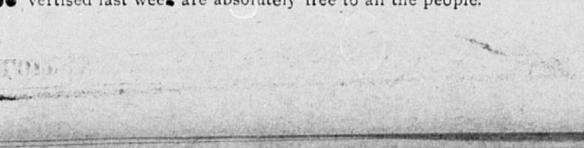

SMITH & JUNIARD.

One of the most pleasant entertainments on the program. Comedy Irish knockabout team, performing a series of wonderful and funny knockabout and acrobatic tricks. Their comedy and jokes are uproarious.

A dash of nonsense is added by these celebrated comedians, thus rounding out a program which will be at once interesting, amusing, instructive and laughable.

Come and laugh with the crowd. A sure cure for the blues.

Remember that all the above attractions together with those advertised last week are absolutely free to all the people.
