ONE HUNDRED VOICES.
Grand Chorus Concert Under the Instruction of Dr. Bartlett of Des Moines
The finale concert on next Wednesday evening will be a rare treat for the people of Denison. In addition to the numbers by the full chorus there will be a number of special selections rendered by some of Denison's most talented musicians. The music loving public should fill the opera house on Wednesday evening. Dr. Bartlett is the most eminent director in the west and he is sparing no pains to make this concert one of the best ever given in Denison.

M. D. Rose Injured.
Last Tuesday afternoon Mr. M. D. Rose, who works at the Fairmont Creamery received a very painful accident. He was on the second floor handling butter tubs, and lost his footing, and fell to the ground. Striking on his feet the force was such as to injure his hips, and lower body, and it is feared his legs are paralyzed. Medical aid was summoned and he was taken home where he is receiving every possible care, but he is unable to move or have anyone move him. Mr. Rose is a worthy man and we sincerely hope he may recover and be able to resume work.

Lovers of genuine music throughout the county will be pleased to learn that the street fair music committee has contracted with the famous Hagenow Band of Lincoln, Neb., to play during the four days of the carnival. The Hagenow band is composed of professional artists and is considered to be one of the finest bands west of the Mississippi. There will be nineteen pieces in the band and a feature of the program will be two free band concerts daily. The Hagenow orchestra will furnish music for the dances to be given at the opera house on the evenings of the fair. The Juvenile Band of Denison will also furnish music for the fair and will prove a drawing feature.

Jake Gable informs us that he will personally conduct another excursion to Hot Springs, S. D., on Aug. 23d. The rate will be $15.70 for the round trip. For sleeping car rates and other particulars address or call on Mr. Gable at Denison. The last excursion was a big success and all who went had the best kind of a time, besides being benefitted.

Dr. W. T. Garber has rented the office over the McHenry bank and will open up a dental office in the near future. This office is the one occupied by Dr. Garber when he first came to Denison years ago, and is a good location for an office. The Doctor feels that Denison is large enough to support four dentists and will ask for a share of the patronage.

Next Wednesday the old Settlers will come to Denison, and attend one of the best picnics held in a long time. Let all come.
