THE KIRON CHRONICLE

E. E. Clauson, Correspondent.

Mr. E. Munson, one of the pioneer settlers in this locality and who has passed his sixty-sixth mile stone, surprised his many friends on Wednesday afternoon by walking to Kiron from his home two miles south which has been over ten years ago since he last walked that distance.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Carlson, from Moline, Iowa, spent the past week visiting at the Larson homes and other friends and old neighbors.

Mr. L. J. Gunnerson, who has been making his home at Boone the past year, came to Kiron Wednesday to spend a few weeks with his friends who thought him dead, seeing in a certain paper of the death of Gunnerson at Boone which they thought was L. J.

Rev. C. S. Fredrickson and wife and son Elden, of Boone, visited at the home of E. E. Clauson between Thursday and Saturday last.

Mr. A. F. Lundberg and daughter Alice and John Peterson went to Pomeroy Saturday, to remain a few days. Mr. Lundberg goes to attend to his farms there.

The REVIEW's special correspondent being here last week we let him gather and write the news from Kiron in the last issue. Among other things he said in the news items was that E. E. Clauson was away getting prices on furniture and stoves and he anticipated that we were going into housekeeping next spring. Bro. Nestlebusch, you were misinformed as we have both stove and furniture and have many months ago started housekeeping.

Rev. Aug. H. Modig, from Holdrege, Neb., will preach at the Free Mission church on Wednesday evening, Sept. 24. He is at present traveling in the interest of the Children's Home located at Phelps, Neb.
