President's Influence Settles Coal Strike

Washington, Oct. 14.—By authority of J. P. Morgan, who, with his partner, Robert Bacon, and Secretary Root, were in conference with President Roosevelt at the temporary white house last night for an hour and a half, a statement was given out by Secretary Cortelyou, in which the presidents of the coal carrying railroads and mine operators propose a commission of five persons to adjust the differences and settle the coal strike in the anthracite coal fields of Pennsylvania. The proposition is believed by the administration to be satisfactory to the miners, as it covers the proposition made by President Mitchell of the United Mine Workers' union, with additional conditions which, it is believed, the miners will accept. The statement is as follows:

"Mr. J. P. Morgan came to Washington with his partner, Mr. Bacon, at the request of the coal companies, who desired that as a matter of courtesy their statement should be shown to the president before it was made public. Having been laid before the president by Mr. Morgan, it is now given to the press:

"To the Public: The managers of the different coal properties comprising the anthracite coal fields wish their position in the present strike to be understood, and therefore make the following statement of facts:

"There are in the anthracite regions about seventy-five operating companies and firms, and 147,000 miners and workmen, of which 30,000 are under age, comprising some twenty nationalities and dialects. Of these workmen, possibly one-half belong to the United Mine Workers' union, of which Mr. John Mitchell is president. That organization was originally formed in the bituminous coal region and three-fourths of its members are miners of bituminous coal, and bituminous coal is sold in active competition with anthracite coal. The remaining workmen in the anthracite fields either belong to no union whatever, or do not belong to the mine workers' union.

"The present strike was declared by the mine workers union on the 10th day of May, 1902. Since that time many workmen not belonging to that organization were working about the mines. From seven to ten thousand are now at work. Many more have wished to work, but have been prevented by a course of violence and intimidation towards those working and towards their families, accompanied by the destruction of properties and the fear of death or bodily harm to every man who wishes to exercise his right to work. This violence has continued and steadily increased, notwithstanding repeated disavowals by Mr. Mitchell, and it is clear that he either can not or will not prevent it, and that the rights of the other workmen cannot be protected under the supremacy of the mine workers' union.

"Believe Wages Are Fair.

"The coal companies believe that the wages paid in the coal regions are fair and full, and all that the business in its normal condition has been able to stand, if the capital invested is to have any reasonable return. The profits have been small and several of the companies have become bankrupt and been reorganized several times.

"The undersigned are not and never have been unwilling to submit all questions between them and their workmen to any fair tribunal for decision. They are not willing to enter into arbitration with the mine workers' union, an organization chiefly composed of men in a rival and competitive interest, and they are not willing to make any arrangement which will not secure to the men now working, and all now or hereafter wishing to work, whether they belong to the mine workers' union or not, the right and opportunity to work in safety and without personal insult or bodily harm to themselves or their families. For these reasons the arbitrations heretofore proposed have been declined.

"The coal companies realize that the urgent public need of coal and the apprehension of an inadequate supply for the approaching winter calls for an earnest effort to reach a practical conclusion which will result in an increased supply, and the presidents of the companies desire to make every effort to that end which does not involve the abandonment of the interests which are committed to their care and of the men who are working and seeking to work in their mines. This responsibility they must bear and meet as best they can.

"They, therefore, restate their position: That they are not discriminating against United Mine Workers, but they insist that the miners' union shall not discriminate against or refuse to work with nonunion men, that there shall be no restriction or deterioration in quantity or quality of work, and that owing to the varying physical conditions of the anthracite mines each colliery is a problem by itself.

"We suggest a commission, to be appointed by the president of the United States, to which shall be referred all questions at issue between the respective companies and their own employees, whether they belong to a union or not, but decision of that commission shall be accepted by us. The commission to be constituted as follows:

"1. An officer in the engineer corps of either the military or naval service of the United States.

"2. An expert mining engineer, experienced in the mining of coal and other minerals, and not in any way connected with coal mining properties, either anthracite or bituminous.

"3. One of the judges of the United States courts of the eastern district of Pennsylvania.

"4. A man of prominence, eminent as a sociologist.

"5. A man who by active participation in mining and selling coal is familiar with the physical and commercial features of the business.

"It being the understanding that immediately upon the constitution of such commission, in order that idleness and nonproduction may cease instantly, the miners will return to work and cease all interference with and persecution of any nonunion men who are working or shall hereafter work. The findings of this commission shall fix the date when the same shall be effective and shall govern the conditions of employment between the respective companies and their employees for a term of at least three years."

The statement is signed by George F. Baer, E. B. Thomas, W. H. Truesdale, T. P. Fowler, R. M. Oliphant and Alfred Waters.

Way Open for Settlement.

While no official statement was made at the white house after the operators' address was made public by Secretary Cortelyou, the opinion was expressed that the way is now open for a complete settlement of the strike and that the mines would soon be in operations once more.

The proposition of the coal operators was a result of the visit of Secretary Root to New York and his conference with Mr. Morgan on Saturday. Mr. Morgan at that time expressed a keen interest in the situation and a desire to bring about an adjustment, if possible. Following this talk with Secretary Root there was a conference in New York yesterday, at which the proposition of the coal operators was agreed to and Mr. Morgan was delegated to bring it to the president, in the belief that such would be the courteous course and the best way of promulgating the offer of settlement.

The next move will be the presentation of the matter to the miners, and it is probable that President Mitchell will be invited to Washington to consult the president. It is believed here that he at once will accept the proposition.

Miners May Waive Any Objections.
Wilkesbarre, Oct. 14.—President Mitchell, when shown a synopsis of the statement issued from the white house early this morning, in which the operators agree to arbitration, refused to make any comment. While no official information can be had at this time, it is not believed the arbitration plan proposed by the operators will be entirely satisfactory, but the miners' official may waive any objections they may have and accept it.

Strike Breaker Fatally Beaten.
Scranton, Pa., Oct. 14.—Orlando Schooley, who was taking a crowd of newly recruited men to work at the Edgerton colliery at Jermy yesterday afternoon, was set upon by a mob of 100 men and beaten so badly with clubs and stones it is feared he will not live. When taken to the emergency hospital at Carbondale it was found that his back was broken. The recruits who were with Schooley were allowed to go unmolested upon their agreeing to take a train out of town.

Revolt in Macedonia.
London, Oct. 14.—A dispatch from Volo, Greece, says twenty-two villages in Macedonia are in complete revolt and that half a battalion of Turkish troops has been annihilated by insurgents in the Krezna defile. This news, continues the dispatch, emanates from sources which have hitherto minimized the trouble. The situation consequently appears suddenly to have grown worse.

Former Governor Is Leader.
Cape Haytien, Hayti, Oct. 14.—General Deschamps, the former governor of Porto Plata, Santo Domingo, has taken up arms against the provisional government of Santo Domingo and risings have occurred at Monte Christo, Dajabon, Savanett and Guayabin.

After a lingering illness, extending over a period of several months, R. C. Burdick, the St. Paul veteran grain man, died Monday.

CARNIVAL QUEEN QUEEN OF HEARTS

Is Lead to the Altar by One of Our Best Young Men.

Ceremony This Morning, Reception This Afternoon and Dance This Evening.

This morning occurred the wedding of Mr. Chris Lorenzen and Miss Alice White, the Carnival Queen is now to become the queen of hearts and the queen of a happy home. The ceremony which united this estimable couple took place at 9 o'clock at St. Rose of Lima church, Rev. Father M. J. Farrelly officiating. There were a large number of friends present. Mr. Harry White, brother of the bride, acted as best man and Miss White of Jackson, a cousin of the bride, as bridesmaid. The bride was beautifully attired in white and looked every inch the queen that the votes of the people had made her but a short time ago. In the afternoon the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph White, the bride's parents, was the scene of a lively and jolly gathering. Friends and relatives had gathered from miles around to tender their congratulations to the happy couple and many and valuable were the presents which testified to the esteem in which they were held. The tables fairly groaned with the good things set at the wedding banquet and all went merry as a wedding bell. Mr. and Mrs. Lorenzen favored the guests with instrumental and vocal selections giving but added witness of their well known musical talents. For this evening the use of the school hall at St. Rose of Lima's church grounds has been tendered for a social ball and the day will end as happily as it was begun and has continued.

The groom is a quiet, modest young man of sterling qualities. He is a Crawford county boy of whom all may be proud. He attended Denison college and has been for some time employed as assistant in the Schlumberger Pharmacy. In this position he proved himself faithful, efficient, accommodating and affable and gained the friendship of all who came to know him. He is to be heartily congratulated upon having won one of Denison's most lovely brides. A girl as beautiful in character and heart as in face and form. A lady of many accomplishments, a beautiful singer and what is best of all, of a sensible, modest and lovable character. The REVIEW joins with the many other friends in proposing "Long life and prosperity to bride and groom."

Knights of Father Matthew Meet.
Kansas City, Oct. 14.—The annual convention of the supreme council, Knights of Father Matthew, began in Kansas City, Kan., yesterday. One hundred and fifty delegates, representing fifty-one councils, were present. In the absence of Mayor Craddock, Rev. Father Kuhls of St. Mary's Catholic church made the address of welcome. William H. O'Brien responded on behalf of the delegates. He said that the order had accomplished more during the last two years than in any time in its history, except the first two years after its organization. The subject of the revision of the insurance schedule was discussed, but not voted upon.

Laundrymen in Session.
Washington, Oct. 14.—The nineteenth annual convention of the Laundrymen's National association began here yesterday. More than 600 delegates were present. The convention may consider the question of a raise of prices for laundry work on account of the coal shortage.

DAVIE NOT ON THE TICKET.

Candidate's Name Remains Unfiled.

Democrats Struggling to Find Some Way Out of the Difficulty, Davie to be Congratulated.

Bill Davie will not appear on the democratic ticket unless the politicians are able to find some way out of an awkward dilemma. The papers certifying to his nomination were directed in such a careless manner that they failed to be placed on file and the Hon. William is out. It is too bad. There are many in both parties who would have enjoyed voting against Davie and who are sorry that the opportunity has escaped them. The manner of the democratic blunder as currently reported about the streets is this. John Cook, who is running on the democratic ticket for supervisor on account of his business experience, mailed the letter containing the important document from Manila and with an intelligent accuracy which ought to win him many votes, he directed the letter to "The State Secretary," Des Moines. Now there is a vast difference between a state secretary and the secretary of state. There is the state secretary of the Y. M. C. A.; the state secretary of the Brewer's Association, of insurance companies galore, of the agricultural society, and the horticultural society, and the W. C. T. U. and a couple of hundred other organizations, but John, the business man, did not know, and so poor Davie is left on the outside to watch the procession go by. Of course there will be an effort made to overcome the difficulties of the situation and we hope that it may be successful. This would be in the interests of all and as we have said before there are many good democrats who have been longing for the opportunity to let Mr. Davie know for the second time and in emphatic terms that he is not wanted. As we look at it the hardest blow falls upon "State Secretary Cook."

Joe Gans, the lightweight champion, knocked out "Kid" McPartland of New York in the fifth round at Fort Erie Monday night.

The eight-hour schedule went into effect at all the Minneapolis flour mills Monday. Hereafter there will be three instead of two shifts.

Mrs. Alexander Small, sister of Senator Shelby M. Cullum, died at her home in Chicago Monday. She was seventy-four years of age.

General James F. Smith of California has been appointed a member of the Philippine commission to succeed Bernard Moses, who is to retire Jan. 1.
