Born, to Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Wagner, Friday, Oct. 10, a girl.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Kemming are visiting in Green River, Wyoming.

Rev. Allan Judd will preach at the Episcopalian church next Sunday.

Mrs. Very, of Chicago, is a pleasant guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Laub.

Mrs. George He-ton is now enjoying a visit with her daughter Mrs. Mead in Rockwell City.

Mrs. R. L. Colgrove left this afternoon for Dölliver, Iowa, where she will remain for some time.

Mr. O. O. Smith, architect of Des Moines, was in Denison this week looking up matters in his line.

H. H. Menagh went to Des Moines on Saturday last and from there he will go to Coifax for a short stay.

Mr. Chas. Tabor and Mrs. Jane Dickinson returned this week from a month's visit in Adrian, Michigan.

Mrs. E. G. Randall, mother of Mr. A. D. Randall, has gone to Kansas where she will visit with a son during the winter.

The Germania Verein held a meeting last night for the consideration of their proposed new articles of incorporation.

Mrs. E. M. Parker is visiting her former home in Sigourney, Iowa. She will not return until sometime during the winter.

Mr. T. J. Kelly says that one of his pug pups has strayed away from home. Any information as to its whereabouts will be cheerfully received.

"For Her Sake" a scenic production coming, Thursday, Oct. 30. Magnificent costumes, 11 drops of scenery, and all star cast in "For Her Sake."

A number of Denison republicans are planning to go to Manila tonight to hear Victor Dölliver and to extend the glad hand to Manila republicans.

Secure seats early "For Her Sake."

Magnificent costumes "For Her Sake."

The Smith brothers of Maullia were Denison visitors on Thursday.

The congregation of the Episcopal church are planning to put in a furnace this fall.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Knight were among the Charter Oak people to visit Denison this week.

If you enjoy a good melodrama, be sure and witness "For Her Sake" at the opera house Oct. 30.

Mr. Frank Leahy is rejoicing over the return of his mother and his little daughter from their visit in eastern Iowa.

Rev. Lothringer is still feeling ill from an attack of la grippe and will probably have one of his brethren here to officiate for him next Sunday.

The opera house is to have a fine hard wood floor laid this month. When completed this will be one of the finest of dance halls and the society should give a grand ball to celebrate its completion.

"Davy Crockett" at the opera house on Wednesday evening proved very good and the audience was highly pleased. The next attraction at the opera house will be "For Her Sake," on the evening of Oct. 30.

With an exceptionally large cast, and a capable one, a wealth of special scenery, and a plot of engrossing human interest, are among the promises made concerning the new Russo-Siberian play, "For Her Sake."

A. D. Randall has installed two new National Computing Scales in his market that are fine ones. The amount of purchase is registered in cents and the price per pound is also given. With these scales one pays for just what he gets.

The Charter Oak Times sagely remarks that the day has gone past when any old thing can be elected on the democratic ticket in Crawford. When the democrats learn this lesson and nominate good, sober and reliable men they may not find themselves in such bad shape as they are at present.

Married.

Married, Oct. 15, 1902, at 5:30 p. m., at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Stone, Rev. M. Bohart officiating, Miss Veda Anderson and Mr. Walter C. McMinemec. After the ceremony a bounteous dinner was served, after which the happy couple departed for a brief stay in Omaha. The bride is an estimable young lady with many accomplishments. She has been one of Crawford county's successful school teachers. After graduating from the Denison Normal and Business College, she accepted a position as stenographer for a large publishing house in Cincinnati, O., where she has been the past three years. The groom is an industrious young man and is the manager of the Nye, Schneider & Co. grain and live stock business at Crowell, Neb., at which place they will be at home after Nov. 15th. The best wishes of their many friends go with them.

Mrs. J. H. Gable entertained Penelope on Tuesday afternoon.

There was a splendid attendance on the occasion, and the time passed in the usual delightful way.

At five o'clock Mrs. Gable treated her guests to a most appetizing tea, which was right up to the Penelope standard.

Hon. J. P. Conner's meeting at Kiron on Wednesday evening was the biggest kind of a success. The streets were lined with teams and the audience was larger than the hall could comfortably contain. Judge Conner's speech was splendidly received. There is no sign of apathy in Kiron and vicinity and there will be a large vote for the popular candidate for clerk, Mr. E. E. Clauson. The beauty of the republican ticket is that it is popular in every part of the county.

Coterie club met Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Ira Gilmor. A most enjoyable afternoon was spent, a clever guessing game doing the part of the entertainment of the company.

Mrs. Gibson proved herself the most at home in a grocery store, and was awarded a beautiful prize.

The hostess was assisted by the Misses Gilmor in entertaining her guests, and a most delicious luncheon was served at the close of the afternoon.

On Wednesday evening Mrs. W. R. Kirkup assisted by her charming daughters Florence and Beatrice, entertained a large number of their friends with a most pleasant evening company. A very interesting game kept the guests guessing and Dr. B. F. Philbrook was the lucky man to win in the tie for first place and to receive the dainty prize. One of the chief delights of the evening were the beautiful instrumental and vocal selections by the Misses Kirkup whose musical talents are a credit to music loving Denison. Elegant refreshments were served and the evening was a delightful one in every way and reflected credit upon Mrs. Kirkup's hospitality.

Seven big scenes "For Her Sake."

About the slowest thing on record is the Romans vs. Parcell case now on trial at the court house. It is to be hoped that it will be finished some time this week.

The case of Romans vs. Parcell has been dragging its weary length this week to the disgust of the number of Charter Oak business men who were called as witnesses.

Mr. Nels Chambers, now of Boone, has been in Denison this week visiting with his many friends. He tells us that he has been prosperous in his new home, but he believes Denison too good a field to have been left.

There is a certain magic in the very name Siberia, and when it figures in a play the theatre-goer is assured at least of thrilling situations and picturesque scenic effects. "For Her Sake" contains these elements.

At a meeting of the directors of the Crawford County Telephone Co., held on Oct. 10, 1902, W. J. Scriver was elected to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of J. B. Romans on July 12, 1902.

Mr. Henry Schroeder had a grand birthday party at his home in Morgan township on Wednesday. Here's long life to the supervisor, may he always be as wise in his judgments as he is warm in his friendships.

We understand that Mr. Gus Hettman will resign his position in the Boys' store the last of the month. We have not heard his future plans but we trust he may remain in Denison as he is an efficient clerk and a hard worker.

At the last meeting of the city council an ordinance was passed fixing the grade on Broadway so as to conform to the new cement walks. The building occupied by the Calumet lunch counter will now be raised and the new walks put in before the heavy frosts come. Additional sidewalks were also ordered near the north school building, and other work of a routine character was done.

Master Tommy Parcell, this young American violin virtuoso, will be heard with the Schubert Co. on October 29. Close application to study under the best American and foreign masters, coupled with rare natural talent, has enabled him at an early age, to win a place among the foremost artists on this acknowledged king of instruments.

Mr. John Briar, private secretary to Gov. A. B. Cummins was a pleasant Denison visitor yesterday. His visit was without political purpose and was on purely personal business. He is one of the bright young men of the state who made his start through efficient newspaper work. Gov. Cummins is fortunate indeed in obtaining his services in such a confidential relation.

H. F. Hodges and Chet Lyman attended a big wigwam meeting of the Redmen order at Des Moines last week. Mr. Hodges was elected as a representative from Iowa to attend the head meeting next year down in Jersey. H. F. knows more about the Redmen order than anyone in this part of the state and his war whoop will be heard all over Jersey.

Dr. R. P. Plimpton wishes us to state that he is not a candidate for representative on the prohibition ticket, that he was never notified of any nomination and that he understands that no nomination papers are on file with the Secretary of State. While appreciating the intended compliment Dr. Plimpton regrets the use of his name in this connection.

Mr. Clarence Morgan of Charter Oak, and Miss Grace Welch of Denison were married on Sunday afternoon Oct. 12. Rev. Morphy of the First Baptist church officiating. The wedding took place at the home of the brides mother Mrs. M. Wells and was a quiet but impressive ceremony. None but the immediate relatives being present. Mr. and Mrs. Morgan will reside at Charter Oak. The bride is a most pleasant and attractive young lady, and the Review extends congratulations to the happy groom.

Presbyterian Services.

An Omaha Theological student will preach at the Presbyterian church next Sunday both morning and evening, in the absence of Rev. Martyn at the funeral of Mrs. Bergen. All are invited.

"For Her Sake"

The company is an unusually large one, and carries a big stock of special scenery. It is to be played at popular prices, and from all points of view ought to prove one of the most satisfactory engagements of the season.

A Musical Treat.

Cards have been issued by Miss Lillian Garrison and Miss Abbie McHenry inviting their friends to a musical to be given at the home of Miss Garrison on Thursday evening, Oct. 13. Mrs. Heighton of Omaha will act as accompanist and numbers will be given as follows:

Cello—Mr. Wendell H. Heighton.

Song—Miss Garrison.

Cello—Mr. Heighton.

Song—Miss Polster.

Cello—Mr. Heighton.

Married.

On Wednesday evening, Oct. 15th, took place the marriage of Mr. Ernst F. Sibbert and Miss Hertha C. Von Tuil both of Denison. The ceremony was performed at the parsonage of the Lutheran church, Rev. F. Lothringer officiating. Later they were one of two bridal couples to take No. 5 west for a wedding trip. The bride is the attractive and popular daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Von Tuil of this city. She is possessed of every grace necessary for the realization of a happy home and we sincerely congratulate Mr. Sibbert upon his good fortune in securing her as his helpmate through life. Mr. Sibbert is one of the four Sibbert boys who came to this country from Germany not very many years ago. Each of them has made his own way through life and has become a useful and respected citizen. Ernst has our good wishes and congratulations.

The prohibition candidate for congressman spoke at the city hall on Tuesday evening before a small audience. His address was well received by his followers. He is making an extensive canvass of the district.

SHOES AT A PRICE

Are a very poor piece of property to anyone, and especially so to the people who have to wear them. Some people make the price every inducement to consummate a sale, they do not pay any attention to quality, they think if they advertise the price it is all that is necessary, not so here, unless we can have the quality go with the price we do not care to make the sale. No use to believe a shoe dealer who will tell you his $3.50 shoes are as good as the one some one else sells for $5.00. This kind of an assertion is false, and anyone who gives it to thought should know

THAT WE SELL

$3.50 SHOES FOR $3.50
$5.00 SHOES FOR $5.00
