

Overstocked Sale

OF THE

Denison Clothing Co.,

CHAS. C. KEMMING, Proprietor

OWING to the fact that we could not get moved into our new store October 1st, that being the date our lease commenced, and having bought a very heavy stock, find the old stand inadequate to handle and show our goods, we have therefore decided to get rid of a part of the stock at least on short order, so to make room we will sell everything in every line at greatly reduced prices. We cannot say how long this sale will last, but get rid of the goods we must. What is our loss is your gain. Our stock is all new and complete in every line. Here we give you a few prices:

- Heavy Fleece Lined Shirts and Drawers, 30 cts. each
- Extra Heavy fleece lined Shirts and Drawers, 35 cts each
- Extra Heavy Balbriggan Shirts and Drawers, 50 cts each
Former price 75 cents.
- Wool Heavy Weight Ribbed Shirts & Drawers, 75 cts each
Former Price $1.25 and $1.50.

There is nothing reserved in this sale—everything must go. Call and see us when in town. Absolutely the biggest bargain sale in Denison. Yours for bargains.

PEANUT POLITICS.

A year ago, after the great Shaw meeting, Mr. Caswell swore vengeance. He said he was tired of having the people of Denison given a chance to hear Mr. Shaw every year and that he proposed to stop it. It mattered nothing to him that the people of Denison, regardless of party are glad each year to have the great secretary with them, it mattered nothing to him that hundreds of people have become accustomed to count upon the Shaw speech as one of the great events of the local calendar. The day after election he rushed to the opera house manager and engaged the hall for the Monday evening before election—a year ahead. Early in the campaign Dr. W. T. Wright engaged the hall for the Shaw meeting, the manager of the opera house having forgotten Caswell's rush order. Preparations were made for Mr. Shaw's meeting and Denison would have had the opportunity of hearing him for the first time since he has taken hold of the reins of the treasury department. The democrats rested quietly knowing that they had played a sneak game. Last week the democrat county chairman went to Manager Sibbert and engaged the hall for the Saturday before election, remarking that this gave the democrats the hall both on Saturday and Monday nights. Mr. Sibbert at first denied this but afterward the circumstances of Caswell's sneak trick were called to his mind and he was obliged to acknowledge that the democrats had the hall. Even at this date they do not know who they will get to speak on either of the evenings. Had they any one secured, their meetings would have been advertised before this. It was simply a trick to prevent the people from hearing Mr. Shaw. The democrats are afraid of a fair discussion of the issues. They want to keep the people in ignorance if possible for that is their only hope. An effort will be made to secure Mr. Shaw for some date prior to election. On whatever day and at whatever hour he may come he will receive a hearty welcome from the republicans and from those democrats who are not so narrowly and bitterly partisan as to share in the sneaking tricks of their so called leaders. If Mr. Shaw comes the crowd that will gather to greet him will be the best possible showing of the disapproval of the contemptible democratic effort to muzzle free speech and to prevent the people of Denison from hearing the man whose honors reflect credit upon every citizen of our community. Had the democrats had any speakers engaged the trick would have been less offensive, but they had none in mind when the hall was engaged and they do not know to this day who is to fill the hall on the two nights in question. Perhaps if they paid their opera house bills more promptly they would be less eager to contract additional indebtedness.

The Bulletin's fondness for telling untruths is witnessed that it could not quote from the REVIEW an item of five lines and do it without misrepresenting and misquoting. Had the Bulletin any sense of the ethics of journalism or of anything else for that matter it would not thus deliberately misquote the REVIEW. This is an unfair and dishonest method of which no gentleman would take advantage.

The Bulletin continues its attack upon Mr. Koenekamp, to the disgust of every decent German American citizen in the county. In the first place the statement as made by the Bulletin are utterly untrue. Mr. Koenekamp informs us that he now is a subscriber and reader of eighteen papers each week. He takes an English daily, and like the majority of the people of the county he takes the REVIEW. He is a well informed man, reads and writes English fluently, although a better scholar in German. The statement that he has not as good an English education as any of the German Americans who have sat on the board of supervisors at various times, is a lie made out of whole cloth.

Second Day of James Ceremonies. Chicago, Oct. 21.—After a day filled with receptions, addresses and processions of students, the second day's celebration of the installation of Edmund James James as president of Northwestern university ended last night with the formal opening of the new law school of the university on the site of the old Tremont house, at Lake and Dearborn streets. Justice Oliver Wendell Holmes of the United States supreme court was the guest of honor at the dedicatory exercises.

Tin Workers Meet. Pittsburg, Oct. 21.—The special convention of the Amalgamated Association of Tin, Iron and Steel Plate Workers, called by President Shaffer to consider the rate reduction proposed by the American Tin Plate company, was called in this city yesterday. The proposition of the tin plate company is that the men accept a reduction of 25 per cent to allow the manufacturers to fill foreign orders in competition with foreign mills.

ASTOR STILL ON THE MAP

Many Enterprising Citizens Flourish in Little Village.

Formerly the Metropolis of Southern Crawford it is Yet the Possessor of Happy Homes

The town of Astor is situated in the southwest part of Crawford county, 12 miles from Denison and two and one half miles from Manilla, is located on the main line of the Chicago Milwaukee & St. Paul R.R. a population of about 200 and although not incorporated is a law abiding, moral, and a temperate town. Its business men are energetic honest and well to, who by their careful methods of doing business have built up a large and prosperous trade. The surrounding country is thickly settled by a refined prosperous class of farmers who are industrious and willing to foster any kind of enterprise that will materially aid them. The school and church facilities are good also the town has one flouring mill, one first class cheese factory, general merchandise, hardware store and lumber yards etc.

The postmaster is Mr. O. A. Olson who looks after Uncle Sam's mail in first class style, he also conducts the general merchandise store, he carries a large stock of reasonable merchandise and every article is sold with a guarantee which cannot fail to satisfy the most exacting, besides being at the head of this business, Mr. Olsen is treasurer of the Astor Cheese Co. and is interested in the elevator and deals extensively in the grain and stock business. He bears a reputation of always being just and equitable in all his dealings and transactions and has the highest regard for the rights of his fellow men.

The Astor Cheese Co. is known all through Iowa as one of the best cheese factories in the land. Everything about this place is kept neat and clean and gives a person a chance to see how cheese is made, this plant is a paying investment and is managed by the following officers, President, Will Theobald; Secretary, Ed Theobald; Treasurer, O. A. Olson; Manager, G. H. Fay. They make a specialty of Twins and Young America and Cheddar cheeses. Their enterprise is unlimited and coupled with this is a degree of fairness in all their dealings and honorable character; which is the admiration of all who know them.

P. C. Peterson is the hardware man and carries a full line of hardware, buggies, wagons, implements and paints. He enjoys a big growing trade which was built up by his honest, generous ways and by fair treatment to his fellow men.

A. C. Behrend is the lumber man and carries a nice choice line of all grades of lumber under a covered shed. During his residence here Mr. Behrend has formed a wide acquaintance and is known by the people as one of the most pleasant and polite business men, who by his straight forward method of doing business has built up a fine reputation and trade.

Students Clubbed by Police. Emporia, Kan., Oct. 14.—Several hundred students of the Presbyterian college and the State Normal school of this city engaged in a free-for-all fight yesterday during the progress of a football game between the eleven representing the two schools and the police were forced to use their clubs freely to quell the disturbance. Manahan, a Normalite, was struck on the head by a policeman and dangerously injured and many of the boys were hurt by the clubs of the officers. The Normals won the game by a score of 6 to 0.

Four Bodies Are Recovered. Indianapolis, Oct. 14.—Four dead bodies were found yesterday tied in sacks in Georgia street and in the rear of the Central College of Physicians and Surgeons. The finding of the bodies is thought to be due to the efforts of detectives who for several days have been talking with physicians not connected with any of the colleges to use their influence in having stolen bodies returned to the relatives. Seventeen persons are now under arrest for grave robbing.

Convicted of Murdering His Mother. St. Joseph, Mo., Oct. 14.—William Coates, aged eighteen, was yesterday convicted of murdering his mother, Eliza Coates, three months ago. The boy had been anxious to obtain possession of the property held by his parents and choked her to death with the expectation that he would not be detected in the crime and would become the principal beneficiary of the estate.

Mourners in a Panic. Beaumont, Tex., Oct. 14.—Lightning tore through the roof of a negro church on Wall street late yesterday afternoon while a funeral was in progress and killed one man and injured five others. The steeple was completely demolished and in the panic that ensued the mourners, who were at the bier of the dead man, deserted the corpse, leaving it to the elements.
