Crawford County State Bank
DENISON, IOWA.

The Best Security for Depositors. Farm Loans at Five Per Cent Interest.

This Bank is incorporated under the laws of the State of Iowa. This gives the best security to all depositors, not only to the amount of stock, but the personal property of each shareholder is held to the amount of his share for any loss to the bank. Incorporated banks are under the control of the State Auditor, who can at any time examine the business, and according to his investigation the published statements are made. Depositors in an incorporated bank have more security than the confidence imposed in the offices. They have the best security, because the capital stock can not be used at pleasure for outside speculation and investment. The Crawford County State Bank is the best incorporated banking institution in the County. A general banking business done.

ARION NEWS LETTER

Friday, Oct. 9, at about five o'clock as James Stewart, son of John Stewart of Buffalo Center, was moving his threshing machine to a neighbors farm he met with an accident which caused his death. He went to back the machine out of the way of a rock so the separator would not strike it and in backing the engine on a short cramp the strain broke the separator tongue and the sudden jar caused him to lose his balance. He was forced down between the tool box of the engine and a driving wheel which ground away the lower part of his face. His brother, seeing the accident reversed the engine thus freeing him. The funeral services were held in the Congregational church in Buffalo Centre Wednesday afternoon at 1:30 p. m., Rev. A. W. McNeal, a former pastor, but now of Arion, preaching an eloquent sermon. The floral offerings were beautiful and the remains were followed to the cemetery by a large number of sympathizing friends and relatives.
