A Delightful Reception.

Mrs. J. B. Romans gave a most delightful afternoon reception at her beautiful home on Broadway on Wednesday. The reception was in honor of Mrs. Very, of Chicago and the parlors were thronged throughout the afternoon. The decorations were profuse and beautiful consisting of roses, carnations and ferns. Little Misses Pearl Wilson and Georgia McClellan met the guests at the door and escorted them to the dressing rooms. The receiving line was composed of Mrs. Very, Mrs. Romans and Mrs. Laub, while Mrs. F. J. Young invited the guests to the dining room where a bountiful luncheon was served. The Married.

Several intimate friends and relatives gathered at the cozy home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Raine on Wednesday evening to witness the marriage ceremony which united their daughter Grace E. Raine and Mr. Alvin Lyman. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. Emory Miller. At 7 o'clock the bridal couple marched in and took their places under the arch dividing the two parlors, the wedding march being played by Miss Lillian Raine, a sister of the bride. The bride was attired in a beautiful creation of white organdy with trimmings of satin ribbons and carried a bouquet of bride's roses. Her go-away gown was a dark tailor made serge. A delicious luncheon was served, after which the happy couple left on the evening train for a brief visit in Omaha and then proceeded to Weston, Iowa where they were tendered a reception last evening by the groom's mother Mrs. Guill. After a short visit at Weston they will return to Missouri Valley where they will be at home to their many friends. They were recipients of many valuable presents which testified to the esteem in which they were held.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyman are both well known to Denison people, the bride being one of Denison's bright and accomplished young ladies. She was a graduate of both the Denison High School and Denison Normal College, and will be missed by a host of young friends. The groom was former Denison boy at one time proprietor of the Calumet, now employed in the North Western eating house at Missouri Valley. He is a worthy young man of high moral character.

The REVIEW join the many friends in extending congratulations.

MARRIED IN SIOUX CITY.

Daughter of John G. Smith is Lead to the Altar.

On Monday, Oct. 6, Lucile B. Smith and Mr. Morris B. Loreridge were united in the holy bonds of matrimony at 2 p. m., Rev. John F. Wats of the First Baptist church officiating. A delicious supper at 5 was spread amidst a few relatives. Miss Lucile has been with us here in Morningside only a short time but has made a host of friends. Being the only daughter of John G. Smith, formerly of Vail, Iowa, they deemed it very hard to part with her. She was born and raised in Crawford county, was one of her successful teachers. She was a student of Denison college and also Cedar Falls. Morris Loreridge is an eastern young man of Pennsylvania. Although young has traveled extensively and concludes Iowa the best. He is one of Sioux City's most popular young men. We hope he will make his wife a true and loving husband. THE REVIEW joins with many Crawford county friends in congratulations and good wishes.

On Trail of Bank Robbers. Minneapolis, Oct. 24.—The three cracksmen who blew open the safe of the bank of Summit, S. D. last Sunday night, have been traced to the western part of Minnesota, and twenty detectives in the employ of the Fidelity company are in pursuit of the culprits in squads. It developed that the robbers' booty included $6,139 in cash, $39,000 in notes and $2,000 in other securities.

SOLE AGENTS FOR STANDARD PATTERNS

J. P. MILLER & CO.

Messrs. Porter and Clubb, of Sigourney, Iowa, visited with the Owens family on Sunday last.

Mr. Carl F. Kuehnle will fill a number of speaking dates outside of Crawford county this week. He is in demand at many places as his reputation for oratory is state-wide.

Lovie Zandt Parcell, the famous contralto of the Schubert Lady Quartette, has one of the deepest voices ever given to a woman, and is the only lady vocalist able to sing an octave below middle C in concert. Her voice is very powerful and yet so melodious that her strongest tones lose none of its sweetness. Hear her, Oct. 29. Prices 25-50.

Mr. Henry Powell treasurer of the University of Vermont, his son Max L. Powell and Mr. Edward Wells all of Burlington Vermont were guests of the Bank of Denison. They came to look over some of the lands on which they were loaning money and they returned evidently fully satisfied with the security offered by the prosperous farmers of Crawford county.

Word was received here last Wednesday of the death of Mrs. J. C. Bunke which occurred at her home in Goanor, Neb. Mrs. Bunke was a sister of Mrs. Jane Cavanaugh and was for many years a resident of this place. She had many friends who will regret her untimely death. She leaves a husband, two sisters and four children to mourn her loss.

A Wisconsin Wedding.

The following taken from the Ashland, Wis. News tells of the wedding of a young man who is well and most favorably known to many Denison people. He has been here but a comparatively short time but he already has a host of friends who will extend congratulations to him and a hearty welcome to his bride:

A very pretty wedding ceremony was solemnized at St. Agnes church this morning at 9 o'clock, the contracting parties being Miss Alice Kenally of Ashland and A. J. O'Connell of Denison, Iowa. The bride is well and favorably known here having resided here for the past two years with her brother. The groom is also well known here having resided here up till about four years ago. Mr. and Mrs. O'Connell leave on the 7:20 train for their future home in Denison, Iowa, where the groom is employed by the North-Western road.

SHOES AT A PRICE

Are a very poor piece of property to anyone, and especially so to the people who have to wear them. Some people make the price every inducement to consummate a sale, they do not pay any attention to quality, they think if they advertise the price it is all that is necessary, not so here, unless we can have the quality go with the price we do not care to make the sale. No use to believe a shoe dealer who will tell you his $3.50 shoes are as good as the one some one else sells for $5.00. This kind of an assertion is false, and anyone who gives it to thought should know
