Capt. Hull has caused the appointment of Uncle Dick Clarkson as pension agent at Des Moines. It is said that this was done in order to placate the Prouty faction. If Uncle Dick loses his libel suit he will find the salary very handy.

SOCIAL NOTES

That there is something new under the sun was proved last Friday and Saturday by the happy thought of Mesdames Wygant, Savage and Voss. Trio of hostesses surprised and delighted their guests beyond measure by serving a three course progressive luncheon, the first course being given at the home of Mrs. Voss, then the guests were invited to Mrs. Savage's home and then to Mrs. Wygant's where the last course was served. Roses and carnations were used in profusion at each one of the houses. The menu cards were triple hearts caught together with ribbon, making a very pretty keepsake of the afternoon. Both the afternoons were so jolly and unconventional that the most enthusiastic encomiums were showered on the triple hostesses.

Penelope was entertained most charmingly by Mrs. J. B. Dunbar at the home of Mrs. Gulick on Monday afternoon. Mrs. Dunbar enjoys the distinction of being one of the two honorary members of the club. Mrs. Gulick assisted Mrs. Dunbar in serving very nice refreshments. The Penelope club presented Mrs. J. P. Conner with a very handsome statue as a token of their appreciation of the courtesy and interest shown the club always by Mrs. Conner. Mrs. Dr. Philbrook made a very happy speech of presentation that was gracefully acknowledged by the recipient. A number of the friends of Mrs. Dunbar were also invited and enjoyed her hospitality exceedingly.

The series of dinners and social functions given in honor of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Conner was brought to a triumphant close by the very elegant and sumptuous dinner given in their honor by Mr. and Mrs. P. E. C. Lilly on Monday night. The menu consisting of all the delicacies of the season was served in four courses. The table decorations were white chrysanthemums. After dinner the misses Lilly delighted the guests with violin and piano music. Mr. and Mrs. P. D. McMahon of Charter Oak were the out of town guests. Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Conner Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Voss. Mr. J. B. Romans and Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Meyers were the guests who had the pleasure of enjoying the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Lilly.

Mrs. Louis Ley will entertain on Thursday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Draper Smith and Mrs. Joseph Allen of Omaha. The Penelope and Women's clubs are the invited guests. Mrs. Smith has been president of the Nebraska club federation.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Berkson entertain at cards on Thursday night.

The Friday club had an interesting meeting with Mrs. Johnson. Mrs. F. W. Meyers, Mrs. Dr. Kemp and Mrs. Chris Kemming read the papers.

Mr. and Mrs. Dr. Philbrook had as their guests last Friday Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Porter of Champaigne, Co. Ills. Mr. Porter who is a relative of the Dr. is a prominent farmer and stockman.

Hon. J. P. Conner, Mrs. Conner and Raymond leave this evening for Washington. They have not decided definitely whether the Christmas vacation of congress will be spent here or in the east. During the past few weeks Judge Conner has been very busy visiting various parts of the district he represents, settling post office appointments and otherwise looking after the interests of his constituents. We believe that Judge Conner has before him a distinguished congressional career, and we shall watch his course without misgiving. He goes back with a splendid endorsement from his district and from his own county, free to do that which is for the best interests of all the people. Denison will miss the Conners greatly both socially and in the way of business, for both of them are leaders in their spheres. We wish them a pleasant and successful season in the Nation's capital and the month of March will be made glad for all by their return.

Mr. J. C. Kott will hold a public sale of all household furniture in Denison on Dec. 8 at which time all his household goods will be sold. The furniture is all new and in the best of conditions. Prior to the sale any one wishing to purchase goods at private sale can call at residence.

Mr. Chas. K. Meyers and his daughter, Eunice visited Denison last Sunday. Brother Charles is looking well and his Denison visit was greatly enjoyed.

Last week Mr. Chas. Tabor sold C. F. Cassidy and son a fine Berkshire sow for $65.00. Mr. Cassidy is evidently determined to have nothing but the very best.

On Thanksgiving day the Denison Normal School will play foot-ball against Rockwell at Rockwell City. The boys are practicing every day and a good game is expected.

Mr. and Mrs. Stewart McCloy came to Denison last Saturday to visit his brother agent McCloy of the I. C. R. R. at this place. Mr. McCloy returned to Ackley, Iowa yesterday. Mrs. McCloy will remain for a longer visit.

Mrs. M. Franks of Fayette county, Pennsylvania accompanied by her daughter Mrs. Long and her granddaughter Miss Long are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Wood.

Postmaster and editor B. C. E. Ilsworth of Kanawa, Iowa was a Denison guest on Sunday. He visited with Judge Conner and then found his old-time friend Mr. Fred Bradbury and they spent a most happy day together.

Mr. Ernest Christie left on Sunday evening for Franklin Penn. to be gone all winter. It is reported that Ernest will not come back alone and in fact that he is soon to claim a charming daughter of the Keystone state as his bride. Mr. Christie is an industrious, upright and honorable young man and the Review wishes him much happiness in his new venture.

Mrs. J. C. Kott has a large quantity of canned fruit for sale.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Marshall will entertain Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Romans and family and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Woolston and daughter at dinner on Thanksgiving day. Mr. and Mrs. Marshall have an enviable reputation as delightful entertainers and a good time and a good dinner will undoubtedly be had.

In a very recent letter from the State University James Walker says that he has won an I. James played right end against Michigan and again the other day against Missouri and is therefore entitled to an "old gold" sweater with the I. for Iowa, worked in it. Missouri beat Iowa 6 to 0 but Jim was among those who received praise for good work.

Revival meetings at the M. E. church will continue this week as usual. Friday p. m. at three o'clock Rev. Barker will hold an old peoples meeting; no one under 50 years of age will be allowed to take part in this meeting. There will be no afternoon meeting on Thursday but a union Thanksgiving service will be held at the M. E. church at 11 o'clock a. m. Rev. G. E. Morphy of the Baptist church will preach the sermon.

Frank G. King, "Chic" Perkins and a good company will present "The Boy Tramp" at the opera house, Friday, Nov. 28. It is one of the best comedy-dramas now before the public. Considerable attention has been given to the scenic and mechanical effects—a complete set of scenery being carried for each act. The engagement of this popular attraction promises to be a rare treat for our amusement-loving people. The Philadelphia Dispatch says: "The Boy Tramp" is the best of the season. It is well constructed, the language is excellent, and has a good cast. Frank G. King is an unusually fine comedian and gives imitations almost as clever as Nat Goodwin. He is handsome, graceful, has a fine voice, and is a splendid actor.

A very fine large size Majestic steel range will be sold at the Kott furniture sale in Denison on Dec. 8.
