Mr. E. J. Ballegee the REVIEW's faithful correspondent at Dow City visited Denison last week. He made the Review an enjoyable call, and visited with a number of his old friends and acquaintances here. He has been a resident of Crawford, for thirty years.

Postmaster Schroeder writes us that the Reviews of Jan. 27 and Jan. 29 reached the Schleswig office together. As one left the Denison post office two days before the other we cannot understand the delay. It was not the fault either of the Review or the Denison post office. We are making every effort to get the Review out on time to every part of the country.

The Married Peoples dancing party given at the opera house on Thursday evening proved one of the most delightful events of the season. Coate's orchestra of nine pieces furnished the finest music, the floor was in excellent condition, the dancers were light of heart and of foot and every thing conspired to make the evening thoroughly enjoyable. It was decided to give a similar dance once a month during the season and Mr. A. F. Barber was elected president of a club organized for that purpose.

Mr. J. B. Romans addressed the college students during the chapel exercises yesterday morning. The talk was short but never-the-less very encouraging and helpful. Mr. Romans brought before the students the advantages of aiming high for ones ideal and working ceaselessly and making such sacrifices as are necessary for a successful career. He brought out many more fine points in his talk mentioning instances in his own career. The main point brought out in his talk was that earthly desires should not be the sole object and aim of our efforts but the highest ideal Christian life and experience, believing in the hereafter and the God of all.

Library News.

Schoentzen & Cox of Council Bluffs have submitted plans for library building which have not been accepted as yet. The preliminary survey of the lot has been made by Mr. Morris McHenry who presented his work as his contribution to the library. This survey was made with great detail and Mr. McHenry's contribution to the library was no small favor.

The idea of an athletic room in the basement has been abandoned as inadvisable. Just as much space as possible will be devoted to a meeting room for literary societies and clubs. This room will seat quite a number. There will also be a kitchen and china closet for the use of ladie's clubs in serving banquets and for social gatherings. It is hoped that active work will begin as soon as the frost is out of the ground.

Germania Elects Officers.

The Germania Verein held its annual election of officers on Wednesday evening. Mr. B. Broderson who has been president of the society for many years refused to act longer in that capacity. The following officers were elected:

President, Hugo Gebert; Vice Pres., Frank Faul; Sec'y, Peter Krauth, Treas., Louis Evers; Trustees B. Broderson, Dr. F. Mueller, Charles Evers.

Mr. B. J. Sibbert was re-elected as manager for the year. The committee reported $95 dollars as the net proceeds of the mask ball. The society is in a flourishing condition and in spite of the many improvements added to the opera house now sees its way clear toward getting entirely out of debt. There will be a special meeting of the society next Wednesday evening.

The scarlet fever quarantine has been lifted from the Roan household.

We hope the board will probe the bond issue to the bottom at their session next week. Even if nothing can be done to rectify the matter the tax payers are at least entitled to the satisfaction of having the matter investigated.

The news came last evening that F. Stoecks a former merchant of Denison had died at Scribner, Neb., where he with his wife and son Harry were carrying on a general mercantile business. Mr. Stoecks health had been failing for the past few years. Mr. and Mrs. F. O. Ivens of Denison and John Gohlman and wife of Wall Lake have gone to attend the funeral.

The "At Home" given on Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. Chamberlin and Miss Polster was thoroughly enjoyable. A very clever game called "Thirty Gates" was played. Miss Edith Gilmore receiving the first prize, a hand-painted cup and saucer. Miss Polster charmed her guests with her songs and music, and Miss Garrison sang with the beautiful expression that makes her singing so bewitching.

Splendid refreshments contributed their share toward the afternoon's pleasure. Mrs. Chamberlin always entertains delightfully and their service of pastime have been much enjoyed.
