Thirty Days for Larceny.

Justice E. Gulick yesterday sentenced Frank Howard to thirty days in the county jail for petit larceny. The testimony as produced at the trial was to the effect that Al Lyman had taken off his vest as he was doing his morning work at the Northwestern railway lunch counter. Howard came in and ordered lunch. Soon after Howard went out Lyman put on his vest and missed the watch. Howard was the only person in the lunch room besides Lyman during the time. Will and James Melton testified that on the evening of the day on which the watch was missing Howard showed them a watch which he said he had bought from a tramp. The description of the watch as given by the Meltons corresponded to the description of his watch as given by Lyman. Howard entered a denial but offered no further testimony. Under the circumstances Justice Gulick thought the proof conclusive and gave Howard the full extent of the law. The watch has not been found.

Frank Howard has many good traits but his unfortunate appetite for liquor has brought him much trouble. If his imprisonment should serve to break him of this habit, he has the ability and the industry to become a useful citizen.

Funeral of Thos. Griffin.

The funeral of Mr. Thos. Griffin on Thursday morning was attended by friends from all over the county. Rev. Father M. J. Farrelly pronounced an eloquent and well deserved eulogy, speaking of the charity, helpfulness and kindness of the deceased. The choir sang beautiful and appropriate music. Despite the inclement weather and the impossibility of giving adequate notice the attendance was large and the many who accompanied the funeral party to the cemetery was notably large.

Judge Powers dismissed the grand jury this afternoon. The grand jury visited the poor farm and the county jail both of which they report as being in good condition. No indictments were brought in.

Mrs. Norman Nash entertained in honor of her sister Miss Hattie McWilliams Thursday P. M. A large number of guests were present and it was one of the prettiest little parties of the season. It was a "Geo. Washington" party. Mrs. Savage received the prize for guessing the greatest number of unknown wives of prominent men, and Mrs. Scoobe received a little hatchet for guessing quotations first. Miss Edith Luncey received a box of cheeries for having cut the largest number of cheeries off the cherry tree. Delicious refreshments formed a delightful closing for the afternoon.

Anniversary Banquet.

Dowdan Lodge No 90 K. of P. celebrated the 39th anniversary of Pythianism on Wednesday evening with a grand concert and supper, at the Germania Opera House.

In years past the banquet committee has always arranged for a great banquet, and the variation this year was a decided change for the better. The executive committee was fortunate through the kindness of manager Sibbert in arranging with the Griffin Orchestra Troubadours for a grand concert and also for furnishing music for a dance later in the evening.

All day Wednesday the decorating committee was busy getting the hall decorated, and as a result of their efforts, Germania Hall presented an appearance equal to any occasion in its history.

Plans were well carried out toward seating the guests in a comfortable manner and by 8:15 over two hundred were gathered. The concert was very much enjoyed, the program being made up with fine orchestra selections, violin, flute and harp solos. A lady reader also delighted the guests with splendid readings. At the close of the concert Chairman Harry Mahoney announced a social half hour to allow the guests to become better acquainted. At this juncture Mrs. H. A. Boyle sang two beautiful solos in a manner to captivate the audience, Miss Kirkup playing the accompaniment. Later the Misses Allie Sewell and Kirkup gave two vocal duets with Prof. Hoyer as accompanist.

Chairs were then arranged in circles and the spread was brought forth. Many young lady waiters were kept busy serving roast turkey, salads, sandwiches, coffee, doughnuts and cakes to the music of the fine orchestra. This indeed was a delightful hour. After luncheon Carl F. Kuehnle, who has reached the highest honors in Pythianism gave a short talk, in his usual brilliant manner. Knight Kuehnle is always ready to talk on Pythianism, and he was more enthusiastic than ever upon this occasion. At the beginning of his talk he called attention to founding of the order in the city of Washington by Justice H. Rathbone in 1804, who saw in such an organization the meaning to a great extent of the north and south, and the betterment of mankind. The speaker referred to the close connections in which members of the order were held, on the Pythian floor all men were equal, and the members were linked together with hoops of steel. He called attention to the fact that Pythianism is the means of making better and brighter men, teaching charity and benevolence, caring for the widows and orphans, Knight Kuehnle's address was well received.

The chairman announced the dancing was in order, and the floor was soon cleared and the ball was on. The music was fine, the floor in condition and it was a merry crowd of dancers who departed at 3 a. m. declaring the 39th anniversary of Knights of Pythias a grand success.

A Joyous Wedding.

On February 17th, a happy wedding took place near Vail, when Mr. Joseph Turechek, oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Turechek of Carroll, Iowa and Miss Jennie Kral, oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. Kral of Vail, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony. The ceremony was impressively performed by Rev. Morgan of Deloit. Miss Rose Kral of Vail a cousin of the bride, and Miss Anna Shema of Carroll a cousin of the groom acted as bride's maids while Edward Turechek a brother of the groom, and Edward Kral a brother of the bride acted as best men.

After the wedding ceremony a bountiful supper was served the seventy-five guests present, after which all joined in a social dance for which the music was furnished by Mr. John Knowles and his daughter Anna of Vail. Many beautiful and useful gifts testified the good will and hearty congratulations of the many friends of the happy couple.

The guests from abroad were Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Turechek of Sioux City, Miss Mary Shema of Yetter Iowa Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Egemayer, Chas. Egemayer, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Turechek, Edward and George Turechek all of Carroll, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Graves, and Miss Anna Shema of Glidden and Mr. and Mrs. Lemuel Jacobus and Frank Shema of Willie Iowa.

The bride is a Crawford county girl of intelligence, beauty and fine womanly qualities. The groom is to be congratulated upon having won her for his bride. Mr. Turechek is an industrious energetic and capable young man and we doubt not but that their home on their farm near Carroll will be a happy one. The REVIEW joins in extending congratulations.

And Still They Wed.

The marriage license business continues brisk with the county clerk. On the 19th licenses were issued to: Herman Rowedder, Carroll county; Katie Karsons, Crawford county; John Willert, Charter Oak; Stella Adams, Charter Oak. On Feb'y 20th licenses were issued to: Wm. Nagel, Aspinwall; Emma Rauneger, Aspinwall; Hans R. Hanson, Otter Creek; Zeronika S. Jochins, Otter Creek. The approach of moving day, March 1, is always the signal for many marriages as the young couples settle on new farms and start the year's work together. May the homes be happy and prosperous ones.

Great are the preparations being made for the masquerade party to be given by Mrs. J. C. Robinson next Thursday evening. The occasion is the meeting of the Coterie Club.

We learn through a friend that Mr. A. P. Lyman of Dunlap who was injured in the railroad wreck at La Fox, Ill. where Mr. Bernard Lane was killed, is getting along nicely. His leg was pinned under a timber in the wreck and he wrenched himself loose tearing the ligaments of his leg but saving himself from an awful death by fire. He has an X ray photograph showing the exact nature of the injury hereceived. It will be several weeks before he will be at his home again. The same friend informs us that Mr. Jochins and Mr. Neilson of Schleswig, injured in the same wreck, are both improving as well as could be expected.

Mrs. J. H. Tamm has returned from a weeks visit in Avoca.

WEST SIDE SWEEP BY FIRE

Three Buildings Burn Early Friday Morning.

Whole Town Has Narrow Escape From Destruction. Fire Fighters Do Notable Work.

(Special to Review.)

West Side, Feb. 20.—Fire this morning destroyed three business buildings in West Side and threatened the entire town. The fire destroyed the Greves building, loss about $1800, also saloon stock and fixtures valued at $600, partially insured. Aug. Richter's pool hall fixtures valued at $200, no insurance. A. E. Smith's lunch room fixtures, etc., valued at $200, no insurance. Kracht Bros' livery barn damaged about $300, fully insured.

About 3 o'clock this morning in the clear and cold atmosphere came the cry of fire! fire!! and in a very few moments the fire bell rang out the alarm as did also the church bells and the whistle at the engine house of the West Side Roller Mills. It was but a very short time until the citizens were awakened from their slumbers and the town was alive with fire fighters.

Night watchman, Jas. Mickelson, states that he was passing the city hotel going west towards Kracht's livery barn when he noticed fire in the roof of the Aug. Richter's pool room and the lunch room of A. E. Smith. He immediately gave the alarm and the fire department was soon on hand with a stream of water playing on the flames. The buildings being frame close together and dry as tinder, made things pretty hot for about two hours, and the throwing of water on these buildings was just like throwing on oil and adding fuel to the fire.

Some fine work was done by both fire departments and the citizens in saving Kracht Bros., livery barn which was within six inches of the Greves building.
