The Chicago & Northwestern Railway Company has built a large lime pit at their pumping station here. The lime taken from the water is dumped into this pit, and at the end of every month is taken out and a compound of zinc is added and is then used for painting fences and telegraph poles. It is said to be lasting and much more economical than paint.

SUDDENLY STRICKEN.

Nicholas Fries, Dies Just as he is to Take Train.

WAS STRICKEN WITH PARALYSIS

Goes to the Depot to Take Train and Ten Minutes Before Train Time Falls Dead Prominent Man in German Community

Last Monday Mr. Nicholas Fries, a prominent and respected German of Schleswig died as a result of a stroke of paralysis. He, together with Messrs. Broder Petersen, Henry Moeller, Fritz Stephen, Henry Kahlbam and Wm. Kortzen were at the depot ready to take a train on their way to Germany, when he was suddenly stricken. Just fifteen minutes before train time, he was as well as anyone in the party, and was talking of his trip, and of the pleasure he anticipated in going back to the fatherland, when all at once and without warning he threw up his hands, dropped over, and died immediately.

Mr. Fries was forty-five years of age and leaves a mother, one brother and one sister. He was a widower and had for some time been making his home with his sister, Mrs. Hagen. Coming to this country in the early settlement of Morgan township he had by hard work saved considerable money and was at the time of his death leading a retired life, surrounded by wealth and happiness.

The funeral was held from his mother's home, two and one-half miles from Schleswig on Tuesday and the remains buried in the Nissen cemetery.

At Chicago, a couple of Sundays ago there were 26,000 paid admissions to see a game of ball between Chicago and St. Louis. It would seem hardly possible so many people could gain admittance into so small a space. In all Crawford county there are only about 25,000 people.

Henry Meeves is the possessor of a very valuable colt, dropped last week. The mother of the colt is a full sister to Roy Wilkes 2,064, Roy Wilkes held the world's record for four years. The colt was sired by Mr. Meeves' fine trotting horse, and is worth $1000 when weaned. Henry says he sold the last year's colt for $300 and this one is a much finer colt. It pays to raise good blood.

The invalid chair given to little Fred Schroeder has been given to little John Cavanaugh. Mr. von D'hien's had no use for the chair after the death of Fred, and gave it back to the committee to dispose of as they thought best. After consulting with a number of those who donated money to purchase the chair, it was decided to give it to John Cavanaugh. He is a deserving little fellow, is hardly able to walk, and will make good use of the chair.
