PUSHERS AND PULLERS.

Every community has men who are helpful and unfortunately most communities have those who are willing that others should do the work while they reap the reward. Denison is no exception to the rule and thus we find that on every occasion there are perhaps a dozen men who do the work while a number of others haggle over the amount of their subscription and appear as though they were doing a great favor to the general public if they allow anything to go on at all. It is not surprising that some of the "pushers" of our city are getting tired of their job and are ready to say that the "pullers" should be given a chance. We see no reason why those who are directly benefitted should not take hold in earnest rather than rely on a few to work for nothing to draw large crowds for them. We believe this sentiment is spreading among the pushers of Denison and that on the next public occasion, if there be one, the "pullers" will be allowed to pull together.

Seventy-five thousand dollars drawing interest and not a spadeful of dirt turned for the new court house. No better illustration of the foolish bond sale need be given.

A COLD DAY.

When the editor of the REVIEW dropped into the Auditor's office the other day the thermometer dropped about forty degrees. It was fairly laughable, the way the chairman buttoned up his coat and shivered. The REVIEW has done nothing to the board except to call upon them to play the part of honest men. It has asked of them that, knowing they have done the tax-payers a wrong, they should right the wrong at once. False pride has kept them from it so far, but in the end either through their own good sense or process of law they will do the right thing. The REVIEW is in no hurry, it can afford to wait. The tax-payers know the facts, know that deliberately and with their eyes open the board has violated the law and that up to this time no effort has been made to see that the tax-payers' money is refunded. The special refrigerator car attached to the supervisory train does no partical of harm nor good. They should be men not mice.

What is the use of putting $10,000 in a court house dome, that will do no good to any one, prevent the building from being well-lighted, and add only to the weight of the structure and increase the liability of damage by wind storms. As a cyclone catcher the dome is at a premium but it is not largely used in modern structures of the $75,000 class.

The Carnegie Library and the new court house seemed to have entered in the slow race with the odds heavily in favor of the latter.

BUILDING UP AND TEARING DOWN

No man ever made a real success through the failure of others. No man has ever permanently built himself up by tearing down the reputation of another man. When a man no matter how great he may be, makes hatred his sole object in life we can see his finish. The public is not interested in personal quarrels save to the extent of seeing fair play. When a man oversteps the bounds of fair play, when he strikes below the belt, the public is quick to note the "foul" and to resent it. We have never known a case where efforts at slander did not come home to roost, and we hope we never will. Should any man attempt such a course, the undisguised contempt of the community is the least that he should receive.

Owing to the pressure in our columns in our last issue, we failed to make proper mention of the Corn Belt Editorial convention held at Sioux City. On account of the heavy rains the attendance was very light and the meeting lacked elements of interest from a newspaper standpoint. Mayor Calwell showed the visitors every possible attention and deserved the thanks of all present. He is not only a "good fellow" but a man of ability and conscience and if our Sioux City visit served no other purpose than to form his acquaintance and gain his friendship, we were amply repaid. Sioux City as a city did its part of entertainment as well as could be expected. Mr. Perkins, of the Journal is one of the busiest men in Sioux City; so busy in fact that he was not able to find the time to allow the light of his countenance to shine upon the country editors. We admire Mr. Perkins greatly, and believe him possessed of great qualities of heart and head, but we confess that we cannot understand the spirit that prompted him to remain aloof from his humbler brothers of the press. We formed many pleasant acquaintances and altogether are not sorry that we were present. We would make two suggestions however, first, that such meetings should be held in a country town, for a country town is the proper place for the country editor, and second, that miscellaneous editorial associations are not as profitable as partisan associations would be. A republican or a democratic press association in Iowa would be a great success and a powerful factor for good. The miscellaneous meeting can never be made much more than a junketing tour.

Norton Gets His Patent.

J. A. Norton, of Osceola, a relative of Joe White's has been granted a patent for his wonderful "expansion fluid motor" which is expected to create a sensation in the mechanical world.

My! how the Bulletin's ears must have burned since it printed that Roosevelt editorial. We have heard nothing but condemnation from men of both parties.

Arion News Letter

Owing to the rain, the Musical and Literary entertainment, that was to have been given Saturday May 30th, was postponed till June 6th, it was a success in every way. Mrs. J. B. Romans gave one of her recitations that was pleasing to all, with just enough mirth to please every one, she held the attention of the audience and every one speaks words of praise for her. Mrs. Romans' Miss Junia Romans sang a solo, it was a surprise to the audience to see one so young have such a voice. There is certainly a bright future for Miss Romans. Miss Dossie Green and Vera Dow, played a piano Duet which was fine and showed that these young ladies have ability and a talent well improved, both received many congratulations. Miss Hazel Laub played a piano solo skillfully also a Piano accompaniment with violin solo by Miss Lally. There was not only the sweet strains of music from the violin that were so pleasing but the grace, fullness and very pleasant feature and had those young ladies played for two hours, the young men would have continued with their oncers. Talcott Bros played an instrumental trio, it is not frequent that a family is found that has such a musical gift as these brothers, and their music is always enjoyed. The young ladies chorus was given in a way that showed careful drill and they sang together well. Words cannot express the appreciation we have for those who so kindly rendered the above, and although the program was quite lengthy, undivided attention was given from the first number to the last.

Frank Young Jr. to Wed.

The Chicago Tribune of Monday June 8, publishes excellent photos of Frank Young Jr. and Miss Edith Delay, and says they are to wed. Frank's Denison friends will be greatly interested, and we publish the notice as it appeared in the Tribune.

Frank Young, a sophomore at Northwestern university, will not return to college next year, but will marry Miss Edith Delay, a member of this year's graduating class. Mr. Young, whose home is in Denison, Iowa, comes of a well known family of that place, his father being state oil inspector and a man of considerable means. The young man recently came into a fortune left him by an uncle. Miss Delay who is an Onarga girl, was president of the Self-Government association organized at Northwestern last winter. Both she and Mr. Young are prominent in university society. Mr. Young is a member of Delta Upsilon fraternity, while Miss Delay is a member of Delta Delta sorority.

A Delightful Whist Party.

Mr. J. Balle and Miss Balle were at home on Wednesday evening, Whist was the order of the evening. Ten tables were filled and the players all seemed in high spirits. The company was complimentary to Mr. George Fletcher who was a guest at the Balle home. Mr. Fletcher was a general favorite with our young people and he received a hearty welcome. Mrs. Kelly and Dr. Philbrook were the lucky prize winners.

Miss Balle served very elegant refreshments. The Balle home is one of the pleasantest and jolliest and an invitation to their home assures a pleasant evening. Mr. Gaylord Weeks and wife were among the out of town guests.

DIED

Mrs. Salem Towne died at her home near Buck Grove June 2nd, 1903.

The deceased was born in Berth, Scotland, in 1849 and came with her parents, John and Agnes Calderwood, to America the same year. They settled in Illinois and in 1868 she was married to Salem Towne. The following year they moved to Iowa.

She was the mother of ten children, six of whom survive her. They are: Mrs. S. L. Gable, of Wagner, S. D.; Howard, of Wyoming; Olive, Roy, Ward, and Ray. All were with her during her last days.

Mrs. Towne was a woman of noble christian character and as she approached death, there was no fear for her trust was in God.

Many friends sympathize with the sorrowing husband and children who are bereft of a loving wife and mother.

The funeral of Mr. Carl Carlson, father of Mrs. H. A. Norman, was held at the Normandy Hotel on Friday at 10:00 a. m. conducted by Rev. G. E. Morphy. After a brief service the friends drove to Kiron with the body and the interment was made in the Kiron cemetery. The deceased gentleman was born in Delarue, Sweden, December 25, 1828, and was married to Sarah Neilson in 1853. Eight children were born of whom only one, Mrs. Norman is now living. Mr. Carlson has been an invalid since the death of his wife in 1894.

For the past four years he has not been able to go out of the house, but he has borne his lot with patience, never complaining of loneliness, for his God and his bible were his constant companions.

He was a member of the Baptist church, having been baptized at Kiron in 1872. After coming to Denison he united with church here. He died June 4th, 1893, after three weeks illness. He was a good man and a faithful christian.

The last issue of the Dunlap Reporter comes to our desk as one of the best printed, neatest appearing and prosperous newspapers among Iowa's country papers. The advertising space amounts to something over 250 inches, besides a six column writeup of the town. Embody is making a success of the Reporter.

Additional Arion News.

Last Saturday morning Frank Evans returned to his home, to spend his summer vacation. He has been attending the North Western Medical School of Chicago and has one more year in which to complete his course.

Last Tuesday we had a deserted village as so many went to Denison to see our Nation's leader, all returned with the satisfaction that the day was well spent, Denison certainly deserves much credit in the management of the day.

class of 1903. Other toasts were responded to as follows.

Ye Olden Days..... Mr. Leon Casaday
The Greasy Grind..... Mr. E. Mueller
What Next..... Miss Hope Smith
The Cold World..... Mr. Gaylord Weeks

The teaching corps was also called on and bright and feeling responses were made by Miss Calmer, Miss Polster, Miss Rollinson, Principal Core and Superintendent Savage. The newly elected officers of the association are President Miss Elva D. Bond, Secretary Miss Jennie Austin. It was voted that an annual membership tax of twenty-five cents be collected from each alumnus, to be used as a fund to insure permanent organization. The occasion was a most enjoyable one and the fun and laughter and good feeling were uninterrupted. Mrs. Jordan of Dunlap, Mrs. Clarey of Rodney, and Mr. Weeks of Springfield Mo. were among the out of town alumni present.

It is proposed to extend the scope of the banquet next year if possible and to make it an event to be looked forward to, both by the new graduates and the alumni.

Democrats in Convention.

The Democratic County convention was not largely attended on Saturday, the weather being altogether too favorable for farm work. The Denison crowd and a few scattering delegates from one or two other towns in the county met at the city hall and selected the following delegates:

J. B. Romans, Chas. Bullock, John Maloney, G. L. Caswell, H. C. Schroeder, Fred Feinhold, J. C. Subr, C. L. Patterson, Thos. Malloy, Adam Weise, and A. H. Radd.

O. W. Wheeler was elected chairman of the Democratic County central committee, and G. L. Caswell Secretary. Mr. Wheeler will make one of the best chairmen the central committee ever had and the committee is to be congratulated upon having elected him.

It is again up to the democrats of Crawford County to decide between free silver and populism and sound money and old time democracy. There are many signs throughout the nation that democracy is retiring to a more conservative standpoint, but in this county while the great mass of democratic voters are either opposed or indifferent to free silver, the leaders, who hold the party in the hollow of their hands, are ardent silver men and will doubtless be able to send a delegation to Des Moines who will shout for the "isms" with the vigor for the most deluded populist. It is to be regretted that the democrats will allow themselves to be thus misrepresented but they have done so before and the coming convention will be but a repetition.

During the past few weeks Denison has been given numerous examples of the value of its own talent. The displays of local ability have been varied showing the versatility of our people. There have been splendid base ball games, magnificent banquets, oratorical, theatrical and musical exhibitions of the highest order. Denison has learned to patronize home talent because it is good talent. The range has been wide, but in every instance whether entertaining the President of the United States, the President of Iowa University or the Boston Bloomers, no failure has been recorded. Perhaps Denison's greatest achievement was in the way it carried out the arrangements for President's day in spite of all the discouraging circumstances.

ern themselves and it is our duty to do it for them.

While the judges were making their decisions, Miss Grace Van Ness gave a piano solo.

The judges in thought and composition were: Rev. Dr. Miller, Miss Rollinson and Jacob Simms

The judges on delivery were Mrs. Harding, Rev. Morphy, R. Shaw Van, Mr. Criswell and Mr. Kemming. According to their decision the oratorical contest representing 33 points went to Mr. Newcom, essay contest 24 points to Mr. Essex, declamation 15 points to Miss Higley and debate 22 points to Mr. Joyce. This gives possession of the cup to the Athenaeum society which became rather strenuous at about that time.

Tuesday night the ninth annual musical recital took place at the Germania Opera House under the direction of Prof. Hover.

To-night the annual lecture will be given by Rev. J. B. Harris, of Boone at the Presbyterian church.

Thursday evening at the M. E. church the graduating exercises and lecture will be held. The lecture will be given by Dr. Frank L. Loveland.

All are cordially invited to be present at these gatherings.
