Mr. Riepen erected the firing stand and provided the fireworks at his own expense and he is justly entitled to the thanks of the community.

Married.

The marriage of Mr. Fred Bradbury and Miss Grace E. Miller occurred on Wednesday eve. July 1st, 1903, the wedding ceremony being performed by Rev. A. G. Martyn, of the Presbyterian church at his residence in Denison.

The plighting of the mutual vows of affection that unites the lives of these excellent young people is a ground of sincere congratulations from their many friends in which the REVIEW heartily joins.

The bride is the daughter of one of our oldest citizens, A. H. Miller, and has been reared in Denison, where by her genuine worth of character and gentle lady-like spirit she has won the esteem of the entire community. Her self-sacrificing devotion to her parents and home has been most marked.

The groom is a steady and industrious young man, for some time in the employ of the Palace Bakery. He is to be commended on his choice of a life companion. After the ceremony, an excellent wedding supper was served at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. W. Cowman. They were the recipients of a number of wedding presents.

June 30, 1903 at high noon, at the home of the brides parents, in Charter Oak, Ia. Miss Lillian Jones and Mr. Earl Wright of Gayville S. D. Rev. J. Lewis Gillies of Radcliff Ia. officiating.

Promptly at the appointed hour, the bridal party entered the parlor to the strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March and took their places beneath a beautiful bower of ferns, daisies and roses.

The bride was attired in white silk mulle and carried a bouquet of brides roses. The groom wore the conventional black. They were attended by Arthur Jones as groomsmen, Miss Marie Monahan as bridesmaid, and two little girls in white, a niece and a cousin of the bride, as ring bearer and flower girl.

After the ceremony and congratulations a bounteous luncheon was served to about forty guests.

The out of town guests were—Mrs. Wright of Sioux City, mother of the groom; Mr. and Mrs. Frank West of Wisner Neb., Mr. and Mrs. M. Wright Yankton S. D. Mr. and Mrs. R. Schneek Sioux City, Mr. and Mrs. D. Kepford and Mary Clinton of Ute, and Miss Ethel Sacha of Manilla.

Mr. and Mrs. Wright left Wednesday amid a shower of rice and old shoes, for a few days visit to Sioux City. They expect to visit Niagara and other places of interest, before going to their future home at Gayville.

These young people are well known and highly esteemed by their many friends in this vicinity; the bride being one of Crawford County's most successful teachers; a charming and accomplished young lady.

The groom who is a model young man is to be congratulated in choosing so worthy a helpmate. We are indeed sorry to lose them from our midst, but the best wishes of a host of friends follow them wherever they go.

On June 30th, at 9 p. m. at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Marshall parents of the bride occurred the wedding of Miss Nellie Marshall and Mr. Carl Lrentzen, Rev. G. E. Morphy officiating.

To the strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March, beautifully rendered by Miss Nettie Kelly, the bridal couple, accompanied by Miss Kate Shumaker as bridesmaid, and Mr. William Marshall Jr. as groomsmen, marched to the parlor where under a floral wedding bell and in the presence of a large company of guests the words of the ceremony uniting these two lives in one were spoken by the minister. The bride is a Denison young lady, born and reared here. She has been employed in the Balle-Brodersen store for some time past. The numerous and valuable presents given by her fellow workers and others spoke eloquently of the esteem in which she is held.

The groom is a young farmer who by his steady and industrious habits has already showed himself capable; and undoubtedly will win large success in his chosen work. The best wishes of a large circle of friends follow them to their home eight miles south of town. The REVIEW joins in extending congratulations.

Dr. Bartlett is one of the most competent musical directors in the West and all music lovers will be delighted to learn of his return.

The closing scenes of the Sioux City Mid-summer-Festival were witnessed by thousands of people. The day was an ideal one—the first one of the week for the Carnival people. About the oriental carnival man was smiling a broad smile in anticipation of good money, when at the end of the performance, he was met by constables who attached all his stuff for debts contracted while in the city. He was to have been in St. Joe Mo Sunday, but did not get to leave Sioux City until the afternoon of that day.

On Tuesday and Wednesday Mrs. Charles Bollen gave two successful and charming "At Homes." The warmth of the weather did not equal the warmth of welcome provided by Mrs. Bollen for her guests. The house was gay with many flowers and frappe was in great and constant demand. Mrs. Voss assisted Mrs. Bollen in entertaining the ladies. A clever book game was the leading feature of the entertainment. Mrs. Kirkup who always excels at games captured first prize on Tuesday and Mrs. Philbrook carried off the honors of Wednesday. The refreshments were very choice and exceedingly well selected for the weather conditions.

On Tuesday evening Miss Lally gave a whist party complimentary to Miss Blakely and Murry of Cedar Rapids. Six tables were filled with players and all had a delightful evening. Miss Lally served two course refreshments to her friends, who found them most delicious. Some good music also appealed greatly to the sensibility of the guests.
