There promises to be a battle royal down at Council Bluffs at the Pythian meeting over the selection of a place to hold the 1904 meeting. There are a number of cities after the meeting, one of the most prominent being Waterloo. A committee has been selected by that city to go to Council Bluffs and present the matter to the Grand Lodge.

Mr. Chas. Smith of Manilla, was in Denison on Friday. In conversation with him we were informed that he and Mr. Avery had been successful in organizing a stock company, composed of Des Moines capitalists for the purpose of further advancing their light system and that they have every anticipation of the company meeting with great success.

Loom End Sale now on at the People's store.

The financial committee appointed by the College association were visiting the business men on Monday. They were agreeably surprised to receive unexpectedly a donation of $100 from our former citizen J. P. Miller of Los Angeles, Cal., one day last week. Mr. Miller says he has seen the benefits of the college and feels that he is indebted to that institution.

We are in receipt of a two column editorial puffing up the Sioux City Live Stock Fair which will be held sometime this year. The editorial is accompanied by two complimentary tickets and a circular saying "we are too poor to pay cash for advertising. The tickets are worth $2.50, the advertising amounts to a little over $15.00. This is only another instance of Sioux City gall."

Rev. Lothringer Resigns.

Rev. F. Lothringer, who has been pastor of the Lutheran church in Denison for a number of years, has resigned and has accepted a call from Grand Mound, Iowa. He will give his farewell sermon on Sunday, July 26. Under the guidance of Rev. Lothringer the Lutheran society in Denison has built up a strong congregation. A new church has been erected, and the school wonderfully improved. Many people will regret the removal of Rev. Lothringer and his good wife from our midst. All hope that in his new field he may be as successful as he has been in Denison.

Marriage of Mrs. Schoonover.

Denison friends of Mrs. J. H. Schoonover will be pleased to learn of her marriage that took place on June 24. Prior to that time she had been connected with the state house at Des Moines in the office of Dr. Kennedy Secretary of the state board of health. From the Board of Health Bulletin we clip the following:

Our former stenographer, Mrs. Margaret S. Schoonover, to whom we referred in our June Bulletin as having declined a re-election, was married, June 24 at York Neb, the home of her parents, to Mr. George H. Rust, of Elk Point S. D. This is a case where the contracting parties evidently believe that it is better to Rust out than to wear out. The Bulletin extends heartiest congratulations and best wishes.

New Advertisements.

The new advertisements in this issue cannot but fail to attract attention of our readers. M. M. Bamford speaks of a great novelty sale lasting seven days, in which ridiculously low prices are quoted. This is a genuine bargain sale. The Loom End Sale at the People's store is now on and is drawing bargain hunters. Last Saturday, while there were not many people in town, the People's store say they did an exceptionally fine business. The Balle-Brodersen Co. call special attention to many new values in Dry Goods and also their fresh fruit and vegetables.

The "Boys" are also offering big clearance prices and are soliciting a share of the patronage. In their large ad will be found many truly astonishing prices.

Card of Thanks.

To the many friends and neighbors who so kindly assisted me during the death and burial of my little son I return my heartfelt thanks. Especially do I wish to thank those who so willingly and diligently made search for his body the afternoon he was drowned. It is this kindness and neighborly sympathy that helps lighten the burden of my great sorrow.

Mrs. B. Clark.

Mr. E. H. Bond, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Bond, arrived in Denison on Sunday, from Vicksburg, Miss. This is Ed's first visit home in three years, and his parents and sister were jubilant over his coming. He is connected with an express company at Vicksburg and is doing well. He will remain a month or so.

The semi-civilized Romans had magnificent public baths. They were sanitary, safe and clean. We highly civilized Americans of Denison have nothing but the hog-wallow of the Boyer, and when some boy is drowned and some other boy is laid low with malaria we wring our hands and sigh for a day and then go forth to boast of our much vaunted civilization. We are up with our neighbors it is true, but we might learn a good deal from the days of ancient Rome.

KLINKER SELLS FURNITURE STORE

Henry Hoefler of Charter Oak is the Purchaser.

On Monday afternoon Henry Hoefler closed a deal for the Klinker furniture store on Broadway. In the transaction Mr. Henry Klinker gets possession of a fine 200 acre farm 4 miles north of Ute in Monona county. Mr. Klinker and George Lochmiller will remain as managers of the store for a time yet, until Mr. Hoefler secures a manager. Mr. Klinker has made a success of the business and we are loath to see him retire from Denison's business circles and trust that he may engage in some line of business that will keep him among us.
