IOWA NEWS AND COMMENTS.

The 34th Iowa volunteers will hold a reunion at Charter Oak on September 3rd and 4th.

There are now 22,589 miles of electric roads in this country. By 1925 there will be nearly ten times that much.

The Defiance Enterprise says that J. P. Jones, of Denison, is making extensive improvements on his farm near Defiance.

Hero Hobson played golf in Des Moines. We understand the links are now to be gold plated in commemoration of the event.

Ida Grove has just organized a company of the Iowa National guard. The Eleventh district needs a good sized army to preserve peace and harmony.

Ida County is grooming a candidate for the legislature in the person of W. C. Farquhar. The Odebolt Chronicle is given credit for having discovered him.

The Des Moines Capital devotes but two and one-half columns to the marriage of the widow of Senator C. K. Davis. We thought Lafe had more enterprise.

Delaware must be one of the most unhealthy counties in the state. The Manchester news of this week contains three columns of obituaries, seven of their citizens having died.

Jefferson has so far been unable to let the contract for its Carnegie library for the $10,000 donated. Jefferson should adopt Denison's excellent plans and get Contractor Fee to duplicate the job.

"The first good roads work in Missouri," says the Cedar Rapids Gazette, "should be the building of a thoroughfare from the State capitol to the States prison." Poor old democratic Missouri.

The Lake City Graphic estimates that it costs the grocers of that city $2500 per year for their delivery service, and tells of an Indiana grocer who abandoned the delivery service and was able to undersell all competitors.

The Sac County fair is issuing an advertising supplement the mailing of which as 2nd class matter is obviously in violation of the postal laws. Some day the papers running such supplements will find it a costly matter.

The editor of the Charter Oak Times seems to be quite human, this week he laments over the brilliancy of the street lights, and adds, "what fun is there sitting on the front porch in the full glare of a hundred-candle light?"

The Manning Monitor tells that in the severe storm of last week a new barn belonging to P. H. Sievers was struck by lightning and burned to the ground. Five horses were killed and four men who were working on the barn had a narrow escape.

A Des Moines man was given a severe trouncing because he refused to stand treat in his turn. There was more foundation for this than for many of Des Moines famous franchises, where even more notable citizens were involved than in this instance.

The Western Iowa Veterans Association, made up of the old soldiers of Pottawattamie, Monona, Ida, Shelby, Crawford and Harrison counties, will hold a reunion at Ute on August 20th, and 21st. It is five years since this organization has met and we trust that every old soldier in this county will attend.

The Register and Leader comes to us with an interview with the Minnesota insurance commissioner, blue penciled. After reading the article we are not sure but that it would have been as well for some Des Moines companies had it been "blue penciled" before it got to the printer.

The Delaware County News is responsible for the following: "A game called 'Christianity' has made its appearance in Manchester. The girls get on one side and are called Christians. The boys get on the other side and are called Heathens. Then the Heathens embrace Christianity."

Hon. M. E. DeWolf of Laurens was one of the speakers before the Grain Buyers convention at Sioux City, says the Pocahontas Record. We warrant his speech was a good one.

The Pocahontas Record reports the stock food grafters as at work in that section. One farmer got caught for $150.00 but succeeded in getting his note back. Buy your stock food of men you know are reliable.

Editor Pitzer of the Ellsworth News repudiates the Anti-Healy resolutions said to have emanated from that place. Like all good Tenth District republicans the people of Ellsworth are in favor of Tenth District man. We felt all along that Homer Brinton was too sensible a man to have been caught in such a snap.

LYNCH VS. LAW.

The following are a few excerpts from an article in this week's Independent written by Governor Winfield T. Durbin of Indiana:

"The methods of extenuation adopted by a few public and many private apologists for lynch law have become familiar. The awfulness of the crime and the outraged sense of justice it arouses are pictured in palliation. But the essential issue raised by the rioters is not between the mob and its victim, but between the mob and the law. The law is as much outraged by a lynching based on a heinous crime as by a lynching without provocation. There are instances without number in which the mob spirit, once aroused, has led to the pursuits of objects entirely foreign to that which brought it into being. The sweep of the mob spirit through a community is like the rush of water through a sewer—it collects and tosses into the flood all that is vilest in its pathway, and before the course of the current is run the filth is on the surface.

AS TO COURT'S DELAY.

"The delays of the courts and the discrimination of officials in the execution of the laws is often assigned as an explanation, if not in palliation of the mob spirit. By whom are judicial and executive officers chosen? By whom were the delays of the law deliberately decreed? They are in large part the safeguards reared by the people themselves for their own protection against summary procedure. What member of an American mob charged with crime would look upon these safeguards otherwise than as essential accompaniments of free government?"

"Let us place against these apologies for mob rule a few essential and well established principles. No government can endure with the court and the mob seeking to exercise identical functions. Either the supremacy of the law must be established beyond question of free rein must be given to the fury of riotous assemblages engaged in trampling all law into the dust. Anarchy and constitutional government may not thrive within the same geographical limits. If guilty men are to be hanged or burned by 'good citizens' to-day under the summary procedure of brute force, then innocent men may be hanged or burned to-morrow by bad citizens operating under the same warrant.

"If the mob spirit is to become the national spirit, and, being contagious, it must either be stamped out or its ultimate supremacy conceded; then the next step in our political 'development,' if history teaches anything, will be the rule of that dictator who proves himself to be the best leader of mobs.

"The man who invokes violence in an assault on the law must be struck down by the law's strong arm. The sheriff and his deputies who employ the rifle and the shotgun in defense of a prisoner whom a mob seeks to murder, the militiamen who co-operate with them in the law's behalf, are as much soldiers in the cause of liberty as any patriot who fought at Banker Hill or Kings Mountain, and those officials, sworn to the execution of the law, who yield to the mob spirit in such an emergency are guilty of a base poltroonry as the veriest coward who ever fled from a battlefield.

"Let the American people take to heart the issues involved in an appeal to mob law and the mob spirit will instantly disappear as a national phenomenon. We need only a national awakening to what this issue implies. We need a strengthening of the arm of authority, widening and deepening respect for the law by its enforcement without fear or favor. —Record-Herald.

Chicago, Rock Island Railway Notes.

The Prosperous Southwest.
R. G. Dun's Mercantile Report of May 19 records the following failures:
Arkansas, 0
Kansas, 1
Oklahoma, 0
New Mexico, 0
Indian Territory, 2

This is but three failures in the states and territories named above out of a total of 388 recorded, and goes to prove that the great Southwest is enjoying a period of remarkable prosperity.

"The Golden State Limited" will be resumed about November 15. The equipment will be new and lighted by electricity. The schedule will be as fast as last season, the trip from Chicago to Los Angeles being made in less than three days.

Lynchings To Date.

From January 1 to July 23 the record of lynchings as summarized by the Chicago Tribune is expressed in the following table:

Arkansas.....	3	Montana.....	1
Alabama.....	1	Tennessee.....	1
Delaware.....	1	South Carolina.....	1
Florida.....	5	Texas.....	5
Georgia.....	6	West Virginia.....	2
Illinois.....	2	Wyoming.....	1
Louisiana.....	5
Mississippi.....	11	Total.....	50
Missouri.....	4

Out of the fifty forty-five are charged up to the south and five to the north. Of the five people lynched in the north three were colored and two were white.

Of the forty-five persons lynched in the south, forty-one were colored and four were white.
Comment upon this half-year record of lawlessness in our civilized America is probably unnecessary. Anything that might be said has been repeated too often to longer possess the merit of novelty. It is simply up to American citizens whether they propose to do anything to put an end to this kind of anarchy or whether they are willing that it shall continue until contempt for all law has become the rule rather than the exception.

Summer Fiction.

The cosmopolitan for August is particularly noteworthy from three different aspects: First, every article is not only interesting in subject, but entertaining in style; second, it is a Midsummer Fiction Number; replete with brilliant short stories of love and adventure; third, its articles are profusely and finely illustrated. "Dramatic Schools," by David Belasco; an article on the meat-packing industry; Frank Moss's "The Tragedy of Policy in New York"; "Shakespeare in Modern Settings," and "Romances of the World's Great Mines—The Klondyke," all are illustrated with splendid photographs, and written in an entertaining way.

"Ancient Rome," considered the greatest scenic spectacle ever seen in the west, will be presented at the Iowa State Fair at Des Moines four nights, Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, August 24 to 27. This wonderful representation with fireworks depicting in a marvelous manner the burning of the city, preceded by reproductions of the life, festivities, sports and barbarities of the Eternal City in the days of Nero, is a production of dazzling magnificence. In a historical way it is rarely instructive. Nowhere could one see the life and customs of this most wonderful of ancient peoples so vividly and accurately set forth. The drama has been planned with the most careful attention to its historical correctness and it tells one of the most interesting stories that is to be found in all past history.

LATEST FASHION NOTES.

Dinner Gown in Peau De Crepe.

The rage for shirtings has called forth charming variations of designs and very attractive is a reception or dinner gown on which this work is introduced. This is represented in old ivory peau de crepe, both bodice and skirt being inset with Marchel Niel yellow flowers in applique. Mexican drawn work is introduced on the decollet bodice, and the ceinture of apricot velvet adds a rich, bold tone. Handembroidery here finds expression, done in Corticelli wash embroidery silk. The effect is very beautiful.

Shirred costumes will be seen in the numerous crepes, and indeed there is nothing prettier than nun's grey crepe de Chine fashioned in shirred effect deep around the shoulders, hips, and knees, with adjuncts of grey and white lace, the finishing touches being supplied in fringes, tassels and delicate cords.

The Rock Island System has just completed improved telegraph facilities; an additional wire having been strung from Chicago to Cedar Rapids, St. Paul and Minneapolis. This wire will be used exclusively for Company business and will materially improve the Company's local telegraph service between the above points.

The agricultural, mining and industrial possibilities of Oklahoma are accountable for the number of home-seekers flocking to the "new country." Out of 122 passengers leaving Omaha recently on a Rock Island System train, 120 were en route for Oklahoma.
