A NEWSPAPER CHANGE

The Jefferson Bee and Souvenir Under Name of Bee.

JEFFERSON HAS BUT TWO PAPERS.

Both Papers on a Paying Basis. With Good Subscription Lists. Paul Stillman Remains as Editor.

A notable newspaper change was negotiated at Jefferson last week, by terms of which the Jefferson Bee and the Jefferson Souvenir consolidate and will be issued in the future under the name of the Jefferson Bee. For a number of years Jefferson has supported three papers, two of them Republican and one Democratic. The two republican papers have always been very friendly towards each other from a business standpoint, and have been prosperous. It was only along political faction and strife that they varied, and the merging of the two papers will do away with this. Both papers have been prosperous. Jefferson, situated as she is in a republican county, and the foreign population being exceedingly small has been a good field. Speaking of the consolidation the Bee of last Thursday says:

"For nearly twenty years the two papers have existed side by side, as active business competitors and as rivals in the field for republican patronage and influence. At times they have stood fairly over against each other as the representatives of factions, and as fomenters of divisive strife within the party. For several years past, however, there has been a disposition throughout the republican ranks to give more attention to the cultivation of the olive branch than to the sharpening of the hatchet, and the newspapers have fostered this disposition by manifesting the spirit of scrupulous courtesy and toleration for one another, as well as for all the members of the party, whether they happen to speak the same political dialect as the publishers or not. The growth of this spirit of harmony has manifested itself concretely in increased republicanism in the formation of the strongest and healthiest party organization within the history of the county. The consolidation of the rival republican newspapers does away with the last vestige of internal strife, and marks the consummation of a new era of peace.

PLANS OF CONSOLIDATION. "The new Bee will take over all the subscription lists, good will and business of the Souvenir, and the publication of the Souvenir as a separate newspaper will terminate with this week. Both papers have maintained abnormally large lists of subscribers for country papers, each having issued more than 2,000 copies weekly for many years. The consolidation of the lists will give the Bee at the outset a circulation of approximately 4,000 copies weekly, which is by far the largest circulation patronage enjoyed by any country paper in Iowa.

"The Bee of the future will be issued from the present Bee office under the complete editorial and business management of Mr. Paul E. Stillman. Some remarks relative to the hopes, aims and purposes of the paper in its broader field are deferred until next week. Naturally the new editor, who is also the old editor, will strive to make it a bigger, better and newer paper than ever before.

The new concern will be known as the Bee Publishing company, and will be capitalized at $16,000, and incorporated under the laws of Iowa. The stockholders are: Frank J. Stillman, Paul E. Stillman and Gardner S. Turrill, the old Bee firm of Stillman Bros retaining three-fourths of the capital stock and Mr. Turrill getting one-fourth.

SOUVENIR STARTED AS SOCIETY JOURNAL. The Souvenir, which passes from the stage as a newspaper entity this week, was started as a society journal by W. M. Ferguson in the fall of 1884. The following spring A. M. Head became a partner in the business and the paper became political in character. Ferguson & Head were succeeded by Ferguson and Beverly, and this combination was changed to Ferguson and Garner. Mr. Turrill bought out Mr. Garner's interest in 1893, and shortly after took over the entire paper. A year later V. H. Lovejoy became a partner under the firm name Turrill & Lovejoy, and this partnership lasted until two years ago, when Mr. Turrill bought out the Lovejoy interest and became sole proprietor.

Mr. Turrill disposed of his printing equipment to-day to Mr. Gray of the Standard for $4,500 cash. The Jefferson Bee, the oldest newspaper in Green County, was established as the Jefferson Era in 1867 by H. and L. Money. In 1872 the paper passed into the hands of Rhoads and Swalm—the latter now being United States consul at Southampton England—who changed the name of the paper to the Jefferson Bee. About the year 1875 Mr. Swalm sold his interest to O. R. Gray, and later Mr. Rhoads disposed of his share in the property to Eugene Billings. About the year 1880 Mr. Rhoads again came into possession of the Bee, Mr. E. B. Stillman purchasing the property in October, 1884. In July, 1891, Mr. Paul E. Stillman bought a half interest in the paper, the firm of Stillman and Son continuing until January 1, 1895, when Mr. Frank J. Stillman took over the interest of Mr. E. B. Stillman, since which time Stillman Bros. have owned the paper. The officers and directors of the new corporation are: Frank J. Stillman, president; G. S. Turrill, vice-president; Paul E. Stillman, secretary and treasurer.

The Normal Institute

The Normal institute which is in session this week will gather perhaps 225 teachers for instruction and inspiration. Until 1874 institute of one week was held for which the State paid $50.00 to each county. They now calculate to give the best teachers and the persons invited to instruct, a chance to give their views of certain studies and methods, and to air themselves. The present institute is calculated to impart better methods and instruction by the best educators that can be secured. It is objectionable that too much academic instruction has to be given, because the younger teachers need reviews of the common branches.

A new feature of the institutes is the subject of music which must be taught in every institute. We are fortunate in having such an excellent instructor in Dr. M. L. Bartlett, of Des Moines, who gave such good satisfaction last year. It will be a pleasure and a benefit to the town to have him conduct a musical convention at this time. It would be better, if we could have the institute in the spring; but it is difficult to get a place and instructors at that time.

The instructors are all competent and most of them have gained the confidence and good will of our teachers in former years. The place, while on one side of town, has many advantages in having a large assembly room and other conveniences.

| CONNER WILL ADDRESS SOLDIERS. | |

Committee Secures Him for Reunion to be Held in Stratford Sept. 2, 3.

Judge Conner the efficient congressman from this district, has been secured by the old soldiers of the county to address them at their annual reunion to be held in Stratford the 2nd, and 3rd, of September. It is expected that Governor Connors and several other notables will also be present. The committee expects to be able to announce its full quota of speakers within a few days. It is the intention to make the coming reunion one of the largest and best yet held in the county.—Webster City Freeman.

HURRICANE IN WEST INDIES.

Great Damage is Done in Martinique and Jamaica.

Fort de France, Aug. 11.—The island of Martinique was swept by a hurricane of great violence last night. Its duration was ten hours, and it was particularly severe at Fort de France, where it caused much destruction. Many houses were unroofed and several sailing vessels were badly damaged. The streets are encumbered with debris from the tiled roofs and the roads are impassable on account of fallen trees, which were literally torn up by the roots. Several towns on the island suffered considerably, principally Trinito, St. Marie, Carbet, St. Joseph and Francois. The storm moved in a northwesterly direction.

Makes Serious Charges.

New York, Aug. 11.—There was a hearing before Justice Dugro of the matter of appointment of a receiver for the New York Building and Loan company of this city. Attorney D. C. Robinson of the company, in his argument, entered into a severe attack on the state superintendent of banking and the former attorney general. He declared that the appointment of receivers has become a public scandal and that the action in this case has been the beginning of a deliberate effort to wreck the New York Building and Loan company.

Two Outlaws Killed.

Guthrie, Okla., Aug. 11.—The two members of the Martin gang of outlaws, who engaged in a fight with a posse of deputy sheriffs in the Osage Indian nation, died today and their bodies are being brought to this city. Deputy Marshal Haines, who was shot, is improving. The other members of the gang escaped, but are still being pursued. The gang has committed many depredations during the last year.

Headless Body in the River.

St. Paul, Aug. 11.—The dismembered and headless trunk of a human body was found floating in the Mississippi river near the dam of the St. Paul Boom company. It had been in the water so long that it was impossible even to determine the sex of the victim. The coroner is investigating.

Mrs. Hodge Pleads Not Guilty.

Sait Lake, Aug. 11.—Mrs. Aurora Hodge was taken into court and formally arraigned on the charge of murdering William Ryan, an aged peddler, near Murray last month. Mr. Hodge pleaded not guilty. The preliminary hearing of the case will be held next Monday, Aug. 17.

NINETY DIE IN TUNNEL

Awful Catastrophe Occurs on Paris Underground Railway.

EIGHTY-TWO BODIES RECOVERED

Two Empty Trains Catch Fire, Causing Stampedes of Passengers in Third—Dense Clouds of Smoke Keep Firemen Back for Hours.

Paris, Aug. 11.—An awful catastrophe occurred last evening on the Metropolitan electric railway, which runs mostly underground, in which ninety persons are believed to have lost their lives. Eighty-two bodies have been recovered, and the search continues. One of the trains broke down at Memilmontant station, which is in a poor and populous section of the city. This train was promptly emptied and the train which followed was ordered to push it to the repairing sheds. On the way these two trains caught fire, but the employees succeeded in escaping. Meanwhile a crowded train reached Les Charonnes, the preceding station, and the officials seeing smoke pouring out of the tunnel, gave the alarm. A panic ensued, the passengers struggling to escape from the station. Amid the increasing smoke many attempted to return along the line toward Belleville and were suffocated.

The officials seem to have lost their heads and are unable to say how many passengers went out. The firemen for several hours were unable to enter the station or the tunnel owing to the dense smoke, which poured out in black clouds. Meanwhile tens of thousands of anxious people gathered about the station. All the police and fire authorities were on the spot and the excitement was intense. Finally the firemen succeeded in flooding the burning mass and shortly afterward they were able to enter the tunnel. Three empty trains were burned and a fourth was full of victims.

Everything usually handled by a first class market is sold proportionately low considering quality. Give us a trial and be convinced that this is the best place to trade.
