

Attention Teachers

and one of the best in Iowa. Visitors are always welcome.
Studio in Law Block.

You are cordially invited to visit our studio and inspect the many samples of fine portraiture on display. We have the only first class photographic establishment in Crawford Co.

W. W. Ferguson

Time to trim up your trees. And now for the Street Fair.

A real live circus is to be in Denison Sept. 15.

Four big, monster days at Denison, Sept. 8, 9, 10, 11.

Music, Music, Music at the Denison Street Fair, Sept. 8, 9, 10, 11.

There were about 30 Pythians went to Council Bluffs on Monday.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Terry on Wednesday, Aug. 5th, a boy.

Big ball game next Friday—Charter Oak vs Denison at home.

Mrs. Bamford spent Thursday and Friday in Charter Oak on business matters.

Attend the ball game on the Denison grounds next Friday, Charter Oak vs Denison.

Miss Fanchon Bamford has been spending the past two weeks in Boone, where she visited friends.

Miss Wilma Frazier returned to her home in Missouri Valley Tuesday after a week's visit in Denison.

Editor H. H. Sturges of the Charter Oak Times and wife have gone to the Black Hills for an outing.

Mr. Chas. C. Kemming returned from his eastern trip on Wednesday evening. He had a very pleasant time.

Jas. Regan has returned from a trip through Illinois, Missouri and Arkansas. He reports a good business.

A Vail man has a curiosity in the shape of an eight-legged colt that he proposes to place upon exhibition this fall.

More free shows will be given in Denison at the street fair than is given in most of the ordinary circuses for 50 cents.

Tell your neighbors that Denison will entertain them four big days beginning, Sept. 8 and lasting until midnight of the 11th.

The condition of Mrs. J. C. Way shows much improvement at this time and there is every prospect for her ultimate recovery.—Ute Independent.

Mrs. J. L. Ainsworth has returned from her stay in Chicago, where she attended the Chicago Art Institute. Miss Ada Sewell stopped at Bell Plains to visit relatives before returning home.

Mr. A. M. Runkle, of Marshalltown, visited in Denison on Thursday and Friday. He reports that the old soldiers from Crawford who are at the soldier's home, are contented and enjoying reasonably good health.

Secretary Shaw visited in Denison on Friday and Saturday stopping for a time at the Wilson House, until the return of Mr. E. Gulick from the Lakes. The Secretary was met on every hand with a cordial welcome by old friends.

The Denison base ball club went to Woodbine on Friday afternoon to meet the Woodbine team, and was defeated by a score of 3 to 2. While the boys did not put up a very good game, they were also given the worst of the Umpire's decisions.

L. E. Goodwin of Charter Oak, is in possession of a fully petrified, finely preserved knee bone of an ancient mastodon. He purchased the same while up in Dakota, and has added it to his already large collection of antiquated specimens.

E. O. Thiem recently sold to a man in Melbourne, Australia a fine Partridge Wyandotte cockerel and two hens of the same breed for $150. This is not Mr. Thiem's first shipment to Australia and other foreign parts. He has shipped many birds to Liverpool.

Thos. Gibbons, of Arion, was a Denison visitor Monday.

Born, on Sunday, Aug. 2, to Mr. and Mrs. Theo. Kasehl, a boy.

Miss Emma Wiggins, of Dow City, spent Friday in Denison.

Attend the teachers dance at the Germania Hall Wed. Aug. 12.

T. J. Gamble returned from his Chicago visit on Monday morning.

Mr. Elmer Langhery of Deloit, was a business visitor at Denison on Monday.

Rev. Emory Miller and wife have returned from their visit to Bedford, Iowa.

Attorney P. J. Klinker spent last Thursday at Storm Lake on legal business.

Miss Edna Raine returned Thursday from a few days visit with her sister in Duolap.

Miss Clara Scriber is visiting with Miss Veane Sotcking at Honey Creek, this week.

Miss Bernice Orborn is spending her vacation at Clinton, where she is visiting friends.

Miss Bond is spending a part of her vacation in Omaha, Kansas City and Colorado.

Miss Jennie Christianson spent a portion of last week with the Gulick party at Okoboji.

Miss Jennie Austin returned from Spencer, Iowa Sunday where she visited with Mrs. Martin.

Mrs. H. V. Failor of Lincoln, Neb. and daughter are visiting at the Gillmor home this week.

Mrs. Geo. Hopkins returned from Omaha Monday. On Tuesday she leaves for Parkersburg, West Virginia.

Gus Radaka started Monday evening for the Pacific coast. After a visit there will return home by way of New Orleans.

Mrs. Percy Familton and daughter of Chicago, are expected in Denison this week for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Familton.

E. Gulick, who is spending the summer at Okoboji, came home on Saturday evening. He expects to return to the lakes today.

Mr. A. F. Bond had a new gasoline engine installed out at his place last week, using it as power for a cream freezer and also feed grinder.

Rev. A. W. McNeal and wife have left Arion for Madrid, Iowa, where they will make their home. Rev. McNeal having accepted a pastorate at that place.

Mr. Geo. S. Jordan, of Deloit spent a portion of last week out in Blaine county, Neb. where he has land interests. He reports crop prospects as very flattering.

Mrs. A. D. Randall and children are visiting Mrs. Randall's sister at De Witt, Neb. They expect to be gone about four weeks and will attend the Chautauque at Lincoln.

P. W. Sullivan was a REVIEW caller Friday last. P. W. is one of the good farmers of Crawford and his crops this year are A 1. He is also a Democrat, but likes the REVIEW.

Mrs. Jas. Ott, of Marshalltown, is spending a few days at Denison visiting her parents and friends. She also visited her little nephew at Carroll, and says he is the boy of all boys.

Mrs. L. S. Antoine and Miss Mona Boruff of Macedonia, Iowa, who have spent the past two weeks visiting at the home of Chas. Heaviland returned to their home Tuesday, Aug. 4.

Dr. L. M. Coon visited in Denison last Wednesday.

Banker Green was up from Dow City Friday on business.

Mrs. Andy Bowling went to Tipton on Wednesday last.

Dr. W. B. Evans was here Wednesday visitor in Denison.

J. I. Gibson transacted business at Kingsley Iowa Saturday.

Fred Pearson, of Dow City, spent a day in Denison last week.

Sam'l Hoffman, of Bickets, was an over Sunday visitor in Denison.

Will Brocklesby of Vail was a business visitor in Denison Saturday.

Mrs. Edmund Beach visited with her parents at Dow City over Sunday.

Read the special shoe bargains offered by the Balle-Brodersen Co. in this issue.

Wm. Gilbreath left Monday morning for Omaha, where he went on business.

Miss Mabel Robertson, of Des Moines is visiting relatives and friends in Denison.

Miss Anna Peterson has returned from her vacation of two weeks at Milford Iowa.

Mrs. John James is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Jones, at Charter Oak this week.

Dr. L. L. Bond visited with his son Fred Hamilton Bond, at Fonda, on Thursday last.

Miss Jennie Rae, of Dow City, is visiting at the home of Jay Woodruff, in North Denison.

M. D. Rose was home over Sunday from Iowa Falls where he is working with W. D. Faus.

Mr. Hugh Menagh Sr. returned home from Des Moines Saturday where he had been visiting.

The Boys ad in the REVIEW this week will attract your attention if you are seeking bargains.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Bagge and Miss Susie Craft spent a few days last week visiting in Charter Oak.

Misses Emma and Lillie Raine returned Saturday where they had been visiting their sister, Mrs. Jordan.

Fred Rose went to Correctionville on Monday morning. He is now foreman of the creamery at that place.

The town of Hampton has just finished the construction of a sanitary sewer system at a cost of $17,000.00.

Mrs. J. P. Conner and son Raymond returned from the lakes on Saturday last. They report fishing good and that they had a most enjoyable time.

Mrs. E. A. Stone and son Clark, returned to their home in Cedar Rapids on Friday. Mrs. Stone had a very pleasant visit with old friends while here.

It is reported that Edmund Way, son of John Way, who resides in Charter Oak, is seriously ill with malaria fever. Many Denison friends hope for his early recovery.

Dr. M. L. Bartlett, instructor in music at the Crawford County Normal, and who will conduct the Musical Festival, arrived in Denison on Saturday. He is stopping at the home of J. G. Wygant.

The publisher of the REVIEW has added a number of new names to the REVIEW list the past two weeks besides giving a number of old subscribers credit for another year, all for which he is thankful.

Miss Nina Streeter visited in Denison Sunday.

Mrs. A. W. Wiggins spent Sunday in Dow City.

Miss Edith McCollough is spending her vacation at home.

Mr. Nicholas Schlueter returned from wall Lake Saturday.

Mr. A. J. Book, of Schleswig, was a Denison visitor Monday.

Mr. W. E. Westcott of Des Moines, spent Saturday in Denison.

Miss Irene Garber spent last week visiting friends in Dow City.

Miss Anna Owens returned Monday from her visit in Omaha and Waterloo.

Mrs. H. C. Simpson expects to go to Clinton this week for a visit of three weeks.

Mrs. A. G. Bagge of Quimby, Ia. arrived in Denison on Monday for a visit with relatives.

Miss Stone of The People's Store, returned from her Chicago trip on Monday evening.

The ladies of the Catholic church gave a lawn social last evening that was quite well attended.

Miss Pearl Gilbreath has returned from a very pleasant visit at Denver where she visited relatives.

Miss Nettie Nicholson and brother, Ross have issued cards for an "At Home" to be given Tuesday eve.

J. H. Tamm and Jno. Wiese are in Sac City this week, where they have an exhibit of the Empire Cream Separator.

Mr. George Naeve returned Sunday from Chelan Wash. where he went to inspect some mining properties. His reports are very favorable.

F. W. Meyers came down from Mason City on Sunday afternoon, and returned to that place in the evening. Mr. Chas. K. Meyers is still quite ill.

The Denison Summer Festival of Music commenced last Monday evening, the attendance being very good. We go to press too early to learn of the program for the week.

The Upper Des Moines Editorial meeting at Mason City and Clear Lake was a successful meeting. There was a goodly number of editors present, and the papers discussed were timely and interesting.

Mr. Highstreet, from Arcadia, was nearly drowned at Lake Manawa recently. He jumped from a spring board and being unable to swim was almost strangled before being rescued.

The report that a stranger recently lost his way in the tall weeds in north Denison lacks authority. Investigation shows that it would be impossible for a man to do this, the weeds are only two feet higher than the average man.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Smith will remove from Denison this week to Tecamah, Neb. where Mr. Smith has purchased a steam laundry. He goes to that place today and will get located, and Mrs. Smith will follow later in the week.

Arrangements have been made for another ball game with Charter Oak at Denison for next Friday. The committee is out selling tickets and is meeting with good success. There will undoubtedly be a big crowd in attendance.

Mr. E. M. Mann of Des Moines, spent the greater part of last week in Denison in the interest of the Penn Mutual Life Insurance Co. Mr. E. H. Rumsey, the general agent for the company, is taking his regular summer vacation and is visiting down East.

Mrs. John Kepford of Ames and Mrs. Martha Kepford of Dow City, mother and sister-in-law of Mrs. Frank Jones were visiting her in Charter Oak last week. Friday they went to Ute to spend the day with friends there.—Charter Oak Times.

Mr. John Shaw Van returned to his work with the Illinois Central Railway Sunday evening. He is located at Marissa, Ill., at present.

Guy Whaley, who has had his photo establishment at West Side during the spring is now at Bagley Iowa, where he is doing a good business.

Mr. F. J. Gable is visiting his parents and friends in Denison this week. He reports business pretty good with him, and he is quite taken up with his work.

Mrs. G. W. Gregg and daughter Louise, left Friday for a visit with relatives in Manilla and other towns in that locality. Mr. Gregg went over Sunday and remained a couple of days.

The young people are preparing for a well dancing party to be given in Military hall in north Denison on the evening of August 17th. The famous Blocker orchestra will furnish the music.

John Roland spent Sunday with his family in Denison. He has in the past two weeks been at Atlantic, Iowa. He leaves this week for Sac City where his company, the Empire Cream Separator, will have an exhibit.

Mr. C. L. Voss returned from his western trip on Friday night. He reports having had a most delightful time. He left Messrs. Tabor and Romans at Chelan Wash. After inspecting the mines at Chelan they will take a trip through Yellowstone Park.

On Saturday afternoon the Baptists held a picnic in Marshall's grove. The day was pleasant and a large number gathered at the grounds. The afternoon was spent in swinging, playing games and having a good time generally. The day passed all too quickly for the children.

The Bulletin contains the announcements of three candidates for sheriff, one for superintendent of schools, and one for supervisor. Those for sheriff are Thos. R. Meehan, D. P. O'Brien and H. J. Cummings; for superintendent of schools, F. L. Hoffman, and for supervisor, C. H. Molter.

D. W. Shaw of the Manilla National Bank returned Monday from Vermont where he had been at the bedside of his mother Mrs. B. O. Shaw, who recently underwent an operation for the removal of a tumor. The operation was successful and considering her advanced age she is improving nicely. Mrs. Shaw spent several winters here with her son D. W. and her friends here sincerely hope for her a complete recovery—Manilla Times.

Mr. Frank J. Stillman the washing ton correspondent, and one of the proprietors of the Jefferson Bee was a Denison visitor on Friday, the guest of Congressman Conner. Mr. Stillman is one of the representative men of Greene County, and since his residence in Washington has become well known to newspaper men throughout the country.

Dr. M. L. Bartlett of the Des Moines Musical college arrived in the city Saturday and was greeted by the many friends he made here last year. Dr. Bartlett began his work before the Teachers Institute yesterday morning and brought with him all his old time enthusiasm. Rehearsal of the festival chorus began last evening at the opera house under favorable auspices, and will be continued nightly. The first concert will be given Saturday evening at which many prominent singers and players will be heard. People will remember the magnificent concert given last year under Dr. Bartlett's direction so that everyone may look forward to an evening of rare enjoyment. A magnificent Checkering Grand piano was placed in position yesterday which will add much to the effect and pleasure of the occasion. The final grand concert will be given on Friday evening the 21st.

Chas. Voss went to Council Bluffs Tuesday.

J. E. Balle spent Monday and Tuesday at Omaha.

Jas. Kroph, of Ellis, had business at Denison on Monday.

John Schade was over from Manning on business Monday.

Peter Hoffens, of Manilla, spent Monday at the county seat.

Attorney O. Hare is out again after a severe illness of two weeks.

W. W. Coon of Arion is spending the day in the city on business.

Miss Emma Carter is spending the week in Sac City visiting friends.

Ralph Cassaday attended the Sioux City tennis tournament this week.

There will be a teachers dance at the Germania Hall, Wed. Aug. 19.

Robert Robinault and wife returned from their visit in Bell, Plain Thursday.

The Minnesota G. A. R. delegation went through Denison Tuesday morning.

Miss Bertha Sachan spent Sunday at Charter Oak, the guest of the Misses Tech.

Mrs. James, a sister of Mrs. Duncaan, of this city, left for her home in Elgin, Ill. today.

Miss Theresa Balzke is spending her summer vacation at her home in Grand Junction.

The R. A. Romans and Scriber families go to Wall Lake to-morrow for a short outing.

Miss Emerson, recently employed as saleslady at the People's store, left for Hardingtown Nebr., this morning.

Supervisor C. H. Moulter and Mr. M. J. Keil, of Iowa township, had business at the county seat on Saturday.

Percy Bergen returned on Monday from Grand Junction, after spending a week at the home of Miss Theresa Balzke.

Rev. Jas. Henry Sharpe arrived last evening to take up his work as pastor of the Presbyterian church. He is at present a guest at the Luney home.

Dr. J. B. Wiley of Dow City, a former student at the college, and who is now located at Armour S. D. is visiting relatives and friends in this vicinity.

Henry Bollen, one of the Balle-Brodersen Co's popular salesmen, left for points in Nebraska on Tuesday morning, where he will spend two or three weeks.

Those in charge of the Old Settler's Picnic hope to make this year's meeting eclipse those of former years, and are making extensive preparations for the event. The date is Aug. 20th.

Mr. John Schindler, of St. Louis, a cousin of Mr. Ed. Messenbrink, has been spending the past two weeks in Denison visiting relatives. He returns to his home on Thursday accompanied by Mr. Messenbrink, where the latter has accepted a position.

Dr. Simpson visited the farm of Mr. R. J. Deiter, in Jackson township yesterday, and pronounced the stock in healthful condition. A short time ago two of Mr. Dieter's horses were condemned and shot, and the remainder quarantined. They were released from quarantine yesterday.

Miss Anna Schlumberger has taken a position in her father's Pharmacy where she will study the profession from a practical as well as a theoretical standpoint intending in the future to take a complete course in pharmacy at college. Miss Anna was born and raised in Denison and graduated from the high school this spring. She was considered one of the brightest if not the best student in her class, endowed with a fine intellect and gifted with noble qualities. We predict for her a prosperous future. The REVIEW joins with her many friends in wishing her unbounded success in her chosen vocation.

Remember the teachers dance at the Germania Hall, Wed. Aug. 19.

Special reductions in prices of ladies and gents oxfords.

The Balle-Brodersen Company.

DENISON, IOWA.

SHOE BARGAINS
For Men, Women and Children.

IN SHOE BASEMENT

100 pair men's Shoes, vici and box calf. good-year welt sole 5 different styles, all sizes $3.00 value sale price... $2.50

36 pair boy's seamless work shoes sewed sole special value... $1.50

Men's Tan southern ties good-year welt soles, value $2.50 sale price... $2.00

Men's good-year welt oxfords color tan, calf stock, value $3.00 sale price... $1.35

Men's good-year welt oxfords black vici, value $3.00 sale price... $2.00

Men's canvas bals and oxfords good-year welts, value $2.00 sale price... $1.25

Boy's canvas shoes $1.10 value, sale price... 75c

Boy's tennis oxfords 60 cent value sale price... 45c

Men's tennis oxfords brown 60 cent value sale price... 50c

Men's tennis shoes color white and brown 75c value special price... 55c

100 pair assorted styles men's and boy's shoes materially reduced.

Shoes Shoes Shoes

FOR MEN WOMEN AND CHILDREN

August Reduction Sale

Beginning Friday, August 14.

A thorough over hauling of our shoe stocks, preparatory to receipt of fall stocks, discloses many shoes and oxfords, desirable in every respect but composing lines that are broken in sizes and widths. These depleted lines we want to close and close at once, so are offering for special sale at material reductions in prices. Note the values offered in this announcement. They are but a few of very many.

Foerderer's Vici Kid Dressing regular price 25 cents, our price 15 cents.

ON SECOND FLOOR

Lot Misses fine shoes, heavy soles patent tip sizes 1 1/2 to 2 sale price $1.00

Lot child's fine shoes, heavy soles patent tips sizes 8 1/2 to 11... 85c

Lot women's shoes ass't styles, lace and button value up to $2. sale price 90c

Lot women's fine shoes ass't styles, all up-to-date, widths a-b-c, sizes 2 1/2 to 7 values $3.00, 3.50, $4. sale price $2.35

Lot women's collie cloth shoes regular $1.85 special... 95c

Lot women's collie cloth oxfords regular $1.35 special... 75c

Lot youth's canvas shoes 9 to 13 regular $1.00 clearing price... 50c

Lot Misses fine button shoes sizes 1 1/2 to 1 1/2 regular price $1.85 price $1.35

23 pair ladies oxfords sizes 2 1/2 to 5 1/2 ass't styles, clearance price... 80c

19 pair ass't styles ladies oxfords regular values 2.00 to 3.50, price $1.25

Children's colored strap sandals regular prices 1.10 and 1.50 sale price 75c

19 pair child's strap slippers sizes 2 1/2 to 4, reds, blues, black, regular 75c value clearance price... 45c