Early Display of the New Things in Fall and Winter Millinery.

Early showing of Fall and Winter fashions in correct millinery—not necessarily high priced, either, but some of the most charming effects in stylish and desirable millinery at our recognized low prices. These hats were trimmed in New York and are exact copies of the imported pattern hats from Rebut, Ponyane and Vivot, the great fashion autocrats of the world. The assortment which we show will meet with the prompt approval of all well dressed women, and the saving possible is certainly an inducement to buy:

Saturday you may have the choice of our high-class hats from New York designers, hats worth $10 and $12, for 8.50
Silk Velvet hats, selling up to $7.00, Saturday your choice at 4.50

Let this Special TOWEL SALE influence You to Buy Saturday.

Ask any merchant the condition of the towel market. You'll find out that the scarcest article today in these lines is low and medium priced towels. Every maker of this class of goods is more than oversold and orders are being taken at from 15 to 25 per cent higher than six months ago. What we offer Saturday we bought from six to eight months ago, and that's why you can buy from us at a saving not possible where the store has not been as far sighted as The Boys.

Towels, size 20x40 inches, heavy weave, clean full bleached, absorbent sort, at a price you'll find hard to ignore, only 8c
Imported Huck Towels, made of Austrian and Belgian flax, hemmed, in fine or heavy makes, price only 10c
Fine Belfast bleached Huck Towels, and a lot of German knotted fringe satin damask towels, all good sizes and excellent values at our special price 15c
Your choice of all towels we usually sell at 25c. They are the best that money can buy to sell at this price. They are fine hucks as well as large satin damask towels 20c
All your finest towels up to the 60c grade, some of which are slightly soiled and mused, including fancy hemstitched and bleached damask towels, go on sale at 39c

Womens Fall and Winter Suits are Attracting Much Attention.

THE outlook is encouraging. THE women's ready-to-wear section has many visitors daily. Some come only to look, but generally turn purchasers. We don't believe we have ever been so successful in gathering such a fine assortment. We do not try to sell a coat or suit at a price which, owing to its lowness, precludes quality and makes first-class workmanship impossible. But what we do is to offer an excellent assortment of representative styles carefully selected at prices which we believe cannot be duplicated, everything considered. 16.50 10.75

We direct your attention to special offers,

'THE BOYS,' Denison, Iowa.

Britt Tribune: In all the talk about "the inferior race" and negro disfranchisement there is one class of men that always speaks well of the man, and that is the old soldier. Who helped them when escaping from rebel prisons? The negro, and especially the old mamies. Who would nurse them when wounded in the enemies' country? The negro. Who gave information that could always be relied on in regard to roads, routes, bridges, etc., when on the march? The negro. Who worked to build fortifications, bridges and camps without money and without price? The negro. And now they say, in Alabama, that he shall not vote, although he may be educated and own his own home earned by hard toil. There seems to be a lot of Tillmanism and Gravesism in the south that has much the same sound of Cal. hounism and other antebellum isms.

Carroll is about to have free city delivery. It is a great convenience and means that several additional families will be supported by work for the postal service. A city must have 10,000 postal receipts before it can secure free city delivery. The Denison postal receipts are about $8700 per annum. To bad they are not $1300 more. It would mean a great deal to the city, and it is a matter our business men should think about. Not less than three carriers are employed at a compensation of $650

SECURE SEATS FOR "BEN HUR."

File Your Orders Through the Mail as Soon as Possible.
"Ben Hur" is to be again presented in Omaha. The enormous patronage extended Klaw & Erlanger's magnificent and massive production of Gen. Lew Wallace's great play last January in that city was so highly satisfactory that Woodward & Burgess, managers of Boyd's theatre, where it was presented, succeeded in securing it for another engagement. Like last season, an entire week has been contracted for, so the powerful, impressive and costly spectacle will be staged the week of Sept. 28 to Oct. 3, at the Boyd, with matinees on Wednesday and Saturday. Theatre-goers, as well as the general public, will only have themselves to blame if they do not secure desirable seats for this attraction, for it is a very easy matter to do so. The advance sale of seats opens at the Boyd Theater box office Thursday morning Sept. 24th, at 9 a. m. Let those who intend taking in this attraction send in their order for seats prior to that date, and splendid care will be taken of them. All orders for seats must be addressed to Manager Burgess, Boyd's Theatre, Omaha, and said orders must be accompanied by express or postal orders, and self-addressed stamped envelope for reply. The scale of prices are exactly the same as last season. The first nineteen rows of the lower floor, $2.00; the remaining portion of the lower floor, $1.50; first four rows balcony, $1.50; the remaining portion $1.00; rear balcony, reserved, 75c; admission gallery, not reserved, 50c. Matinee prices same as at night.
In filling mail orders be careful that you stipulate the day you desire seats for, and what price tickets.
All railroads running into Omaha will have special excursion rates on this attraction; also special train service. It will therefore be advisable for the intending to witness "Ben Hur" to inquire of their local agent for train rate information.
