Mr. Thos. Bateman has been very ill the past week. His Pythian brethren have been caring for him, and hope to have him out again in a few days.

Schleswig is to have an English newspaper, the first issue to come out this week. Mr. Fred Branaka, who has been with the Bulletin for a number of years is the publisher. Fred is a young man of good qualities and we wish him success in his venture.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Schafer of Omaha will be interested to learn of their young heir since the 21st. We extend congratulations to this worthy couple.

Mrs. E. W. Pierce and her daughter Mrs. Will Rodenbaugh went to Ames on the excursion Friday. On Sunday Mr. Rodenbaugh came in and spent the day at the Pierce home.

The Green Cattle Co., of Dow City, shipped into that place last week thirty car loads of cattle from the west. Charley Booth came with them, having been on the roundup for a month.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Menagh, Sr. went into Chicago on Saturday evening, where Mrs. Menagh will receive medical treatment. Her many friends trust that she may be greatly benefited.

Mr. P. E. C. Lally has accepted an invitation to speak at the installation of a council of the Knights of Columbus at Boone on Oct. 18th. He has accepted the invitation and will use as his subject "Our Society and its Opportunity."

Mr. Howard Randall, who enlisted in the regular army from Dunlap, and who has been in the Philippines nearly three years, died in mid-ocean on August 31, while enroute for San Francisco. The cause of his death is said to have been Bright's disease.

The low rate to Chicago this week has attracted considerable attention and a number of Denison people have taken advantage of it, and gone to that city. Among those going were Messrs. Alf. Wright, Wm. McLennan and Chas. C. Kemming.

Hon. J. P. Conner and County Chairman W. M. McLennan were at Fort Dodge on Thursday last, and attended a meeting of the Tenth District Republicans. After the meeting they were entertained at luncheon at the pleasant home of Senator and Mrs. Dolliver.

The excursion to Ames last Friday drew a very large crowd, the special trains being loaded to standing room. It is said that there were over 15,000 people on the college grounds. Agent Mahoney sold nineteen tickets from Denison. Those who went were greatly pleased with the school and live stock and say the trip is worth a great deal.

Mrs. Miller, mother of Mr. M. V. Miller, the day man at the I. C. tower, died at the home of her son on Wednesday, aged 87 years. Mr. Miller took the remains to Jackson, Michigan, for interment. For many years she had been making her home with her son, and she always received the best of care.

On Saturday afternoon while working on Wm. Roth's house in west Denison Mr. L. A. Sewell lost his footing and fell a distance of nine feet. Workmen who were with him ran to his rescue, and picked him up, and after a short time he was found to be all right. It was fortunate that the ground in the cellar where he fell was soft, otherwise he might have been seriously injured.

In this issue we present in full the opening campaign speech of Governor A. B. Cummins, made at Des Moines Saturday evening. We present the speech in supplement form in order that our readers may preserve it and read it carefully at their leisure. The Governor answers the talk made in Denison a few weeks ago by the democratic candidate for governor, Mr. J. B. Sullivan, and by reading the speech one will readily see that the task was well done.

Mr. H. B. Johnson was up from Boyer on Thursday.

Mrs. N. E. Wescott is visiting at the home of her parents Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Wheeler. On Monday afternoon the family were considerably scared when the little boy came in the house crying and holding his hand to his face. While out in the smoke house playing he got some acid on his lips and made quite a blister. He is getting along nicely at present.

On Friday evening at the Methodist parsonage, took place the wedding of Mr. Homer C. Barrett and Miss Lottie McClure, both of Iowa Falls. The young people have remained in Denison and Mr. Barrett is looking for a business location here. Both bride and groom appear well equipped for the battle of life and we wish them every success and happiness.

County Attorney Klinker informs us that he was never consulted by the board relative to the over-payment to the sheriff. The Bulletin may try to put the onus on to the republican attorney, but in the face of this statement of Mr. Klinker's, and the further fact that but one illegal payment was made after he was in office, we do not see what ground the Bulletin has to stand on. The board would do much better to consult its county attorneys, than to ignore them as it did in this case.

On Thursday just at noon the fire department was called out by the fire alarm sounding. A gasoline stove in the home of Mr. H. W. Randall had exploded, and started a blaze. Mr. Jay Wiggins, living next door to the Randall home telephoned the alarm, and then rushed over to the scene of the blaze and assisted in extinguishing it. Mrs. Randall, who was sick in bed was considerably burned about the head and face, and badly frightened. Mr. Randall had a new overcoat burned up, and there was some damage to the household belongings.

Card of Thanks.

To the many friends and neighbors who kindly assisted during the illness and death of our mother. We desire to extend our sincere thanks

The REVIEW is in receipt of an invitation to attend the wedding of Mr. Asa Butterworth to Miss Francis Naomi Hill at Murphysboro, Ill., which takes place to-day, at the home of the bride's mother at Murphysboro. Crawford county friends of Mr. Butterworth will be pleased to hear that he is getting an accomplished young lady, and extend hearty congratulations. Mr. Butterworth is a young man of excellent character, and habits, and having a good position with the Illinois Central, is on the road to prosperity.

On Monday evening Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Conner entertained a very congenial company of about thirty at seven o'clock tea. After the guests had gathered all were invited to the dining room where a long table beautifully decorated in green and white was arranged. Each guest found a handsomely napkin-laid card at their plate the work of Mrs. Conner. The hours of tea were spent in social conversation after which the gentlemen were directed to the library and enjoyed an after dinner smoke. Later in the evening the guests were favored with both instrumental and vocal music by Miss P. Sister, and Messrs. J. I. Gibson and W. D. McAhren. Mrs. J. B. Romans favored the company with a reading to the delight of all.

The many old time friends of Mr. Fred Hefflinger were agreeably surprised to meet him last week. He stopped off in Denison on his way home from Buffalo, N. Y., where he had been as a delegate to the National Association of Letter Carriers. For the past five years he has been on the letter carrier force in Los Angeles, and is secretary of Branch 24 at Los Angeles. He was sent to Buffalo as a representative from Pasadena, Pomona and Los Angeles. After the meeting the boys went down the Hudson to New York, Brooklyn, Hoboken, Philadelphia and many other points. Mr. Hefflinger has been away from Denison for ten years, and found many changes on his return. He is prospering well in his California home, and reports his family and parents as well and getting along nicely. His brother Ralph, who was a mere boy when the family moved to California is now conducting the leading music house in Los Angeles, and is doing well. Owing to the fact that Mr. Hefflinger had been east for four weeks he was compelled to shorten his stay in Denison and left for home Thursday noon.
