The Kiron Chronicle
 E. N. Sandstrom is spending the week in Denison as petit juror.
 C. W. Clausen made a trip to Buck Grove the first of the week.
 Miss Grace Selander, of Denison, was an over Sunday visitor in Kiron.
 Mr. August Lillieholm, of Denison, was a Kiron visitor on Thursday last.
 Mr. A. P. Lindbom and daughter Anna, went to Omaha on Saturday for a short visit.
 Joseph Mengis and Miss Lydia Benson were Odebolt visitors on Thursday afternoon.
 Rev. A. Berglund returned on Wednesday eve from his visit to Storm Lake, Alta., and other points in that locality.
 From the Arthur Advertiser we glean the news of the birth of a girl, a fine baby girl at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Halboth.
 Arthur Anall and Mamie Wahl were visitors at Schleswig on Thursday evening last. As singing was fair; they enjoyed a splendid ride.
 Alfred J. Clausen is advertising a sale of thorough-bred swine to be held Feb. 25. He is a successful breeder and raiser of the Red Duroc hogs.
 Mr. Chas. E. Johnson and Miss Amy Loomer visited with Charley's relatives near Odebolt the first part of the week, returning on Tuesday.
 The joint sale of Aug. Linman and Oscar Telgren will be held on Thursday, Feb. 11, on the farm four and one-half miles east of Kiron.
 Simon Larson entertained a number of his friends at his bachelor home Thursday eve. They came to surprise him. Those attending report an enjoyable time.
 The sale of J. P. Lund on Wednesday last drew a large crowd, and good prices were realized by Andrew Tequist, who is fast gaining the reputation of a good salesman.
 Fred Hoar, our barber, was a visitor in Schleswig between train hours on Monday. Some think there is a girl in it, but for the sake of our girls we'll say "Don't you believe it."
 In spite of the cold and bad weather the attendance at the B. A. Samuelson's Duroc Jersey hog sale on Tuesday last, was good, and the offerings sold fairly well. Forty-one head were sold, netting the sum of over nine hundred dollars.
 Just as we are getting our items ready for mailing, the news reaches us that Reynolds Sandstrom died in western Nebraska on Friday evening of pneumonia. He is well known by our people having spent a portion of his days in Kiron, and the news of his death is learned with regret.
 Married, on Wednesday eve, at the home of Bennie Peterson, near Boyer, in the presence of friends and relatives, Emil Mauritz and Miss Augusta Johnson, Rev. J. A. Benander, pastor of the Lutheran church officiating. They have commenced housekeeping in the Mrs. Mauritz residence in town.
 From the Moline Evening Mail of Jan. 21, we copy the following which concerns a former Kiron girl, and of whose marriage we referred to in last week's items: "R. L. Benson has returned from Keokuk, Iowa, where he attended the marriage of his sister, Miss Jennie Benson, who was born in Moline; and whose parents were for a long time residents. She has often visited her brother, and has a wide circle of acquaintances here." The Gate City paper says: The wedding of Miss Jennie Cecil Benson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. N. Boyson, of Kiron, Iowa, to Mr. Wm. Barton Hazy, of Oskaloosa, Iowa, took place on Thursday afternoon. The ceremony was performed at 4 o'clock by Rev. Adolph Rosbach, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Reynolds, uncle and aunt of the bride, and was followed by a wedding supper. Those attending were only relatives and a few intimate friends of the former including R. L. Benson, of Moline, brother of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. P. K. Nelson, of Winchester, Ill.; and Mr. and Mrs. David Leslie, of Granger, aunt and uncle of the groom. At 8 o'clock Mrs. Dolly entertained informally in honor of the bride and groom; who left on the 11:40 North bound train for their future home near Oskaloosa, followed by the hearty good wishes of many friends.

Crawford County State Bank.
 DENISON, IOWA.
 The Best Security for Depositors. Form Loans at Five Per Cent. Interest.
 This Bank is incorporated under the laws of the State of Iowa. This gives the best security to all depositors, not only to the amount of stock, but the personal property of each share holder is held to the amount of his share, with any loss to the bank. Incorporated Banks are under the control of the State Auditor, who can at any time examine the business, and according to his investigation the published statements are made. Depositors in an incorporated bank have more security than the confidence imposed in the offices. They have the best security, because the capital stock can not be used at pleasure for outside speculation and investment. The Crawford County State Bank is the best incorporated banking institution in the county. A general banking business done.

Cupid Personally Conducted.
 With her story "Princess Roseleaf and a Girl from Kansas," in the February McClure's, Miriam Michelson presents a novel rendition of the old theme, "Love's Triumph over Difficulties." The difficulties in this case are in the mind of the lover. He is a son of one of Philadelphia's most rigidly aristocratic and frozen-faced families. Circumstances force him, while abroad, to associate with a party of common Cook's tourists. His disgust is especially excited by a pert, plump little Kansas schoolma'am. And his horror at her vulgarity is equalled only by her ridicule of his fastidiousness. What happens—well, it's all told in this delightful little story—one of the best of its kind that we have read in a long time.
