

FERGUSON'S PICTURE SHOP

CRAWFORD COUNTY'S LEADING PHOTO STUDIO

Best of Workmanship Guaranteed.

Laub Block, Denison.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

Mrs. D. Thew is very ill with lung fever.

Earl Baker of Sioux City visited Bert Lyman last Friday.

E. E. Clausen of Kiron attended the convention Friday.

Mrs. F. J. Gary of West Side was in Denison last Tuesday.

Mrs. Fred Richards returned from her Nebraska visit last week.

W. T. Huckstep of Milford township was a business visitor Friday.

The Coffee club meets with Mrs. J. B. Romans Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Louie Hannon, of Vail, visited with relatives in this city last week.

Mrs. Perkins, of Seattle, Wash., is visiting with her sister, Mrs. Kuehnle.

Miss Kate Cavanaugh closed a very successful term of school in East Boyer last Friday.

Mrs. Francis Cruzan visited at Ellis with the family of B. F. Ellis Friday and Saturday.

Mrs. Mathews of Odebolt, always a welcome visitor, is a guest of her brother Mr. Van Winkle.

Fred Smith of Boyer was in town last Friday as a delegate to the republican county convention.

The Presbyterian Ladies' Missionary society met with Mrs. Jennie Lancy on Friday of last week.

John Riggeman of Defolt was in Denison last Saturday visiting with his mother Mrs. El. Zea.

Mrs. Julia Jorgenson of Milford township visited with Denison friends several days last week.

The Presbyterian Ladies' apron sale was a pleasant and profitable affair in spite of the disagreeable weather.

Mrs. W. T. Perkins arrived Monday from Seattle, Wash., and will visit with her sister Mrs. Kuehnle for some time.

A. D. Randall is putting in a new cooling room in his meat market on Broadway.

W. P. Oldfield is moving his family on to the Barber farm just north of town.

Mr. Thos. Boylan, of Des Moines, was a Denison visitor on Tuesday morning.

St. Agnes Guild will meet with Miss L. dia Belle Kuehnle Thursday afternoon.

B. F. Pailbrook and family spent Thursday in Dunlap attending the funeral of a relative.

Mr. W. C. McCloy expects to leave next week for La Belle, Mo., where he will enjoy a couple of months' vacation.

Mr. Everett Kemp is moving into the house recently vacated by Mr. Wm. Norrie, just east of Mr. W. D. McAhrens.

Clarence Christiansen, who is staying with Ben Smith, north of town, is being visited by a brother John, of Davenport.

Those interested in the organizing of the Daughters of the Revolution will have a meeting with Mrs. J. C. Robinson Sr. Wednesday March 23.

M. V. Miller went to Rockwell City last Friday to visit friends and while there attend an entertainment given by the Masonic order of that place.

Miss Bartcher was compelled to resign her position as school teacher on account of sickness. Mrs. Bartcher is also sick but both are now on the mend.

The eight months old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Braska, who live on the Schayler place north of town, died last week, and was interred at Vail Monday.

The coffee club meets with Mrs. J. B. Romans on Thursday afternoon. This latest of these concerns it to clubdom is proving to be very popular and much enjoyed by its members.

The school election passed off very quietly on Monday afternoon. Mr. R. Knaul was elected to succeed himself as director and Mr. M. E. Jones was elected to succeed himself as treasurer.

Ethel Gulick has come home from Cornell college on account of sickness. She will return when the spring term opens.

The date for the state declamatory contest, which is to be held at the opera house in this city, has been set for Friday evening, April 22.

Julius Lehfeldt, formerly of this city who is now proprietor of a large department store in Butte, Montana, is visiting friends and relatives.

Mr. Isaac Johnson, the aged father of U. G. Johnson, was very sick at the home of the latter last week. He is reported as being on the mend.

Gertrude Bradbury came home Saturday afternoon, having finished a term of school near Schleswig. She will also teach the spring term there.

It is understood that the contractors who have the court house to build will be in Denison on Saturday, and that work will commence Monday in earnest.

Mr. A. E. Cooley and family, of Odebolt, are now residents of our town, occupying the Hepner property in East Denison. Mr. Cooley will drive team for R. L. Hill.

The W. C. T. U. held a pleasant meeting at the home of Mrs. Hohenbaugh on last Thursday afternoon. There was a large attendance although the snow came down like an old time blizzard.

Grace Temple Lockard, after a week's visit with parents and friends, started home Friday. On the way she will visit in Carroll, Boone, and Marshalltown, arriving in Chicago next Saturday.

Miss Minnie Craft has finished a successful term of school at the McWilliams school house east of town. She will attend the state normal school at Cedar Falls during the coming spring and summer.

Geo. Menagh & Co. are now occupying two store rooms, having just moved into the store recently vacated by Casaday & Co. New shelving has been put up, and clerks are now busy getting the new and additional stock arranged.

On Wednesday afternoon last week Dr. Wright's team, which was hibernated in front of his house, became frightened at a piece of paper which was being blown about by the wind, broke loose, and completely demolished the buggy.

About twenty ladies will join the "D. A. R." that many having their records traced. "The family tree" is at present an object of much interest to a great many ladies. We are sure the ladies will form a fine chapter and have a great many good times.

Mrs. Helen B. Johnston closed a very successful term of school in district No. 7, Denison township on Friday March 11th. Mrs. Johnston gave the best of satisfaction and the patrons of the school are pleased to note that she is to return to teach the spring term.

On Friday evening about sixteen young lady friends of Miss LeVine Morris showered her at the Orr home. Red heart, pierced with white arrows were used in decorating. The evening was spent in playing flinch and P. T. Light refreshments were served. She received many useful gifts.

Slaughter in China

A Discount of 25 to 40 per cent.

For 10 days we intend to cut the price of Chinaware and sell so low that every family in Denison and vicinity will buy. By reading the following list you will see that we mean business. We carry the finest line of China in the city as you all know.

German China, 100 pieces din. set, (white was $17.50 now.....)	$14.75	English Semi-Porcelain, 100 pieces din. set, decorated, was $11.00, now.....	$ 8.75
German China, 100 pieces din. set, decorated, was $20.00 now.....	$16.75	English Semi-Porcelain, 100 pieces, din. set, decorated, was $10.00, now.....	$ 7.75
English Semi Porcelain, 100 pieces din. set, decorated, was $15.00 now.....	$12.75	12 piece decorated chamber set was $8.50 now.....	$ 7.00
English Semi-Porcelain, 100 pieces din. set, decorated, was $15.50 now.....	$13.00	12 piece decorated chamber set wa. $12.00 now.....	$10.00
English Semi-Porcelain, 100 pieces din. set, decorated, was $16.00, now.....	$13.25	12 piece decorated chamber set was $14.00 now.....	$12.25

Lamps, Jardinières, Cut Glass Japanese China, and all of our Fanciest German and Haviland China at 25 per cent discount, March 9th till 19th inclusive.

THE BROADWAY GROCERY, Geo. V. Vincent Manager.

Please Remember this Sale is from March 9th to March 19th inclusive. Come in.

Read this issue of the REVIEW and if you are not a subscriber, call in and enroll your name and get a may.

We have on our exchange a copy of the New London Farmer-Times the paper which is being edited by C. W. Von Coelln and his daughter Anna. This first issue under the new management is well gotten up, is a credit to the editor, and bespeaks a bright future for the paper.

The street committee held a meeting last week at which it was decided that the cellar walls of the old Wilson house should be retained next the street to prevent the street from caving in. The wall was purchased of Mr. Gary for this purpose. It has not yet been decided whether Mr. Cook or the city will pay for the wall.

The Republican city caucuses held last Thursday evening were well attended, although the evening was very disagreeable. At the caucuses of the first ward W. J. Scrive was chairman, and E. T. Cochran secretary. U. G. Johnson was chairman of the second, and Everett Kemp secretary. E. E. Tucker was chairman of the third, and P. J. Klinker, secretary.

J. H. Meis who was clerk at the People's store this winter has come to Dubuque where he will enter a wholesale establishment. Mr. Meis is a fine young man and has been in our city but a few months, but during that time he has grown very popular with our young people and they regret very much that he has been compelled to leave.

Wm. Byrnes of Vail was in Denison on business Monday.

The W. H. M. S. meets this afternoon at the home of W. R. Temple.

Get a new up-to-date map of Crawford County at the REVIEW office.

Both fire departments made a good run to the fire the other night, which proved to be only a chimney burning out at the home of Geo. Richardson.

On page three of this issue will be found editorial comment, our Washington letter, program for the teachers' meeting, real estate transfers, and many new advertisements. On page six will be found complete proceedings of the Republican county convention, including the resolutions adopted, and a list of the delegates to the different conventions. Also convention calls, the city mayor's proclamation, etc. Each page of the REVIEW has interesting reading matter and live advertising. There are no dead ads in this paper, and the foreign advertiser pays as much and in many cases more than the home man. The REVIEW always protects the home advertiser.

ELECT OFFICERS.

The City Federation elected Mrs. J. B. Romans Pres. for the next year. The presidents of three federated clubs act as vice presidents. Mrs. Plimpton and Mrs. Goodrich were elected secretaries, Mrs. Sears McHenry treasurer. Mrs. F. W. Meyers and Mrs. C. F. Kuehnle, were made a committee to select a picture to be presented to the board of trustees of the Carnegie library as a token of the club's appreciation of the kindness of the board in furnishing the club room. The Friday club have voted to furnish the platform of the club room and are considering a new edition of the cook book for which there has been a steady demand.

Mrs. Chris Kemming was elected president, and Mrs. H. A. Boyle vice president of the Friday club. Mrs. Savage toast mistress, Mrs. Philbrook treasurer, Mrs. F. W. Meyers secretary. Miss King member of board. Mesdames Meyers, Philbrook, Johnson and Savage, Mrs. Philbrook being chairman of the board.

Born on Sunday March 13, to Mr. and Mrs. George Powell a boy.

Use Standard Fashions SEE APRIL SHEET

THE BALLE-BRODERSEN CO.

DENISON, IOWA.

Insure Success by Planting Our Garden Seeds. NOW ON SALE

Carpets and Rugs

If economy is an object to you, you should buy your Carpets and Rugs here. Labor has advanced, raw materials have advanced, and as a result the prices of floor coverings have gone away up in all stores carrying small stocks that must be replenished. We have our supplies contracted for an entire season in advance, and as a fortunate result, we can sell our Carpets and Rugs at a distinct saving to our customers. See here for instance;

A reversible, washable, sanitary carpeting 36 inches wide, all bright patterns—our special price—Per yard 25c

Tapestry Brussel Rug—size 9 feet by 12 feet. A limited quantity—Very Special—each 2.50

Smyrna Rug 9 feet by 12 feet Extra value.....each 22.50

Bigelow Axminster Rug, large assortment of patterns and colorings—size 27 inches by 63 inches.—Special.....each 2.50

Lace Curtains.

(On display in Carpet Department, up stairs.)

How about them? We sell this class of merchandise on the same narrow margin of profit as our other goods. Entire new spring line now on display showing probably the largest assortment of pattern and qualities ever before attempted in Denison. We quote special lots:

One lot, style Louis XIV—regular $4.50 value to open season sale we quote special at per pair $3.50

One lot, Irish point—regular $3.50 at season's opening price of $2.50

One lot, Nottingham, extra large size, special—at this season's opening price, per pair $1.00

FIRST SHOWING OF STREET HATS

Friday and Saturday, March 18 and 19, '04.

ON THE ABOVE DAYS WE WILL HAVE ON DISPLAY A LARGE LINE OF READY TO WEAR

STREET HATS

STYLES THE LATEST, PRICES THE LOWEST. COME—YOU ARE ALL WELCOME AT THIS SALE.

M. M. BAMFORD

Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Dempster, of Hayes township, are rejoicing over the arrival of a daughter at their home. We congratulate the happy couple and trust the little one may grow to be an honor to the name she bears.

We desire to place one of our fine new Crawford County maps in every property owner's home in Crawford County within the next thirty days. In order to do this we have secured the services of a number of trustworthy men, who will give a receipt, the REVIEW, and one of the fine maps all for two dollars. Give your name to any of them and get full value for your money.

On Wednesday afternoon of last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Herman occurred the wedding of William Miller and Miss Mamie Hanson, Rev. Froese of the German Lutheran church officiating. The groom is the son of Mr. Fritz Miller of Goodrich township, and the bride is the daughter of Mrs. William Herman. The REVIEW joins with many friends in wishing this worthy couple a long and happy life.

The Presbyterian congregation held a business meeting Monday night for the purpose of electing a new minister, Mr. Sharpe having resigned. The Rev. James W. Bryce, of Shelbyville, Kentucky, was elected. Mr. Bryce is a very prominent minister in the Shelbyville presbytery, a graduate of Princeton, and a very scholarly gentleman. He preached here for two Sabbaths about a month ago during the absence of Mr. Sharpe in the east. He is personally known to Mr. Sharpe, who speaks very highly of him. Mr. Sharpe expects to spend the following year attending a theological seminary in Baltimore, where he will complete his studies for the ministry. The congregation expressed their appreciation of Mr. Sharpe and are loath to part with him, but feel very fortunate in securing the services of Mr. Bryce. It was the desire of Mr. Sharpe to leave his present post at once, but the congregation would not release him till September.

The Core club will meet with Mrs. Gebert instead of Mrs. Gibson, the latter being sick.

At the Bakery on the Corner

Broadway and Sweet Streets, Denison.

I invite all to call in and give me a trial. Baker's Goods of all kinds. Always the Freshest, Purest and Best. I especially cater to the party trade. A fine line of Candles, Cigars and bottled goods. Open at 5 a. m.

Carl Youngerman, Prop.