REPUBLICAN WARNING.

There is evidence that the democrats are preparing to take advantage of the fact that there will be no contest on the city ticket to steal a march on the republicans and elect democratic aldermen. The republicans have conceded all they should concede. They should go to the polls and carry every ward for no other reason than to expel the democratic boast that they have the republicans of Denison on the run.

Republicans are beginning to wonder if the democrats of Denison are planning to take advantage of republican magnanimity to claim a partisan victory. The Bulletin fairly bristles with references to the "democratic mayor" and hints the friendly recognition of a good mayor regardless of politics as a forced concession of republican weakness. We do not believe Mayor Carey is a party to this malicious nonsense but it does not sit well with those republicans who are supporting Carey in spite of his party, not on account of it.

At the school exhibit we saw the arithmetic example of a bright Denison boy, eleven just the day before. It was an example in bank discount. It would stump the average business man. What are we coming to?

No, Mr. Wouldn't political postmaster, the salary of the Denison postmaster has not been raised during the present administration, and it will not be unless the receipts of the office warrant it. And what is more, you know it when you write your last dirty fling about Judge Conner.

Gregg-- FOR THE BEST PHOTOS
 MAIN STREET, DENISON, IOWA.

It will be Conner by acclamation sure enough.

Is General Apathy or Republicanism to win on Monday?

Why is that the longer pupils attend school the poorer they write?

Harmony seems to be the present republican key-note, and it is a good one.

E. L. Hogue will make them all hustle in the 11th District congressional race.

My! Wouldn't the democrats crow if they should steal an alderman on account of republican apathy.

Democratic boasting may make republicans mad enough to get out and vote. If so good-bye democratic aldermen.

The words of Supt. Savage relative to manual training in our schools should be heeded and acted upon by Denison people.

The old friends of J. G. Wygant should rally to his support in the third. He has made a good alderman and should be re-elected.

Second warders are beginning to figure that after the Jones priorities are all fixed up there won't be much money left for the rest of the town.

Sam V. O'Hare has come to light again as the democratic boss of Denison. The would-be political postmaster now takes off his hat to him.

In answer to a subscriber we would say that Mr. S. M. Thew has lived in Denison long enough to be eligible to a place on the democratic ticket.

Vote for Joe Scott, he is a representative citizen, a property owner and a tax payer, but without a lot of real estate to be made salable at the city's expense.

It is rumored that considerable Hearst money has found its way to Crawford. There is a marked revival of Hearst interest in certain quarters that adds to the suspicion.

The Bulletin claims that on account of republican apathy the democrats will carry all three wards for aldermen. Your uncle, Jerry Davis will show 'em a track worth two of that in the first ward.

If Jack Jones would take oath that he ever voted for a republican there might be excuse for republicans to vote for him. Jack wouldn't vote for St. Patrick if he was running on a republican ticket.

It is a shame that the Iowa legislature continues to discriminate against the State University. The alumni would almost be justified in blacklisting those legislators who are against the university without rhyme or reason.

The statement of the would-be political postmaster that there were numerous ballots taken by the committee to select delegate sat the republican convention was but another of his regulation falsehoods. There was but one ballot taken.

Judging from the remarks of fond parents, there were at least one hundred thousand dollars worth of baskets on display at the High School building on Friday and Saturday, and the little fairies were worth more millions than J. Pierpont can command.

Miss Inis Cory, of Sac City, visited her sister Mrs. Harry Hultsch the first of the week.

HOW BIG IS CHAMBERLIN?

Say, pa. How big is Chamberlin
 Who runs the Jewelry store?
 Is he a man of monstrous size
 Or just a two by four?

My son, he's just a common man
 Of ordinary size
 Who knows his trade from A to Z
 And how to fix your eyes.

Can he take wheels, and springs and such
 And make a watch to run?
 It wouldn't stump it very much
 If he has seen it done.

And when he fixes watches
 Does he stuff them full of paper?
 Oh, no, my boy, No JEWELER
 Would cut up such a caper.

But pa, who is that other man
 At work in this same store?
 That's Boylan, and the world they say,
 Can't furnish any more.

And Chamberlin discovered him,
 Engaged him on the spot
 And THEY can do the work you bet,
 It doesn't matter what.

M. M. BAMFORD.

Married.

On Wednesday evening March 16 at eight o'clock, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Morris, in the presence of only the nearest relatives and friends, occurred the marriage of Mr. B. F. Orr to Miss Levina Morris, Rev. G. E. Morphy officiating.

The rooms were tastily decorated with pink and white carnations and smilax. The bride was beautifully attired in a wedding gown of creamy voile and carried a large bouquet of bride's roses, while the groom was attired in conventional black. After the ceremony an elegant lap supper was spread.

The bride is the modest but charming daughter of one of our old citizens. She received her education in our city schools and is well and popularly known among our young people. The groom came to Denison about five years ago since which time he has risen very rapidly in his trade as a carpenter.

The young couple will soon be at home to their friends in Council Bluffs and the good wishes of all go with them to their new home.

NIELSON LETS CONTRACT.

Messrs Marxen & Rockar, of Avoca, Successful Bidders.

Last Saturday Mr. Thos. Nielson let the contract for the new hotel to Messrs. Marxen & Rockar, of Avoca Iowa. The price being $7,285. There were four bids in, three from Denison and one from Avoca. The Denison men were Messrs. John Fastje, L. A. Sawall and Frank Fee. The following figures show how the bids stood:

- John Fastje $8,700
- L. A. Sawall $8,610
- Frank Fee $8,400
- Marxen & Rockar 7,285.

Mr. B. Brodersen acted as judge for Mr. Nielson. In making their bid Mr. Marxen and Mr. Rockar undoubtedly took into consideration the fact that they had the contract for the court house, and would maintain a large force of men, and figured closely on the work. The Denison men claim they figured the job down as low as they thought it possible and are satisfied with the outcome.

COLLEGE NOTES.

Rev. Dr. Miller gave the students the Wednesday morning address. He gave them a psychological discussion of attention, intention and determination.

Mr. Albert Healy, an old and true friend of the college, visited us on Friday morning. He gave the students a very encouraging address based upon some personal observations that he had made.

Mr. Sprague of Afton entered the department of short hand on Monday. Supt. Thornberg and his teachers of Charter Oak visited the college on Friday. Other visitors were Prof. Olry of Schleswig, Miss Florence Nixon of Deloit and Mr. Hoffman of Ricketts.

Supt. Prather and wife and Mrs. Robinson of Dow City took dinner at the dormitory. They were in attendance at the teachers' meeting.

A number of old teachers are planning to enter college and prepare for a first grade certificate.

Mrs. Wells of Creston will be a resident of our city once more. She has secured a cottage near the park and her many friends will be pleased to learn of her return.

The canning factory which the people of Manilla have been trying to scare up all spring does not seem to materialize. So far they have secured only $500.00 of the $4000.00 required by the company.

Six weeks have now passed since the ground hog was supposed to have seen his shadow. If he did see his shadow, and such being the case according to the ground hog story he returned to sleep six weeks. The time limit expired Tuesday of last week. It now remains to be seen whether or not there will be a change in the weather.

Easter Shoes

Don't come out Easter with that new gown and bonnet and a shabby pair of shoes, if you do it will detract much from the "Gown and Bonnet."
 We have the nicest line of swell dress shoes in patent leather and fine vicid kid shoes ever shown and would like you to come in and be fitted with a pair for Easter. Remember we have all sizes and widths so that your foot can be properly fitted.

Kelly's Shoe Store

Penelope had a very pleasant meeting with Mrs. Morgan. The hostess served very nice refreshments and also furnished great fun by providing sewing for half an hour for the club members. The next meeting will be held with Mrs. F. W. Meyers.

The committee to consider club room furnishings for the library met Saturday afternoon. No action was taken but a number of subcommittees were appointed. The ladies will meet next Saturday afternoon at four o'clock at the home of Mrs. J. B. Romans.

St. Patrick's day was celebrated with much eclat by the Coteries club at the home of Mrs. Gebert. A gay hunt for shamrocks was the game provided. Mrs. Ferguson won the prize, a plant in bloom. The refreshments were in green and white and during the serving Irish stories were told. A barnay stone was suspended by a green ribbon and kissed by all present. The favors were shamrocks and green bows. Mrs. Gebert is to be congratulated on her clever use of the day for her guests amusement.
