

FERGUSON'S STUDIO

A GOOD PLACE TO GET YOUR PHOTOS MADE

Laub Block, Denison, Ia.

Miss King spent part of her vacation in Omaha.

Chas. Baird of Dunlap visited here Thursday.

E. Gulick made a flying trip to Arion last Thursday.

Mrs. Chas Saul visited at Sac City the past week.

George Zea of Ells was shopping in Denison Friday.

J. H. Riddle of Dow City was in Denison Friday.

Mr. G. A. Norelius, of Kiron, was in Denison on Monday.

Marion Cole was a Denisonite on Friday of last week.

Emil Boock of Schleswig was seen on our streets Saturday.

Mrs. W. G. Morris visited in Woodbine a couple of days last week.

Miss Mabel Bowen of Carroll was an over Sunday visitor in Denison.

Dr. Toon, of Dow City, was called to Denison as a witness last week.

Mrs. Sears McHenry and children spent part of the week in Logar.

The P. E. O. met with Miss Austin and had a very pleasant meeting.

R. J. Dieter and daughter of Jackson township were in town Saturday.

Mrs. Strong, of Goodrich township, was shopping in our city Saturday.

S. E. Wright of Dunlap transacted business in Denison last Thursday.

Albert Healy, who is teaching near Dow City, spent Sunday in Denison.

Mr. Tom O'Connor, of East Boyer is suffering an attack of lung fever.

Mrs. Albright of Lake City, has been visiting her father Mr. E. Fink, this week.

Mr. Arthur Girard and sister, Miss Lulu of Schleswig visited in Denison Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John McClellan of Carroll spent Thursday with Lou McClellan.

Mrs. Young and Phelan spent Friday in Dunlap the guests of Mrs. Grace Jensen.

Mrs. N. E. Wescott has been visiting friends and relatives down in Indiana the past two weeks.

Mrs. Claude Morgan, of Charter Oak, has been visiting her mother Mrs. Wells, the past week.

Mr. Conroy, of north Denison, is among those who have recently placed in a new Iowa phone.

Miss Barber entertained Class No. 5, of the Baptist Sunday school at her home on Friday evening.

Mr. Joe Kelly was down from Carroll over Sunday. He reports business as good with him at Carroll.

Mrs. D. O. Johnson and children arrived in Denison to-day to spend a week with Mrs. Mahoney.

The excavation for Mr. Nielson's hotel is being rapidly pushed and the ground will soon be ready for the foundation.

Miss Bridget Houlihan, of Kansas City, is visiting her sisters Mrs. M. O'Connor, and Miss Anna Houlihan, of East Boyer.

Mrs. John Weber went to a Cedar Rapids hospital Thursday for treatment. Her friends hope that she may soon return improved in health.

J. H. Griffy of Wall Lake was in Denison Friday.

Sid Green of Dow City was courting in Denison Friday.

Mrs. W. R. Temple's mother has gone to Wisconsin.

Mr. P. D. Neu spent Easter Sunday at his home in Arcadia.

George Hester of Washington township was in Denison Friday.

Ralph Cassaday is home from the university at Lincoln, Nebr.

Miss Florence Hall of near Buck Grove visited in Denison Sunday.

Mrs. Harvey Houchin is expecting a sister from Nebraska in the near future.

Mr. Frank Birkboffer, of Paradise, was a business caller in our city Saturday.

St. Agnes Guild meets at the home of Miss Allie Morris Thursday afternoon.

E. M. Parker went to Dow City on Monday to commence work on a county bridge.

Mr. and Mrs. P. D. McMahon, of Charter Oak, were Denison visitors on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Schelm, of Hancock township, were Denison traders Monday.

Mrs. Wicks, of Deloit, suffered a stroke of paralysis last week but is now improving.

J. A. Gould improved his shop on Main street last week by the addition of a new forge.

J. B. Johnson, the real estate man, is spending this week down south with a bunch of land buyers.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Harrison were called to Harlan last week by the death of Mrs. Harrison's sister-in-law.

O. B. Southwell went to Jefferson on Monday to look after the interests of the Fairmount Creamery Co.

Mrs. Geo. Vincent visited a few days last week in Denison with her husband who conducts the Broadway Grocery.

Willie Laub, who is taking a course in mechanical engineering at Ames, spent the Easter vacation at his home.

Mrs. L. Ley and Mrs. Chris Kemming were called to Fullerton, Nebr., last Friday by the death of a brother.

The social whist club will meet with Miss Anna Shumaker at the home of Mrs. N. J. Wheeler on Thursday of this week.

Miss Cora Snell of Schayler, Iowa, who was at one time a teacher in the Denison schools, visited friends in this city last week.

Horace Gregory was home from the state university to spend Easter Sunday with his mother. He says the Denison boys there are doing nicely.

Bishop Morrison, of the Episcopal church will be in Denison on April 13, and will hold services at the Episcopal church. From here he will go to Vail.

R. B. Morrow is improving his property across the street from the central school building by the addition of a porch in front and by filling in behind the house.

Chas. Hannah came over from Charter Oak and spent Sunday with his family. He reports business good and will move his family there in two or three weeks.

Dr. L. L. Bond made a trip to Omat a Monday.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Noah Lingie on April 4, a girl.

The Friday Club meets with Mrs. U. G. Johnson, this week.

Mrs. P. W. Harding visited at Dow City over Saturday last.

Carrie Morris went to teach a school near Buck Grove, Monday.

Mrs. Grace Scott, of Dow City, visited on Monday last with her daughter, Mrs. Hoover.

Bertha Kelly returned Sunday evening from a week's visit at Irwin, with her sister, Mrs. C. W. Nellis.

Mr. A. I. Mains drove over from the Oak Monday morning on business matters. He was accompanied by Mr. Gus Adams.

Miss Alsop, of the kindergarten department returned Sunday night from Des Moines, where she had been spending the spring vacation.

Mr. Chas. Lyons is now employed by the Capital Creamery Co., at Des Moines and is making a success of the business. He is a traveling representative.

Mr. Ansel Wheeler is at home this week, making his parents a visit. He is still connected with the Iowa Telephone Co., and likes his position very much.

George Newcome of Deloit was in Denison Saturday. George is attending the Iowa State college at Ames this year and is home for the Easter vacation.

Mr. and W. T. Perkins have returned to Seattle, Wash., after an all too short visit. Mr. and Mrs. Perkins expect to spend the summer in Cape Nome.

Chester Dixon, who is sick in Des Moines, was reported not so well last week. His friends are anxious that he may soon recover sufficiently to be brought home again.

Mr. C. L. Voss contemplates getting into his new home within the next two or three weeks. Mr. Voss has one of the finest residences in the city, and he and his estimable wife are just the people to enjoy it.

Miss Mabel Smith entertained the senior class of the high school Thursday evening at her home. Merrill Holmes, of Red Oak, an old member of the class was present and an enjoyable time was had by all.

Monday last was pension day at the County Clerk's office, and there were seventy-five old soldiers reported with their papers to have them properly signed to insure getting their money from the government.

There seems to be a warm contest over at Manila, over the merits of the two cream separators, the Sharpless and the DeLaval. The Manila Republican devotes almost two columns to the contest. Both separators claim the victory.

Mr. T. C. McCarthy has fitted up his building formerly occupied by the Lane & Leahy bowling alleys as a pool room. He has placed a couple of fine pool and billiard tables, a fine bar, mirrors, etc. and has rented the room and fixtures to a Mr. Schonweber, of Carroll.

Last Friday evening at the home of their teacher, Miss Barber, class No. 5 of the Baptist Sunday school enjoyed an April fool party. Each one of the boys invited a lady of Baptist complexion, and the evening was spent pleasantly, many April fool pranks being interspersed.

J. W. Shirx has been promoted from his position as baggage man at the Illinois Central depot to a place on the company's bridge gang. The promotion is accompanied by a large increase in salary and in view of the efficient services of Mr. Shirx in his old position it is well deserved. You can't keep a good man down even if his name is Shirx.

Denison Clothing Co.

Men's Spring Clothing

If you want a suit that is out of the ordinary—one that looks as good as if a good tailor made it to your special order—a suit that fits you as it should fit—make your selection from the new spring stock which awaits you at

Kemming's Store

It is an assortment of clothing that will meet every man's wishes quickly and completely. No matter what you pay for the suit you buy here, the service it will render you will be most satisfactory. Suits ranging in price from $5 to $25.

Smart Clothes for Boys

Our new spring stock for the boys is, ready—larger—better and more varied than any we have ever had the pleasure of inviting you to make selections from.

Our line of Trunks and Bags are the finest in the city. Our Neckwear and Spring Hats are tasty and snappy and of the very latest designs and patterns. Make our store your headquarters when in town. Yours for spring,
DENISON CLOTHING CO.

Two doors north of Postoffice, Denison, Iowa.

Denison Clothing Company

Mrs. W. J. McAhren gave a very lively dinner on Saturday night complimentary to Mrs. Phelan. The table was adorned with jonquilla and looked very spring like and attractive. The dinner itself was as nice as could be and the guests had a very pleasant evening.

Mr. Fritz Timm has taken charge of the Farmers' Hotel next to the old court house building. He intends to run a hotel and boarding house, and is remodeling and repairing the same. His brother will have charge of the business. Fritz has many friends who will undoubtedly give him a good share of their patronage.

Elders C. J. Hunt and C. E. Butterworth, started on Monday last for Kirkland Ohio, as delegates from this county to the World's conference of the Re-organized church of Latter Day Saints, which will be held at that place. Many important questions are to come before this meeting, of vital interest to the organization. The Re-organized church is entirely separate from the Utah branch, and its doctrine does not conform in any way with the Utah church.

Mr. and Mrs. Chris Faul, of Council Bluffs, accompanied by a daughter, visited with Mr. Frank Faul three days this week. Mr. Faul has been in the railroad shops at Council Bluffs for over thirty years.

Misses Rose and Helen Pester entertained a small company on Monday evening complimentary to their brother and his friend, Mr. Hathway. The evening was spent in games and conversation, after which dainty refreshments were served. A very pleasant evening was enjoyed by those present. The boys left for the Indian Territory Tuesday morning.

Modern Woodmen will be interested in a suit now pending in the United States court at Sioux City, in which the Modern Woodmen of America lodge seeks to recover $100,000 from the estate of E. H. McCutchen, a former Holstien banker. It seems that the lodge had used McCutchen's private bank as one of its depositories. At the time of his death the estate was insolvent and unable to meet its obligations, so the lodge is now trying to recover its money from the bondsmen, who number about twenty and most of whom are residents of Ida county.

The Denison Electric Light Co., has decided to close down the entire plant at 12 o'clock midnight for the next two or three weeks owing to the coal strike among the Iowa miners. This step is necessary as the company only has about 200 tons of coal on hand. It is thought by closing down at 12 o'clock the supply will last until the strike is settled. Therefore don't kick for lights.

On Saturday afternoon Mrs. Eugene Gulick gave a very delightful party complimentary to Mesdames Perkins and Phelan. Each guest was provided with paper and invited to make her own Easter hat, this resulted in much amusement and a great many pretty artistic hats. The ladies all wore their hats and then each one voted upon the one they liked best. Mrs. Philbrook received the most votes Mrs. U. G. Johnson being a close second. Mrs. Philbrook's prize was a dainty booklet. Miss Pester assisted Mrs. Gulick and Voss in serving a most delicious supper of two courses, including all the dainties of the season. Mrs. Gulick is such a charming hostess that her guests always have the pleasantest of times at her home.

Modern Woodmen will be interested in a suit now pending in the United States court at Sioux City, in which the Modern Woodmen of America lodge seeks to recover $100,000 from the estate of E. H. McCutchen, a former Holstien banker. It seems that the lodge had used McCutchen's private bank as one of its depositories. At the time of his death the estate was insolvent and unable to meet its obligations, so the lodge is now trying to recover its money from the bondsmen, who number about twenty and most of whom are residents of Ida county.

Modern Woodmen will be interested in a suit now pending in the United States court at Sioux City, in which the Modern Woodmen of America lodge seeks to recover $100,000 from the estate of E. H. McCutchen, a former Holstien banker. It seems that the lodge had used McCutchen's private bank as one of its depositories. At the time of his death the estate was insolvent and unable to meet its obligations, so the lodge is now trying to recover its money from the bondsmen, who number about twenty and most of whom are residents of Ida county.

Modern Woodmen will be interested in a suit now pending in the United States court at Sioux City, in which the Modern Woodmen of America lodge seeks to recover $100,000 from the estate of E. H. McCutchen, a former Holstien banker. It seems that the lodge had used McCutchen's private bank as one of its depositories. At the time of his death the estate was insolvent and unable to meet its obligations, so the lodge is now trying to recover its money from the bondsmen, who number about twenty and most of whom are residents of Ida county.

Modern Woodmen will be interested in a suit now pending in the United States court at Sioux City, in which the Modern Woodmen of America lodge seeks to recover $100,000 from the estate of E. H. McCutchen, a former Holstien banker. It seems that the lodge had used McCutchen's private bank as one of its depositories. At the time of his death the estate was insolvent and unable to meet its obligations, so the lodge is now trying to recover its money from the bondsmen, who number about twenty and most of whom are residents of Ida county.

Modern Woodmen will be interested in a suit now pending in the United States court at Sioux City, in which the Modern Woodmen of America lodge seeks to recover $100,000 from the estate of E. H. McCutchen, a former Holstien banker. It seems that the lodge had used McCutchen's private bank as one of its depositories. At the time of his death the estate was insolvent and unable to meet its obligations, so the lodge is now trying to recover its money from the bondsmen, who number about twenty and most of whom are residents of Ida county.

USE
SLEEPY-EYE CREAM FLOUR
TO OBTAIN SATIS-
FACTORY RESULTS.

SHOE
MEN'S WORK SHOES.
Most every conceivable style shown. Shoes like cut and in Balls and don Pedro at the extraordinary low price of $1.50 per pair. The best work shoe for the money manufactured.

THE BALLE-BRODERSEN CO.

DEPARTMENT STORE.

Values

We wish to emphasize the word VALUE this announcement. The principle upon which quality and the greatest quantity for the lowest price has been our method of winning the confidence of holding that confidence.

Walking Skirts at $4.00.

In Oxfords, blues and blacks—in new and popular materials. Bargain at $4.00.

Handsome line upwards to $10.00 Each.

Very Special are Our Spring Ladies' Suits at $12.00.

Eton Effects, girle belt, large shoulder cape, trimmed with tafetta silk and gold buttons. Comes in blues, browns and blacks. Materials are Cheviots and Venetians. Special price $12.

and define its true meaning as it is employed in this business is built in value giving. The best price consistent with modern merchandising. The confidence of the public and such will always be our

New Voile Dress Skirts.

In many shapes and styles, trimmed with tafetta strappings in many of the newest and most popular designs, extraordinary values at $12.75, $10.00, and $8.50.

The Balle-Brodersen Co.
DEPARTMENT STORE

Denison, Iowa.

FLOUR AND GARDEN SEEDS

OUR STORE IS HEADQUARTERS
SEEDS ARE STRICTLY RELIABLE
And Best Producers.

Wool Voile Dress Goods.

The exceedingly popular fabric made this season. A special effort has been made to offer the trade attractive selections—certainly economical at these prices:

$1.75, 1.25, 1.00 and 55c.
Per Yard.

Caps and Tam-o-Shanters

For Children and Misses—exceedingly practicable these windy days.

30 Different Styles—Every Color.

Ladies' Silk Jackets.

Colors black and champagne. Absolutely new arrivals and certainly economically priced as you will say when you see them.

Ladies' Shirt Waists.

Great values altogether they're the smartest concepts that have reached us, or anybody else, this year. Same are here in large quantities and variety of styles, and should command your attention. Sizes for all.