Signs of spring. Jake Gable has donned a straw hat.
Dr. Coon and wife of Arion were Denison visitors Monday afternoon.

Otto Paul and Jay Wiggins were Charter Oak visitors on Sunday last.

Mrs. J. F. Pfarz went to Jamestown, N. Y. this week on an extended visit.

St. Agnes Guild will meet at Miss Ella Harding's Thursday afternoon.

The Jolly whist club will meet with Mrs. Mahoney next Friday evening.

Rev. G. E. Morphy went to Logan this week to hold a series of meetings.

Hon. J. P. Conner is to deliver the memorial address this year at Manning.

Jurgen Schneider, a prominent merchant of Schleswig, was in town Monday.

Mr. E. J. Way and Miss Loomis drove over from Charter Oak on Saturday.

Mrs. Jobe is enjoying a visit with her brother Mr. Clark Marshall at Charter Oak.

Mr. Marks and daughter of Buck Grave were calling on relatives in this city.

Mr. C. Schafer was transferred from Rawlins, Wyoming, to Salt Lake City, Utah.

Mrs. Arthur King, of Grundy Center is visiting at the M. King home this week.

A club dance will be given Friday evening, Hallowell's orchestra furnishing the music.

A number of Denison Schirmers anticipate going to Sioux City this week to attend a Shrine meet.

Friday club was most enjoyable entertained last Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Dr. Boyle.

"Pinafore" practiced nearly every night last week preparing for their appearance at Schleswig on Saturday evening.

The Methodist pulpit was occupied by Rev. Jos Stevens of Manilla in the morning and Rev. A. A. Thompson of Dunlap in the evening.

The ladies of the Methodist church are to meet Thursday and Friday of this week to cut and fit the new carpet for the church building.

Mr. Chester Dixon is now home and slowly improving in health. He has been confined ten weeks in the hospital and his friends are pleased to see him so well.

E. C. Baker was over from Manilla on Monday on business. E. C. is owner of the big steer that was exhibited at the street fair last year. He says the criter is as big as ever.

There will be no preaching services at the Methodist church next Sunday, as the main room will be in process of renovation. The other services of the day will be held, however, including Sunday school.

Menagh & Co. have installed a plumbing department in connection to their hardware store, and have secured the services of a Mr. Chas. Denison, an expert plumber from Omaha. See their ad in another column.

Dr. William Plimpton and wife, of Gleewood, visited with Dr. Robert Plimpton in Denison over Sunday last.

There is an ordinance against making a horse show ring of our prominent streets, and the city authorities should see to it that the ordinance is enforced.

Mr. O. H. Olson, Mr. Conner's secretary, has returned from Washington.
REVIEW readers have greatly enjoyed his Washington letters during the past winter.

Rev. C. L. Organ, of Lake City, has the record for holding funerals. He has been in Lake City eight months and has preached a funeral sermon every week during that time.

John Enright was taken before Judge Hubbard on Friday last, and the Judge gave him some very good advice on the manner of conducting himself in the future. He is charged with being an habitual drunkard.

Mr. Ben Smith contemplates the erection of a large barn on his farm just north of town, in the near future.
Mr. Smith is a successful farmer and believer in having plenty of shelter for everything on the farm.

J. L. Warbasse attended a convention of Iowa Music Dealers in Des Moines on May 4 and 5. He says there was a good attendance and much good was accomplished toward weeding "fake" dealers in musical instruments.

Ringer's moving picture show at the opera house Saturday evening was attended by a fair sized crowd in spite of the rain. After the show there was a fine dance, which was a very pleasant affair and well enjoyed by those who participated.

The Omaha Ticket Company and Re-VIEW forces went down to Bradbury's Monday afternoon and ate ice cream "on the house". It was the third annual event of this nature and one much enjoyed by both the employes and the employers.

The annual business meeting of the Epworth League was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. U. G. Johnson Monday evening. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: pres., Edith Gillmor; 1st vice-pres., Mrs. C.
L. Voss; 2nd vice-pres., Miss Culmer; 3rd vice-pres., E. C. Chamberlin; 4th vice-pres., Mrs. P. W. Harding; sec'y, Mearle Smith; treas., John Brown.

The business meeting was followed by a social time in which light refreshments were served. Forty or fifty of the League members were present and a very enjoyable evening was spent.

The Ladies Aid Society of the Methodist church served a splendid supper at the home of Mrs. E. Gulick last Friday evening. The ladies of the Methodist church are noted for their accomplishments in the culinary art, and on Friday evening from five the home of Mrs. Gulick was the Mecca of a host of hungering souls numbering about one hundred, who, for the sum of twenty cents, ate their fill of potato salad, Bermuda sandwiches, coffee, pickles and cake. The supper was a most enjoyable one and afforded a splendid occasion for a good social time. The ladies cleared about twenty-five dollars. They anticipate giving more of these suppers from time to time in the near future and they will be sure to be well patronized if they do.

Push that Fourth of July celebration.
How about a sale pavillion for Denison? Isn't one necessary?

See the "Hub" advertisement in another column of this issue.

Mr. A. C. Lyons spent Sunday at home with his family in Denison.

Editor Sturgis, of Charter Oak, was a Denison caller on Monday last.

Mrs. Mary Ainsworth, of near Deloit, was shopping in Denison Saturday.

Geo. H. Vincent, of the Broadway Grocery, spent Sunday in Woodbine.

The infant babe of Mr. and Mrs. M.
Magnor, of East Boyer, is seriously ill.

John Cook has a force of painters at work on his residence in east Denison.

Judge Hubbard found a full cupboard and is now passing 11th District pie.

Attorney P. W. Harding was a Charter Oak visitor Saturday, on legal business.

Our readers cannot fail to read the many new ads in this issue of the Re-VIEW.

Charley Cowser, of the Denison Drug Co., spent Monday in Omaha on a business mission.

Mrs. G. W. Lee and children, of Sac City, are visiting Mrs. Lee's parents in Denison this week.

Leon Gilbreath went to Omaha Sunday where he will work for the Omaha Creamery company.

Have you taken advantage of our liberal offer and secured one of our fine maps of Crawford county?

Mrs. John Kott returned from a two weeks' visit with her parents at Ft.
Dodge, the latter part of the week.

It seems to be the opinion of most business men of Denison that our city should celebrate the Fourth this year.

Dr. Evans, of Arion, was in town on Thursday attending to duties in connection with the county board of pension examiners.

On page three of this issue appears a cut of the winners of the state reclamatory contest. It is taken from a photo by Ferguson.

B. Y. Culbertson, a prominent grain dealer of Carroll, committed suicide Monday morning by shooting himself with a revolver.

Mrs. L. M. Patterson, of Carroll, returned home Monday after a few weeks' visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs.
W. R. Temple.

It is rumored that Uncle George Perkins' sorrow over the defeat of Thomas is tempered by his joy over the nomination of Hubbard.

A representative of some wild west show was in Denison last week trying to make a date but was unsuccessful in securing grounds.

Mrs. S. Horr, accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Pence, who is visiting her from Des Moines, were REVIEW callers on Wednesday last.

A number of friends enjoyed a reception last Tuesday evening given by Mrs. C. F. Kuehnle at her home in honor of Mrs. Campbell.

Mrs. Ben King, who went to California some time ago for her health, has returned much benefited. She has been visiting at the J. L. Warbasse home.

Hon. J. P. Conner and Mrs. Conner have returned from Washington. Mrs.
Conner's health is much improved, a fact all her Denison friends will be glad to know.

The fifteenth anniversary of the organization of the Epworth League will be observed next Sunday evening at Methodist church by the local chapter.
A program of a very interesting nature is being prepared and all are urged to come.

I am closing out the corn planters

Belated Marriage Notice.

Below is an item which was intended should appear in our last issue, but which was unfortunately overlooked:

The marriage ceremony of Miss Marcia Rose and Mr. Chas. Weigert occured at the home of the brides parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Rose, Friday forenoon, Rev. J. H. Sharpe of the Presbyterian church officiating. Only the near friends and relatives were present to witness the wedding. The house was nicely decorated for the occasion and after the ceremony an elegant luncheon was served. The bride and groom are both highly respected young people in this community, the latter being in charge of the Standard Oil Co's. wholesale business in this city while the former is well known and popular among Denison young people.

Mrs. D. L. Boynton and Mrs. B. F.
Philbrook are attending the Grand meeting of the P. E. O. at Atlantic City are delegates from the Denison Chapter.

In about six weeks it will be time for our good ladies to begin planning for the extermination of the dandelion pest.
In the meantime the dandelions will be up and doing.

Our democratic friends never seem to be happy unless they are being carried away by some craze. This year it is the Yellow Kid who is their idol Whom the gods would destroy they first make mad.

It has seemed to the editor of the Herald that an instructed delegation from Iowa to the national convention is simply a farce and a joke. Iowa democrats cannot deliver an electoral vote and it is mugwumpian politics for them to send an instructed delegation.
However, the thing is done, and it remains for Iowa to smile pleasantly and take the banding which will be hers in generous measures.—Dinlap Herald.

We are in receipt of a pamphlet announcing the dates of the Iowa State fair which will be held at Des Moines Aug 19 to 26. Secretary J. C. Simpson says "if present indications can be relied upon the exhibits in all departments will be finer than ever". Soldiers' Day will be Tuesday, Aug 28. A prize of $50 in cash will be given for the best ear of corn. A scene depicting the Mt. Pelee horror will be given, and hundreds of other attractions will be presented.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Woolston will hereafter make their home in Des Moines. Raub McKim recently traded for a fine residence near Highland Park college in that city and Mr. and Mrs. Woolston have gone there to live with them, and will in all probability make their permanent home there.
Their departure is a surprise to their many friends as only a few knew of it until after they had gone. They expect to spend a portion of the summer at the World's Fair at St. Louis.

Tuesday last week at one o'clock an elegant May day luncheon was served by Mrs. Geo. Sprecher to a dozen of her lady friends. The afternoon was a pleasant one and everything was in keeping with the celebration of the advent of the month of May, the table being artistically decorated for the occasion. On a mat in the center of the table was erected a Maypole bound with yellow and white ribbon and wreathed with smilax and carnations. From the Maypole to each plate gay streamers were swung, at the end of which were pretty little May baskets each containing a yellow rose and a white carnation. The dinner was served in six courses and at the end of the first course the ladies each discovered an envelope containing a short story to be read. Those who enjoyed Mrs. Sprecher's hospitality were:
Mesdames Boynton, G. J. Kemmling, J. P.
Jones, W. J. Mahren, Philbrook, T. J. Kelly, Kuehnle, Patterson, Meyers, Ferguson, and Kemp.

Messrs. J. E. Balle and Chas. Bollen, of the Balle-Brodersen Co., are visiting several of the larger cities this week viewing large department houses, and picking up new ideas.

A letter from Mrs. Oscar Ainsworth, who is visiting at Gladstone, Minn., states that the water in that section of the dominion is up to the wagon boxes owing to the melting snow. The farmers cannot get on to their land and all railroad traffic is suspended between that place and Winnepeg.

"Pinafore" was presented to a fairly good crowd at Schleswig on Saturday evening. Owing to the fact that a rain storm came up early in the evening the crowd was not as large as had been anticipated. The company had a guarantee, however, and is not behind in the venture. Very good satisfaction was given, many of the Schleswig people taking occasion to compliment the entertainment. A special feature of the evening's entertainment was stereop-tion views put on by Prof. W. C. Van Ness. Among the different scenes was a good picture of Schleswig's popular mayor. Mr. J. F. Harthun also gave a good talk in German in regard to the good work being done by Denison Normal college.

Preparations are under way for an all county high school field meet to be held in this city on the afternoon of the 21st of May. All the high schools of the county have expressed their willingness to enter such a meet and the outlook now is that there will be an interscholastic athletic event in this city which will exceed in interest anything of that nature which has ever been attempted here. It is hoped that this will be the first of an annual meeting of this character, and to this end it should have the hearty support of all those who have the interests of our public schools at heart. There is nothing which keeps the interest of the boys centered upon their school work so much as good clean athletics, and a good foot ball team, base ball nine, or track team which can go out and hold its own with other high schools of the state is the best kind of advertising for a town. The other high schools of the county can rest assured that they will receive the most courteous treatment from the students and teachers of the Denison high school and should avail themselves of the opportunity to enter the contests.
