A company of sixteen from the Salvation Army at Omaha will be in Kiron on June 23, and will conduct church in the evening. Twelve of this company belong to their brass band and four to the string band that will furnish the music for the Mission Sunday School excursion on Midsummer day June 24, at Lake View.

The people of this community to a large number have, in the past, been bunched and fleeced and skinned by sharpers and skimmers from other parts. A person should judge that with the unprofitable experience of years on this line they would avoid entirely all games of chances and offers of getting much for nothing by strangers. But it seems the bigger the fakes and the more uncertain the results, the quicker people will bite.

Peter Miller, our restaurant man, has purchased a lot east of the G. A. Norelius store property and has the lumber purchased for the erection of a large restaurant. His business has increased so that he is forced to have larger quarters. He is a first-class business man and is determined to make it win.

Married—At the German Lutheran church on Wednesday afternoon, Mr. William Schultz and Miss Anna Newman, Rev. A. Discher, officiating. The attendants of the bride were Minnie and Anna Newman, Lena Dobbert and Minnie Schurke. In the evening a reception was held at the bride's home to which a large number of relatives and friends attended to celebrate the event. The bride is the daughter of Mr. Carl Newman, residing three and one-half miles east of Kiron, and has a large circle of friends who wish her the best of joy together with her choice. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Schultz, north of Kiron, and is an industrious young man with a future before him which he no doubt will make the best of use together with his wife. A new residence is being erected for them one mile west of Kiron, where the young couple will reside.

Rev. C. E. Nylan of Chicago, who has spent several weeks in Kiron selling stock in a gold mine concern in Canada, left on Thursday for Forest City, Iowa.
