

We Sell These.
You want the best. Are you ready for it this season?
We are prepared as never before to meet your wants in vehicles. There's nothing superior to what we are showing, in taste, style and service. Absolute honesty in make and material. You will agree when we tell you

IT'S THE FAMOUS Studebaker Line WE CARRY.
No matter what you want—if it's something that runs on wheels, we've got it or will quickly get it.
Come in and figure with us. Everybody knows the place.

J. H. TAMM,
Denison, Iowa.
P. S. The Studebaker nameplate on a vehicle is its guarantee. Don't forget this.

WE ALSO HAVE A COMPLETE LINE OF KEYS BROS. AND COLUMBUS BUGGIES. NO OLD OR SHOP-WORN GOODS. ALL NEW AND FRESH IN EVERY LINE.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

W. C. Rollins was an Omaha visitor on Monday.
The Board of Supervisors adjourned on Saturday last.
Mrs. Gebert and family spent Sunday visiting in Woodbine.
Penelope met yesterday afternoon with Mrs. J. B. Dunbar.
Mrs. Frank Faul is visiting friends at Charter Oak this week.
Genial Mott McHenry of Dow City was a Denison visitor on Monday.
Hugh McGuire, of the Denison Drug Co., was a business visitor at Omaha on Monday.
Miss Gertrude Wright of Waterloo, visited a part of last week at the W. P. Hoover home.
Hon. J. P. Conner went to Chicago Saturday evening to attend the Republican convention.
Miss Meyers expects a visit this week from her cousin, Mrs. John Barnett, of Independence.
Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Branaka of Schleswig, were Denison visitors on Saturday and Sunday last.
A call meeting of the W. C. T. U. was held at the home of Mrs. S. L. Gable Monday evening.
Mr. and Mrs. N. L. Hunt entertained Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Nicholson at six o'clock on Saturday evening.
Father Murphy, of Vail, and Father M. J. Farrelly went to LeMars Monday to attend an annual retreat.
S. E. Rudd and wife of Dow City visited with Mrs. Rudd's parents Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McBride, on Sunday last.
F. W. Meyers is attending the National Republican convention at Chicago. He received the appointment as one of the door-keepers.
Green McAhren has started the street sprinkler again and it is to be hoped that all will see the necessity of keeping the wagon going.

FLY NETS
We can save you from 50c to $2.00 on a pair of fly nets. Come in and select your nets from the most complete assortment in Crawford county. Quality guaranteed.
C. SIEVERS & SONS.

Mr. A. S. Levitt returned to her home in Sioux City Saturday afternoon.
Miss Edith McCormick, of Omaha, is visiting this week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. N. L. Hunt.
Grace Temple Lockard went home last Thursday after an extended visit with parents and friends.
Mrs. James B. Beard, of Ft. Worth, Texas, is spending a few days at the home of Mrs. Rachel Goodrich.
Miss Mattie Miles will return from Chicago this week and after a short stay in Denison will return to Beunos Ayres.
Robert Orem and his force of cement workers went to Audubon yesterday morning where they have considerable work in view for this summer.
Alvin Winquist of Kiron visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jacobsen in Denison one day last week. Edith and Russel Jacobsen returned home with him.
Miss Gertrude Bradbury has closed a successful term of school near Schleswig and will spend a month at New Sharon, Iowa, visiting relatives and friends.
Rev. Dr. T. S. Bailey of Cedar Rapids will preach next Sabbath morning and evening in the Presbyterian church.
The corn crop is beginning to assume proportions. A ride through the country convinces one that unless the unforeseen happens there will be an exceptionally good crop.
Misses Francis and Anne Hooley left for Iowa City Saturday morning to attend the graduating exercises at St. Agatha's Seminary, after which they will go to their home at Nichols, Iowa.
Miss Cook, of Boston, was expected in Denison yesterday for a visit with Mrs. Kuehnle. Miss Cook was formerly preceptress at Cornell college and is now engaged in social settlement work in Boston.
Dr. Gibson visited with his family over Sunday. He spent Friday night with Rev. E. M. Holmes of Red Oak, who is about to dedicate a fine new church which has just been erected by the congregation.
B. J. Swatt, division engineer of the Northwestern railway, and Capt. W. D. Connor of West Point visited over Saturday and Sunday with Frank Woolston, their old college chum at the State University.
Jesse Girard has just completed a fine row and sail boat and intends taking it to the lake this week. It is sixteen feet long and four feet wide and will accommodate four people nicely. The boat is fitted for either sail or oars.
During the thunder storm Saturday noon the steeple of the German Lutheran church was struck by lightning and partially demolished. The whole north side if not the entire steeple will have to be replaced. There was no insurance.
Monday forenoon a large automobile passed through Denison carrying an Omaha man and his wife and son. They were on their way to Chicago. The machine was one of the best ever seen in Denison, weighing 2,600 pounds and costing $3,500.
A number from Denison went to Vail Sunday to witness the ball game between Vail and Creighton college of Omaha. The game was the best one of the season and Vail defeated the Omaha boys by a score of four to two. The Vail team will play at Manning on the fourth.
Friends of Herman Rusch have received the news of a serious accident which happened him last Wednesday at Templeton. He was trying to board a moving freight train and was thrown to the ground, badly injuring his shoulder and knee. He will be confined five or six weeks as a result.

CONVENTION ASSEMBLES.

Great Ovation is Given Leaders as They Enter the Hall. Picture of Roosevelt Unveiled Amid Great Applause.
CONVENTION HALL, CHICAGO ILL. JUNE 21. (Special to the Denison Review.)
11:45—William Hudson of the third Illinois district fell and broke his leg below the knee. He has been removed to St. Luke's hospital under the care of the Red Cross society.
11:45 a. m.—The New York and Illinois delegations are just taking their places. The convention hall is rapidly filling with delegates. Uncle Joe Cannon has just entered and is given a tremendous ovation.
11:50 a. m.—H. N. Root and Chas. Payne have just ascended the platform.
12:00 m.—Senator Fairbanks has just entered the hall at the head of the Indiana delegation. Every one is given a warm reception. The crowd in the convention hall is quiet and orderly at this hour.
12:14 p. m.—The convention is called to order by Chairman Payne of the national committee. He introduces Rev. Timothy Frost who offers the opening prayer of the convention.
12:20 p. m.—After the prayer the picture of Theodore Roosevelt was unveiled on the platform and placed on a easel.
12:25 p. m.—Senator Scott of West Virginia is now making an address in which he turns the gavel over to Payne.
12:31 p. m.—Chairman Payne introduces Gov. Faustant of Minnesota, who presents to the convention the table used by the national conventions that nominated President Harrison and President McKinley in 1892, 1896, and 1900.
12:33 p. m.—Elihu Root of New York, is placed in nomination for temporary chairman by Governor O'dell of New York. A large painting of Theodore Roosevelt is unveiled on the platform and is received with great enthusiasm.
12:35 p. m.—Temporary Chairman Root is presented to the convention and begins his address.

1 p. m.—Root's speech is received with great interest and every mention of Roosevelt's name is received with tremendous applause.
2:12 p. m.—The convention adjourned till 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.
The Epworth League meeting Sunday evening was devoted to the reports by the delegates to the district convention held at Missouri Valley last week. The reports covered the convention thoroughly and were very interesting. U. G. Johnson was elected president of the district organization for the ensuing year. Next year the convention will be held in Shenandoah.
Miss Ethel Gulick of Cornell college received a large number of people at the Gulick residence Saturday evening complimentary to her friend Miss Tucker. Miss Helen Burch received at the door and frappe was served in the upper hall by Misses Mary Burch and Grace Bamford. It was a pleasure to see Ethel again and her charming friend Miss Tucker and the evening quickly passed in conversation. Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served in the dining room by Mrs. Voss.
—Buy a Hammock and enjoy the summer. The best for the money at JOHNSON'S.
Next Saturday will be the last of our bargain day sale. Call in and take advantage of the last one.
THE CITY BAKERY.
—Decorating Material for the 4th at U. G. JOHNSON'S.
Next Saturday will be the last of our bargain day sales. Call in and take advantage of the last one.
THE CITY BAKERY.

Farmers Attention!

Before you place an order for a Binder or a Mower call on me and see the "NEW CENTURY BINDER" made and warranted by the Walter A. Wood Harvesting Machine Co. These machines are not in any trust or combine. Prices are right and the machines are right and guaranteed to be equal to any on the market. See me before you buy.

E. J. Cochran,
Agent.

The horrible disaster of the steamer "General Slocumb" at New York, in burning to the water's edge, and causing the death of 1000 women and children is almost beyond description, and is only equalled by the Chicago theatre fire. The work of recovering the bodies is being diligently carried on, and on Sunday last sixty-one bodies were recovered.
Prof. H. H. Savage and family went to Washington, Iowa, Thursday where they will spend the most of the summer. They will also visit the Exposition and attend the meeting of the National Educational Association which meets on the fair grounds this summer. Mr. Savage will return about the first of August to be present at the opening of the Carnegie library.

Deloit Will Celebrate.

A Bowery will be built in the New Addition. The Parade will form at Public Square at 9:30. Program in the forenoon. Basket Dinner. The usual routine of Sports and Ball Game in the afternoon and evening. All invited to come and have a good time.

By Order of Committee.

CELEBRATE THE 4th IN DENISON.

50c. MEN'S DRESS SHIRTS
(See Window)
Probably one of the greatest legitimate bargains ever offered in Denison, is our special offering of Men's Dress Shirts at 50c each. Every shirt offered is worth 75c to $1.00. Exceedingly fortunate for our patrons that the opportunity was accorded us to buy these shirts at half price. Patterns are new in light and dark shades. On sale on second floor.

IT PAYS TO USE Sleepy-Eye Cream Flour.

THE Balle-Brodersen Co.

Ladies', Misses' and Juvenile Suits.
Tailor made at great reductions. Note this: Suits that sold at $8.50 to $20.00 each are now going at $5.95 Each.
An Opportunity you can not afford to Miss.

Ladies' and Children's Oxfords and Strapped Sandals.
Though season is advanced our stocks are not yet broken. Considering the values always offered here in the shoe line it might be well for you to give ours a look. We can help you save yourself some money if you but give us the opportunity.

MILLINERY.
Summer Millinery is admittedly different from that prevailing during early spring. Should you desire something especially for hot summer wear make an early visit to our MILLINERY DEPARTMENT Always ready to show and every effort made to please.

You are invited to make our store your headquarters on the 4th. Make arrangements to meet your friends here.

LADIES' WRAPPERS.
Just received an immense line of the famous BENHAM garments. They are made as well as the home-made kind, are tastily and prettily fashioned—materials are prints, percales, dimities, lawns and satines—light and dark colors.
Prices $1.00, $1.25, $1.50, 1.75, & $2.75.
SHIRT WAIST SPECIAL.
One lot odds and ends of colored waists—broken lots and sizes, which are going at your choice for 50 Cents Each.

