RELIABILITY, THE STRONGHOLD OF OUR BUSINESS

The Kiron Chronicle

Otto E. Clauson and C. Hiltbrunner spent Thursday in Denison on business.

John Orgren and daughter Selma returned home Thursday after a few days spent at the home of D. W. Orgren near Wall Lake.

Mr. A. Nordholm from near Charter Oak visited at the home of Swan Nordholm last week.

Miss Alma Carlson and niece from Chicago arrived Saturday morning for a visit with relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Smith from Odebolt attended the Larson reception on Friday evening and visited the Engberg family on Saturday.

Miss Lena Johnson arrived on Thursday from Des Moines where she has been making an extensive stay.

Mrs. Fred Smith of Buck Grove visited her parental home southeast of Kiron; the latter part of last week.

Nathan Strahn and Henry Anderson were down from Shaller Sunday visiting friends and relatives.

August Lundberg of Odebolt visited relatives and many of his old friends in this locality last week.

Mrs. Claus Anderson and Miss Lottia Anderson from West Side Iowa visited at the home of Alf Clauson the first part of the week.

Clauson Bros sold a fine piano last week to Mrs. Eva Girard near Schleswig, and the week previous one to Mrs. Frank Nixon.

Born on Saturday June to a little girl to Mr. and Mrs. John Cedarstrom east of Kiron. It is their first born and the parents are most happy over the arrival of the little Miss. May the little one grow up to be a blessing to her parents.

A. C. Hane left on Saturday for Sprague Neb., to spend several weeks visiting relatives. W. M. Webb of Earley Iowa is filling his place at the depot during his absence.

Clauson Bros., Managers of the Handford Cream station at Kiron are receiving a large amount of cream. The patrons get their cream weighed and tested at this station and get paid accordingly. So far the patrons are well pleased.

Mr. J. D. Newcome of Stockholm township spent Tuesday afternoon in Kiron and as usual was as full of business as ever. Kiron always welcomes a visit from Mr. Newcome.

The Menzies brass band was at Schaller on Wednesday furnishing music at the Fireman's Tournament celebrated there.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schlotfeldt from Ida Grove were pleasant visitors at the home of their son Gust in Kiron the first of the week.

Painter J. B. Johnson has spent this week in town and the results are that the barber shop and the residences of Chas. O. Swanson and Al. Telgren have changed their appearance from dimness to a most enhancing color.

Again we urge our people to entirely avoid all offers of something for nothing. Even if it is offered by those under a pious cloak who are nothing but wolves in sheep's clothing. A lamentable fact is also of local parties assisting schemers and sharpers in "doing" the laboring class of people. A tar and feather party should be allowed full swing. Again we repeat: Avoid all schemes and games of chance as it is your money they are after not the love of seeing you prosper or in any way to see you get rich, but it is the hundred per cent commission and the extra fifteen that prompts their arduous labor with you, to rope you in.

The Salvation Army Band of 16 will be in Kiron on Thursday this week. They will hold services on the street and at the Mission church in the evening. All are invited to attend the meeting. This band will entertain the people on the excursion to Lake View on Friday of this week. They will assist at the park in making the time most pleasant. A large number of Kiron's people are going.

Among those who represented Kiron at Denison on Wednesday last were Mrs. K. L. Anderson, C. E. Johnson and wife and Otto Larsen and wife.

L. O. Daniels a former Kironite died on Monday last at Redfield S. D. The cause of his death was appendicitis. He was buried at Odebolt on Thursday afternoon. At the time of his death he was engaged in mercantile business at Redfield S. D. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Olof Ward who reside five miles northeast of Kiron and a brother to H. T. Ward editor of the Kiron Sentinel and to Herbert, Walter and Andy Ward all of this locality.

Indignation rose high one day last week over the conduct of a certain visiting female and steps were taken to have her leave town inside of a certain time. With her should have went those chaps who seemed to court her presence.

Rev. A. Modig made his family who is visiting here a short visit on Saturday last, and shook hands with numerous friends.

Friday last dawned clear and bright with all indications of being an ideal day for the Baptist union picnic gotten up by the Baptists in Kiron and Ida county. One hundred and sixty full fare tickets and seventy-five half fare tickets were sold for this excursion. A good time in general was had on the trip and lake and at the park. The day was just the kind for the picnic.

The excursion on Friday this week promises to be the largest one ever gotten up at Kiron if the weather is good. The committee has worked hard to make it a success. The music is one of the main things in an excursion party and the band from Omaha secured vouchers for a lot of it. Do not miss this opportunity. Tickets for sale at Clauson's furniture store.

G. A. Norelius and wife contemplate a trip to Deadwood, S. D. during the first part of July for recreation and pleasure.

Editor Ward of the Kiron Sentinel and Herbert Ward went to Odebolt on Thursday last to attend the funeral of their brother Mr. Daniels.

On Wednesday last the Kiron restaurant was closed and as no notice of assignment or sheriff sale was posted on the building it seemed somewhat strange. But this is what really happened. Peter Miller our single and faithful restaurant man had come to the conclusion that it is not good for man to be alone, so on that day he went to Denison, and so did Miss Christina Lindberg. After interviewing the County Clerk and from him obtaining a certain necessary paper they wended not be pleased? Ayer's Hair Vigor makes beautiful heads of hair, that's the whole story. Sold for 60 years.

"I have used Ayer's Hair Vigor for a long time. It is, indeed, a wonderful hair tonic, restoring health to the hair and scalp, and at the same time, proving a splendid dressing."

their way towards the Baptist parsonage, and in a few words they made Rev. G. E. Morphy understand their mission in calling Rev. G. E. Morphy asked them a few important questions which they most willingly answered. The minister then informed the happy two, then made one that according to the laws of Iowa he declared them man and wife. On Thursday morning the restaurant was open and doing business as usual. The only change noticed about the place was the happy contented smile on Pete's face which had never been there before. He is now receiving the congratulations of the friends and customers. This couple is well known among a large circle of acquaintances who wish them a peaceful and happy voyage down the river of time.

Married on Wednesday evening June 15 at the home of the bride in Des Moines Mr. Erick S. Larson and Miss Ruth C. Peterson in the presence of some hundred friends and relatives. Rev. E. Hall pastor of the Swedish Baptist church in that city pronounced them man and wife. A very pleasant evening was spent and some excellent singing assisted in making the evening a most enjoyable one. The bridesmaids were Naoma Petersen and Daly Bergman and the best men Ed. Bergman and Dan Strumberg.

On Thursday morning the happy couple arrived in Kiron and on Friday evening a reception was held for them at the beautiful home of J. G. Larson south of Kiron to which a large number of Kiron friends and relatives gathered to help spend and enjoy the evening. Appropriate speeches were listened to given by Rev. Gustaf Nyquist and N. Wickell and very fine music was rendered by Prof. Hiltbrunner and the Misses Benson, Selander and Engberg. A bountiful supper was served to the guests. The couple received a large number of fine presents. The good care of our Erick and to make him a fitted companion and housekeeper. We are indeed sorry that Kiron has not been of such a nature as to place him in the highest of esteem among all who know him. His wife who is nearly a stranger among us has made a favorable impression with all who have met her of being a lady in every sense of the word and one who possesses the talents necessary to take good care of our Erick and to make him a fitted companion and housekeeper.
