The Best Security for Depositors

DENISON, IOWA.

Farm Loans at Five Per Cent Interest

This Bank is incorporated under the laws of the State of Iowa. It gives the best security to all depositors not only to the amount of stock, but the personal property of each share holder is held to the amount of his share to any loss to the bank. Incorporated banks are under the control of the State Auditor, who can at any time examine the business, and according to his investigation the published statements are made. Depositors in an incorporated bank have more security than the confidence imposed in the offices. They have the best security, because the capital stock can not be used at pleasure for outside speculation and investment. The Crawford County State Bank is the best incorporated banking institution in the county. A general banking business done.

John Bright's Speeches.
John Bright had a curious method of guarding against any failure of memory or language in his public speeches. When he had to deliver a speech of importance he wrote a sort of essay on the subject and tore it up. He then wrote another and treated it in the same way, and finally a third. In this way he considered that he had not only exhausted his own thoughts upon the matter in hand, but had gained such a command over the language in which it could be expressed that he could never be at a loss for the right word.

Weak Hearts

Are due to indigestion. Ninety-nine of every one hundred people who have heart trouble can remember when it was simple indigestion. It is a scientific fact that all cases of heart disease, not organic, are not only traceable to, but are the direct result of indigestion. All food taken into the stomach which fails of perfect digestion ferments and swells the stomach, puffing it up against the heart. This interferes with the action of the heart, and in the course of time that delicate but vital organ becomes diseased.

Kodol Digests What You Eat and relieves the stomach of all nervous strain and the heart of all pressure.
Bottles only $1.00. Size holding 2 1/2 times the true size, which sells for 50c.

THE VARIED INDUSTRIES BUILDING,
AT THE WORLD'S FAIR, ST. LOUIS—AT NIGHT

The Varied Industries Building is a magnificent structure on the outer perimeter of the main picture of the Fair. It comes into the view of the beholder immediately after he has passed through the main entrance gate. The building presents a facade of 1200 feet on the north and south and 525 feet on the east and west, giving 650,250 feet of exhibition space all on the ground floor. It is a columnated design embodying a free treatment of the Ionic order. There is an increase in the size of the columns used at the southern main entrance, but in such style and taste as not to interfere with the general design.

The size and grace of this building adds materially to the beauty and attractiveness of the group of buildings forming the main picture of the Fair. Van Brunt & Howe of Kansas City are the architects. It was the first Exposition building for whose erection a contract was let. It was built by the Rountree Construction Company at a cost of about $550,000. It was practically completed on Dedication day, April 30, 1903, and was occupied by the members of the National Guard who picketed the grounds and participated in the military parade on that occasion.

The building houses exhibits of manufacturing processes and of manufactures. Mr. H. Hulbert, chief of the department of manufactures, has charge of the exhibits in the structure.

SUMMER STYLES.

Full Flounced Effects Are Used With Veilings—Separate Waists.
Many dresses are made with full flounces, especially veilings, which, when treated in this fashion, have the airiness of muslin. The half sleeve effects, now so smart, are often composed of three or five ruffles. This half sleeve is always lined with a ruffle of lace.

The brightest blue tones are being worn, and they are combined with dyed lace or black and white embroidery.

A brown shot taffeta seen recently, was trimmed with entre deux of embroidery, edged with yellow lace and little taffeta roses with yellow centers. With it was worn a hat of the pretty pink are smart color combinations. Sailor hats trimmed with ruches of ribbon in two or more shades are among the latest millinery products.

Children's dress at present is noted for its daintiness rather than for its cost or elaborateness. Surely every one should realize the vulgarity of overdressing a child, and a glance at the present fashions will show that they are plain even to the extreme.

Russian costumes are still smart for little boys, and their small sisters wear modified editions of this same style in wools or linens or else kilted skirts with smart blouse bodices trimmed with strappings of silk or a little hand worked embroidery. White linen dresses worn with white kid belts are becoming warm weather gowns for little girls. Wide berthas appear also upon the children's gowns, and often the berthas compose the entire trimming, and it is noticeable for a fine trimming of hand embroidery or some other dainty touch. The French child's dress with the tiny ruffle of a skirt and the long waisted effect has returned into favor.

The cut shows a smart little hat of rough yellow straw trimmed with a black rosette and a cream bird of paradise tail. JUDIC CHOLLET.

A LOUD WHISPER.
It Came From a Gun That a Sentry Forgot Was Cocked.
During the Mexican war, in 1840, Captain Kenly received orders from General Quitman to march with a guard to a ford in the Santander river and prevent its passage by the Mexicans. He reached the place, posted his men with strict injunctions against betraying their presence and took his position on the bank where he could overlook the ford.

Suddenly there came the report of a gun, fired by one of his sentries. Captain Kenly ran to the place, having seen no enemy, and found the sentry, a Georgian, coolly reloading his musket.

"How dare you fire your gun?" exclaimed the angry captain. "The whole division will be aroused."

Even as he spoke the long roll of the drums came floating down the wind. The sentry saw plainly enough the trouble he had got into, but he answered:

"Well, captain, you see I was so tired and sleepy that to keep myself awake I kept pointing my gun at a duck I saw on the river, and I thought how I would like to whisper to it, and, hang it, I forgot the gun was cocked and away she went."

The man escaped with a sharp reprimand from General Quitman, who sent him word that if he ever "whispered" again without orders it would be all over with him.

HATS OF THE MOMENT.
Large Flat Shapes Vie With Tiny Toques—The New Sailor Hats.
The flat Lamballe shape is replacing everything else in millinery. This flat and large shape is becoming only to very tall women. There are, however, other shapes which are coming into style, notably the shape with a rolled brim and a short back, which is particularly adapted to a feather.

Hats made entirely of lace ruffles are decorated with bows of velvet or tiny rosebuds.

The new straws are so fine and silky that in many cases they look like satin ribbon or gold lace.

Openwork hats are very smart, particularly in flower and cherry hats. The latter are made of red straw in circular strips and wreaths of cherries. The openwork spaces are thinly covered with red net.

The torpedo toque is made in the most fantastic fashion, and the rolled brim is incrustated with motifs of circular decoration. Black with cream, white with black and lavender with pink are smart color combinations. Sailor hats trimmed with ruches of ribbon in two or more shades are among the latest millinery products.

Animal Oils in Medicine.
The number of animal oils and fats used in medicine are extremely numerous. Large quantities of oil are obtained in Tasmania from the mutton bird and used as a liniment for rheumatism, while the fat of the frigate bird is said to be an excellent specific for sciatia. Cod liver oil is too well known to bear more than mention, and the oil got from the dugong, an aquatic monster related to the whale tribe, has a high reputation as a substitute for that obtained from the smaller fry of the cod. From six to fourteen gallons of this medicinal oil can be taken out of a single animal.

The pill that will, will fill the bill, Without a gripe.
To cleanse the liver, without a quiver, Take one at night.
DeWitt's Little Early Risers are small, easy to take, easy and gentle in effect, yet they are so certain in results that no one who uses them is disappointed. For quick relief from biliousness, sick headache, torpid liver, jaundice, dizziness and all troubles arising from an inactive, sluggish liver, Early Risers are unequalled. Sold by
