THE AMERICAN BISMARCK.

It is a serious question with local democracy whether the old bogie of prohibition will longer serve to keep the Germans of this country in line. It is a fact that over fifty percent of the Germans of Denison are republican. In Hanover and Otter Creek the return to republicanism has been in progress for several years until there is a very respectable republican minority in each. In Jackson the Germans are nearly all republican and in many other townships there have been large republican gains among the German American citizens. It is finally dawning upon the Germans that they have been asked to pawn the great principles of government for a few petty county offices that do the mass of the people no good, while the enactment of democratic principles would do the greatest harm to all. We believe it is safe to say that no people were better satisfied with the defeat of Bryan than were the German democrats of this county. Nevertheless they voted for him and have allowed their party to be dominated by a coterie of radicals and silver republicans. As a result of their easy-going disposition they find themselves gradually being crowded out even of the county offices. But this is beside the point. The possession of a few county offices more or less should not count incasting one's vote in a great national election which is to decide the fate of the nation for the next four years at least. The Germans admire stameter of the Bismarck stripe. They want men who accomplish results, men of effort, of back-bone, of strenuousness, if you please. There is nothing weak or vacillating in German character. They are little given to doing things for the sake of "policy" alone. Thus while they do not agree with Bryan's radicalism they could at least admire his fearlessness. The wibbly-wobbly policyship of Parker can fill them only with disgust and distrust. Measured by the Bismarck standard Parker rattles like a dried pea in a quart cup. Germans like straight forwardness, but Parker democracy is confessedly trying to trim and to be on all sides of all questions. The Germans are opposed to corporate greed but they know that the republicans and Roosevelt have done all that has been done in that direction and that since the days of Judas Iscariot and Grover Cleveland no more unquitors bargain and sale was ever made than that by which David B. Hill sold democracy to August Belmont and John B. Rockefeller. Again, protection is a German as well as an American policy. Bismarck was a protectionist and it was this me sure that built up the German empire more than did the successful war with France. Sound money is another

Bismarckian policy for which the republican party stands and on which the democratic candidate dares not speak unequivocally and on which the democratic platform is silent. There is no reason why the Germans of Iowa should not stand with the Germans of Illinois and Wisconsin and Missouri in supporting the republican ticket. We are frequently told by influential Germans of this county that they intend voting the republican ticket but wish to keep the matter quiet for fear of offending their neighbors. If they would but come out boldly this year they would find that many of their neighbors had but been waiting for them to take the lead and that they too were ready to go back to their old home in the republican party. This is the right year to get on the right side, to repudiate free silver and add the cowards who dare not oppose it, to say "no" to the Hill-Belmont-Cleveland combine of corruptionists and to come out frankly and boldly for Theodore Roosevelt the Bismarck of America. A Bismarck tempered by American institutions, not a tyrant in any sense but a leader, fearless and true, sound to the core, a doer of deeds not a dreamer of dreams, a representative of those sound principles of government which have made both Germany and America great. THE REVIEW would be the last to stir up strife among the people of this county along race or national lines. We have always held to the individual standard of measurement of men. We would therefore repudiate any desire to align the German-Americans against the Irish-Americans or any other kind of Americans. The Bulletin has, however, seen fit to call repeated attention to what it—not THE REVIEW—is pleased to call the "Dutch-Irish" alliance. This so-called alliance reminds us of that pathetic verse: "There once was a lady of Niger, Who smiled as she rode on a tiger, They returned from their ride With the lady inside, And the smile on the face of the tiger." With O'Conner, Collins, McKim and Holland we have no wonder that the Irish-American tiger wears a smile, or that the German-Americans have every reason to believe that they are very much on the inside. Mr. O'Connor has baited the democratic ticket so many times that he can blame no one if they follow his example. Crawford county republicans are particularly fortunate in securing Hon. Walter L. Smith to address the county convention next Friday. Mr. Smith is one of the brainiest men of Iowa. As an orator he is incisive, logical and eloquent. We can promise a rare treat for all who come to hear him. The "star chamber" conferences of the democrats never include others than Denisonites. Perhaps that is why the democratic ring is so heartily hated throughout the county. Just in order to make good feeling over the county the board of supervisors has recently ordered the treasurer to withdraw all county funds from banks outside of Denison. While we believe the county funds should be carefully safe-guarded, we do not see that they are any safer in a sound Denison bank than in a sound bank at Charter Oak, Schleswig, Manila or any other town in the county. Will Mr. Holland please tell us how he stands on this matter and whether the action of the board was timed with a view to helping out the court house proposition or not? The great landslide of independent voters in which the democrats connived for the election of Parker has failed to materialize and Parker stock is going lower every day. He fails to please either the gold democrat or the Bryanites. Already Indiana is conceded to the republicans and Roosevelt's election is regarded as a certainty.

Arion News Letter

Lute Seeman was down and spent Sunday at the Wise home with his brother Will, who also spent Sunday with his wife, who is spending a few weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wise. Jake Michels came home to spend Sunday from his work on the Milwaukee bridge gage. Fred Eggers was sufficiently recovered from his recent operation to ride into town Sunday morning. Joseph Larson came down from Rodney to see his wife and then went on to Council Bluffs for a short visit, when he will come home and then return to his work. Al Eggers was down from Denison on Sunday. Mrs. J. R. Koser came down from Smithland on Monday to take treatment with Dr. Coon. M. B. Nelson has traded his interest in the department store to Mr. Black for Hotel Arion, and Mr. Chas. Grant has rented the hotel, and will keep up the high standard established by Mr. Black. Mrs. McNeas was down from Denison on Saturday assisting Dr. Coon in caring for the sick. County Surveyor McHenry and Mr. Gable were in town Saturday looking up road matters. Marshal Mackey is fixing up our streets and alleys in fine shape for fall and winter. In fact, Mackey is the right man in the right place, and his work has been appreciated. Mrs. John Ford was in town on business Saturday. In excavating for the reservoir on the farm of W. W. Coon a fine vein of brick and tile clay was uncovered. Those experienced in such matters say it is the best clay yet found around this country, being free from lime and other substance, and as the supply is almost inexhaustible, it seems that it would pay to work it. Tom Black moved into the Evans house recently vacated by Mr. Bashford. Mr. Bashford has moved to the Goodrich house east of the new church, and when the building is completed he will be near by. N. B. Nelson was a Denison visitor on Monday. W. V. Whaley was in town on Friday rustling insurance. Mrs. Stilson and Miss Athels went to Denison on Monday, where the latter will attend college. Rev. Bashford, Mr. Eaton, Mrs. Humphrey, Mrs. Evans and W. W. Coon were delegates to the Sunday school at Dow City on Sunday. Wm. Matlack visited Crescent on last Sunday.

The Kiron Chronicle

School opens next Monday with Miss Delta Hall teaching the advanced grade and Alma Hanson in the primary room. Local parties are thinking of going into the butcher business in Kiron. A good idea and no doubt a profitable one if it is worked right. Nothing will succeed unless pushed and why is there not money in a butcher shop. Rev. J. Houser and wife ended their revival meeting at the Baptist church on Tuesday last and left for Chicago. Their meetings were largely attended and have resulted for the good of many who attended. O. E. Strhan returned Thursday from Chicago where he attended to business connected with his store, also for the Farmers' Mutual Telephone Co. Alfred Clauson and wife visited at Claus P. Anderson's home in West Side the first of the week. Our streets have been desirably improved by the grading executed the past week. Miss Anna Johnson returned to Des Moines on Friday last after a short visit with Kiron friends. A party of ten left Kiron on Friday to attend the Free Mission Young People's State convention. Those who went were, Rev. N. Wickless and wife, E. E. Clauson and wife, Axel Johnson, Olof Sandeen, Selma Carlson, Ellen Burkland, Agnes Sjogren and Grace Selander of Denison. Clauson Bros sold a fine Royal piano to A. Lillihalm near Denison on Monday and on Tuesday a Netzw piano to Mrs. Anna Schlecta in Millford township. The directors of the Boyer-Valley Bank Co. held another meeting on Thursday last. Owing to the increasing business Cashier Sandberg will from now on have the assistance of a bookkeeper. Mrs. M. E. Wahl visited Omaha the first of the week. Den Halboth and wife of Arthur visited their Kiron relatives the latter part of the week. John Turin and B. A. Samuelson two of our enterprising stock breeders were at Holstein last week exhibiting some of their full blooded hogs and cattle. Miss Selma Rosengren left on Thursday for Minneapolis where she expects to remain some time. Gust Schlotfeldt and wife attended the Ide Grove carnival last week. Announcement is made that hereafter Joe Trigg, the famous agricultural writer, who took up the work of Hon. James Wilson when the latter was appointed Secretary of Agriculture will edit the Weekly Register. Mr. N. Spencer, well known to Denison people is the former superintendent of our city schools will have charge of the business management of the Weekly. This combination appears to be the strongest possible and will lift the Register out of the list of "reprint" weeklies and give it a tone and a character of its own. Now if the Daily Register and Leader will fire the Police Gazette reporter, who too often mars the first page with cheap sensations of supposed "heart interest" that paper also will take its rightful place at the head of Iowa journalism. Denison people will congratulate Mr. Spencer upon his new position and wish him the greatest measure of success.

Bullis, of Griswold, Iowa, returned home a few days ago. Mr. Benson Smith had the misfortune of getting his foot badly hurt one day this week. The injured member was attended to by Dr. Norman and he went home in a spring wagon. Dr. C. W. Carr and Mr. Schlumberger was in town last Sunday. Mrs. J. A. Scott and Mrs. E. J. Ballengee drove down to Dunlap on business Friday. Quite a lot of young people went to Dunlap Saturday to attend a musicale with their teacher, Miss Prentiss. Mr. C. E. Booth and Mr. D. L. Houston expects to start to Rollins, Wyoming, Monday. Miss Florence Miller, who took in the carnival at the Oak returned home Sunday. Mrs. J. H. Ballengee, of Ft. Robinson, Neb., who had been visiting at Dow City, was returning home spending a few days on the way, met the news at Gordon, Neb., that the depot at Robinson had been struck by lightning and burned to the ground, they losing their bedding and wearing apparel. Mr. Ballengee used to be a Dow City and Denison boy and doubtless his many old friends will be sorry to hear of his loss.
