OUR CARTOON.

One of the chief factors which defeated Richardson in the democratic convention was the growing opposition to the democratic ring. Offices are promised years in advance; favors are distributed only to those subservient to the bosses, and democracy is becoming a close corporation conducted for the benefit of a half dozen men. The only way to break the ring is to repudiate it at the polls. Our cartoon will illustrate what may come to Crawford unless the voters assert themselves this year.

Old soldiers, do you know that President Roosevelt is being attacked because he is old? He is a veteran and reached the age of 62 years it would be considered as prima facie evidence that he was not able to do a full day's work? Mask it as they may, this attack upon Roosevelt is but a covert attack upon the old soldier, and is a step toward the breaking down of the pension system, to which the Solid South is so bitterly opposed.

Regardless of what Bryan may now say he cannot now retract his utterance that Parker was nominated by the corporations and that the American people can hope for no relief from the trusts by his election.

The democratic managers are thoroughly dissatisfied with the republican ticket. It is too strong, too popular to suit them. They have been making a determined effort through quiet intimidation and ridicule to break it down. We are pleased to know that their efforts have been unavailing; that the ticket stands as nominated, and that every candidate will be an active one. There are no sore spots among the republicans and they are better prepared for active and aggressive work than ever before.

Judge Conner speaks in Maine, in Iowa and in Nebraska. Secretary Shaw will speak in one-half the states of the union before the campaign closes. Senator Fairbanks speaks from Maine to California. In fact, there is no state where republicanism does not stand for one and the same thing. With Democracy-Bryan is started in Colorado, but would not be allowed in New York. Cleveland may speak in New York, but would have a regular Cherry Sister reception in Nebraska. Democracy means a different "ism" in every locality. It is an incongruous, purposeless, inchoate mass, devoted to nothing but the gaining of office by misrepresentation.

The Bulletin is forced by the consensus of public opinion to admit that the republican ticket is composed of good men, well qualified for their positions. Why not join in electing them?

The democratic party, having tried every "ism" it could find in the past, is now trying to win favor by putting up a cheap, bogus imitation of republicanism. The democratic platform is republicanism with the backbone left out. But, backbone is one of the chief differences between a man and a jelly-fish.

Hon. J. P. Conner has been making some great speeches in Crawford this week. Everywhere he has been met with earnest attention, and given a cordial reception. We regret that Judge Conner cannot be with us during the latter part of the campaign, but believe that now, while people are thinking calmly and dispassionately, his words will have great weight. Judge Conner will speak on Wednesday evening at East Boyer Center, Thursday at Jackson Center and Friday at Goodrich Center.

Mr. Taylor, a colored gentleman from Ottumwa, Iowa, has been nominated for president by a new negro party. As might be expected, Mr. Taylor is very bitter toward both the old parties. We grieve to confess that some of his strictures against the republican party are partially true. But the fact remains that the friends of liberty and civic equality are in the republican party, that the sentiment is growing stronger in the face of continued south aggression and that the only hope for civic equality lies with the republicans.

The democrats of Iowa are sacrificing everything in the hope of re-electing the anti-silver democrat Wade to congress, and some of the dyed in the wool Bryan democrats are growing exceedingly tired of it.

It is officially announced from Democratic National headquarters that Henry Gasaway Davis pronounces his name Gozway. This is the only positive utterance as yet made by the democrats and is important if true.

It is difficult to imagine a people who produced a Bismark voting for the supine Parker or the anti-diluvian Davis. The Germans, as a rule, admire energy and efficiency and courage, not timidity, lack of conviction and general impotency.

The Bulletin says we are opposing the Irish. THE REVIEW is not afraid to stand by its record, that it has never allowed itself to inveigh against race or creed or nationality. It is supporting the republican ticket just as it has since 1867. In that time it has supported scores of Irishmen, scores of Germans and men of every nationality represented in Crawford. THE REVIEW has more friends among the Irish people and has been truer to them under all circumstances than has any other paper in the county. It has never feared to denounce religious or race prejudice, and has used its influence constantly to that end. Let it be distinctly understood that THE REVIEW opposes no man because he is Irish or German or Swede or American, and that any assertion to the contrary is untrue and malicious and not borne out by the facts.

King Corn is still several laps ahead in the race with Jack Frost and the crop promise to be a "bumper."

Our friend, Dave Walker, sends us a copy of the New Orleans Item. That southern paper admits editorially that the policies of the republican party have built up the entire nation; that protection and sound money have brought prosperity east, west, north and south; that the republican Phillipine policy is right; that President Roosevelt did the only right thing in connection with the Panama Canal; that the president is honest, sincere and courageous, but it urges all southerners to vote the democratic ticket on account of the negro question. The logic and wisdom of the New Orleans paper is only equaled by those of Crawford county, who, while admitting that the republican party is right on every question of today, insist on voting the democratic ticket on account of prohibition.

W. D. Faus of Webster City Denison's pioneer cement man, is having difficulty with the Illinois Central railroad over some work done on a big viaduct at that place. There was over $1500* difference in the figures of Mr. Faus and those of the company and Mr. Faus has filed a mechanic's lien on the structure. The following item concerning it is clipped from the Register and Leader of Des Moines.

A mechanic's lien in favor of W. D. Faus has been filed in the office of the county clerk, against the Illinois Central railroad. The property covered by the lien is the viaduct at the Bossert crossing and the piers and abutments of the east bridge over the Boone river. The filing of the lien came about over a difference of $1,569.38 in the amount charged by W. D. Faus for the work and the amount as allowed by the company.

Mr. Faus has done a great deal of cement work for the Illinois Central railroad about this city and Cedar Falls. At the latter place last year he did in the neighborhood of $70,000 worth of this sort of work. The contract between the railroad company and Mr. Faus for the work in this city was entered into with G. H. Scribner, Jr., for the railroad. After the completion of the job, Mr. Scribner measured the number of cubic feet in the work for the company. The difference between the figures of Mr. Scribner and Mr. Faus is the cause of the lien being filed. Mr. Faus claims that the job figured $17,847.98 while the company claims that it figures but $16,278.40.

OFFICERS MAKE RAID.

It was in the wee sma' hours of Sunday morning the city marshal and nightwatch, accompanied by one who had the proper pass word and was possessed of the working signs of the fraternity, pounced upon the back room of the McKane billiard hall and there found what was not supposed to exist in law abiding Denison—a room full of men, gathered about the green cloth, stacks of chips in front of them, paseboards in their hands and a life-sized "kittie" yawning in the center.

The officers said the whole outfit looked as if they had been caught bluffing with a few card flush. Immediately the lights were extinguished and there was haste to make a get-away, even without the pleasing ceremony of "cashing in."

Dick McKane was placed under arrest while the others were notified that they would be called as witnesses.

The case was brought up before Mayor Carey, and was then continued until the 20th of this month. It is said that the arrest was the result of a feud between the Knights of the green cloth and McKane claims that it was but a friendly game and he is being persecuted.
