

Just Arrived

JARDANIERES

THIS is the season of the year when the lover of house plants carefully takes up the plant from the out door bed and transplants it in the house for the winter. Our fine line of Jardaniers have just arrived and they are beauties. We also wish you to look at our Umbrella Stands, Pedestals, fine Parlor Lamps, Cut Glass and Fancy Dishes for weddings. We do not ask you to merely take our word for it, but come in and see our goods. There are none better and our prices are as low as anywhere.

Sample Ballot to be Voted in Crawford County, Iowa, Nov. 8, 1904.

[NOTICE TO VOTERS: For an affirmative vote upon any question submitted upon this ballot make a cross (X) mark in the square after the word "Yes." For a negative vote make a similar mark in the square following the word "No."]

"Shall the following amendment to the constitution be adopted?"
Add as section 16, to article 12 of the constitution, the following:

YES
NO

SEC. 16. The first general election after the adoption of this amendment shall be held on the Tuesday next after the first Monday in November in the year one thousand nine hundred and six, and general elections shall be held biennially thereafter. In the year one thousand nine hundred and six there shall be elected a governor, lieutenant-governor, secretary of state, auditor of state, treasurer of state, attorney general, two judges of the supreme court, the successors of the judges of the district court whose terms of office expire on December 31st, one thousand nine hundred and six, state senators who would otherwise be chosen in the year one thousand nine hundred and five, and members of the house of representatives. The terms of office of the judges of the supreme court which would otherwise expire on December 31st, in odd numbered years, and all other elective state, county and township officers whose terms of office would otherwise expire in January in the year one thousand nine hundred and six, and members of the general assembly whose successors would otherwise be chosen at the general election in the year one thousand nine hundred and five, are hereby extended one year and until their successors are elected and qualified. The terms of offices of senators whose successors would otherwise be chosen in the year one thousand nine hundred and seven are hereby extended one year and until their successors are elected and qualified. The general assembly shall make such changes in the law governing the time of election and term of office of all other elective officers as shall be necessary to make the time of their election and terms of office conform to this amendment, and shall provide which of the judges of the supreme court shall serve as chief justice. The general assembly shall meet in regular session on the second Monday in January, in the year one thousand nine hundred and six, and also on the second Monday in January in the year one thousand nine hundred and seven, and biennially thereafter.

"Shall the following amendment to the constitution be adopted?"

NO

That sections thirty-four (34) thirty-five (35) and thirty-six (36) of article three (3) of constitution of state of Iowa, be repealed and the following be adopted in lieu thereof.

SECTION 34. The senate shall be composed of fifty members to be elected from the several senatorial districts, established by law and at the next session of the general assembly held following the taking of the state and national census, they shall be apportioned among the several counties or districts of the state, according to population as shown by the last preceding census.

SECTION 35. The house of representatives shall consist of not more than one hundred and eight members. The ratio of representation shall be determined by dividing the whole number of the population of the state as shown by the last preceding state or national census, by the whole number of counties then existing or organized, but each county shall constitute one representative district and be entitled to one representative, but each county having a population in excess of the ratio number, as herein provided of three-fifths or more of such ratio number shall be entitled to one additional representative, but said addition shall extend only to the nine counties having the greatest population.

SECTION 36. The general assembly shall, at the first regular session held following the adoption of this amendment, and at each succeeding regular session held next after the taking of such census, fix the ratio of representation, and apportion the additional representatives, as herein before required.

"Shall the following public measure be adopted?"

NO

Shall the County of Crawford, in the state of Iowa, borrow not to exceed forty thousand dollars at a rate of interest not to exceed four per cent per annum, to be used for the purpose of constructing and adding a dome to the court house now in process of construction at Denison, Iowa; in furnishing a heating plant, ventilation, plumbing, electric wiring, furnishings, wainscoting and tiling for, and otherwise perfecting the construction of said court house; and to issue not to exceed forty negotiable bonds therefor of the denomination of one thousand dollars each, payable ten years after the date thereof and drawing interest not to exceed four per cent per annum, payable annually, reserving the option to said county to pay any or all of said bonds at any time after five years from the date thereof; also for levying an annual tax at the September meeting of the said board of supervisors in each year, beginning with the year 1905, on the taxable property of said county, not to exceed 5 mills on the dollar of the county valuation in any one year, and continuing from year to year, sufficient to pay the interest on said bonds, and the bonds themselves when they become due.
