Every Republican on

New York, Nov. 9.—The Republican national ticket has been elected by a vote in the electoral college that will exceed that of 292, given for McKinley in 1900. The result of the balloting was astounding even to the most sanguine of the Republican managers. Confident as they were of success, they were not prepared for the astonishing figures which followed the closing of the polls, bringing into the Republican column not only all of those states they had claimed as safe for their candidates, but, with the possible exception of Maryland, every state classed as doubtful.

Democratic successes are confined to the solid south, in which Kentucky is included, and Mr. Parker has not carried a single state which did not give its vote to Mr. Bryan four years ago. Unofficial returns indicate that he has lost some of those which the Nebraska candidate held for his party.

As a dramatic climax to the sensational majorities given him, came President Roosevelt's formal announcement that he would not be a candidate for re-election, lending the only exciting aspect to an election otherwise so one sided that it was impossible for the voters to attain that degree of enthusiasm which usually marks the occasion. This morning came an announcement from Melvin G. Palliser, manager of the campaign for Thomas E. Watson, the candidate of the People's party, that as a result of the overwhelming Democratic defeat steps would be taken to form a new party. To this end, according to the announcement given out, Mr. Bryan, Mr. Watson and William Randolph Hearst would hold a conference in New York in about a week's time.

Judge Parker acknowledged the situation by telegraphing President Roosevelt his congratulations.

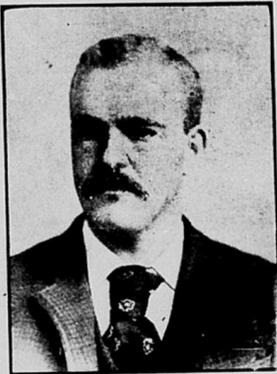

The perfect weather conditions which prevailed over practically the entire country brought out a vote which experienced politicians predict will be a record-breaker, and the ballots of the Republicans gained more than their share. It is not only a year of phenomenal votes, but of phenomenal Republican majorities as well.

Pennsylvania heads the list as the banner Republican state, with the magnificent plurality of 325,000; New York comes next with 185,000. Nevada, which was carried by Bryan four years ago, is Republican and the indications are that Montana, Idaho and Colorado, also Democratic in 1900, have gone back to the Republican column. Delaware is estimated at about 5,000 Republican; Massachusetts about 90,000, and Connecticut, in which the more sanguine of the Democratic leaders claimed to have had hopes, is about 25,000 for Roosevelt.

While on the national ticket the Democrats have suffered a crushing defeat, they have retrieved themselves on some state tickets. They have reversed the national votes by electing governors in Massachusetts, Minnesota, Montana and probably Nebraska, Colorado, West Virginia. Roosevelt's plurality in this, his native state, is second only to McKinley's 268,000 in 1896. It exceeds that of Bryan.

Delaware.

Wilmington, Nov. 9.—Returns at hand this morning indicate that Roosevelt has carried Delaware by about 2,500 majority and that the Republicans have elected their entire state ticket by majorities a little smaller.

New Hampshire.

Concord, N. H., Nov. 9.—Roosevelt has carried the state by 20,000 and McLane (Rep.), for governor, is elected by at least 12,000. The legislature is Republican in both branches by large majorities.

Maine.

Portland, Me., Nov. 9.—The elimination from the election of a state contest in Maine detracted from the interest. The result was a victory for Roosevelt and Fairbanks.

Texas.

Austin, Tex., Nov. 9.—Returns show that the vote cast will hardly exceed 275,000, of which 250,000 were cast for Parker, 50,000 for Roosevelt and the balance scattering.

Vermont.

White River Junction, Vt., Nov. 9.—Roosevelt carried Vermont by about 31,000. He ran ahead of McKinley's vote in 1900, while Parker ran behind that of Bryan.

Montana is for Roosevelt.

Butte, Mont., Nov. 9.—Montana is for Roosevelt, returns indicating a gain by the Republicans of over 30 per cent over four years ago. Governor Toole (Dem.) is re-elected. The Democratic state ticket, with possibly one or two exceptions, appears to have won. Every county heard from has gone for Roosevelt by from 300 to 800 majority.

Washington.

Seattle, Wash., Nov. 9.—Incomplete returns from thirty-seven precincts in King county give Mead (Rep.) 1,050; Turner (Dem.), 389. Chairman Palmer of the Republican state central committee says that Mead will carry the state by a comfortable plurality.

Idaho.

Boise, Ida., Nov. 9.—Returns indicate that Roosevelt will carry the state by from 15,000 to 20,000. French is re-elected to congress by 12,000 and Gooding (Rep.) is elected governor by about the same majority.

Florida.

Jacksonville, Fla., Nov. 9.—Returns indicate the usual Democratic majorities in Florida. The Democratic candidates for congress are all elected.

quite, doubled the McKinley plurality in the state of 26,467 four years ago. In Marion county, which includes Indianapolis, 132 precincts indicate the Republicans have carried the county by 11,000, which is almost double the McKinley plurality of four years ago. Vice President-elect Charles W. Fairbanks received the returns at his residence from private wires, which connected his home with the white house at Washington. He and President Roosevelt early exchanged congratulations, and Senator Fairbanks was given a reception at the Columbia club.

New Jersey.

Newark, N. J., Nov. 9.—New Jersey was carried by the Republicans by a larger majority than even the most sanguine of the Republican predic-ons. The state gives in the neighborhood of 60,000 for Roosevelt, exceeding McKinley's majority four years ago by 3,000. Despite a local sue against him, and which caused him to be cut severely in several parts of the state, Stokes, Republican candidate for governor, defeated lack (Dem.) by more than 20,000. Eight Republicans and two Democrats will constitute the state's congressional delegation, a gain of one for the Republicans. Allen defeated Congressman Hughes in the Sixth district. The legislature is overwhelmingly Republican and John Kean will obviously succeed himself as United States senator.

Massachusetts.

Boston, Nov. 9.—Sufficient returns on the election in Massachusetts have been received to indicate a victory for Roosevelt and Fairbanks electors, but at the same time a defeat of Governor Bates for election by William L. Douglas, the Democratic candidate. The Republicans elected the rest of the state ticket, at least ten of the fourteen congressmen and a large majority of the legislature, which will select two United States senators. The Democrats elected, besides their candidate for governor, at least three congressmen. Roosevelt's majority is estimated at 82,000.

Kentucky.

Louisville, Nov. 9.—With one-third of Kentucky's 1,896 precincts reported, the vote indicates a majority in the state for Parker of from 13,000 to 14,000. The figures of the Democratic and Republican managers show little variance from this result. Kentucky in 1900 gave Bryan 8,098 plurality. The returns from 683 precincts show a plurality of 16,026 for Parker. The congressional delegation is unchanged, ten Democrats and one Republican. The Populists increased their votes slightly.

Republican Landslide in Michigan.

Detroit, Nov. 9.—Michigan was the scene of a veritable Republican landslide. Roosevelt and Fairbanks have carried the state by an unprecedented majority, variously estimated at from 100,000 to 150,000. Fred M. Warner and the Republican state ticket are elected, at least eleven of the twelve congressmen from Michigan are Republican and the legislature is overwhelmingly Republican, insuring the re-election of United States Senator J. C. Burrows.

New Hampshire.

Concord, N. H., Nov. 9.—This state has preserved unbroken its line of Republican national victories, which began with Fremont in 1856, and has given its electoral vote to Roosevelt by approximately 20,000. The Republicans have also elected their congressional and state tickets.

South Carolina.

Charleston, S. C., Nov. 9.—The Republican vote will hardly reach 10 per cent of the total vote. Seven Democratic congressmen were elected.

West Virginia.

Huntington, W. Va., Nov. 9.—Indications point to a majority for Roosevelt of between 300 and 400.
