At the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Gable on the evening of Oct. 22 the Denison W. C. T. U. entertained their husbands, their Honorary members and wives.

The evening was all that could be desired as to weather and there was a pretty general response to the invitations.

The parlors and dining room were beautifully decorated with Autumn leaves, cut flowers, potted plants and mottoes. Early in the evening, at the invitation of those having that part of the program in charge, all found their way to the dining room where they were looked after by the young lady members of the Union in a manner which seemed to be very satisfactory.

As they emerged from the dining room, conspicuous on the coat lapel of each gentleman was a tiny white ribbon bow. This was supposed to indicate they had been there, but as a white ribbon bow is the badge of the organization it had still another significance, and no doubt they all felt much honored through being permitted to wear it this one evening.

The remainder of the evening was spent in social conversation interspersed with games of contest which afforded much amusement, especially the game of "Description" which caused the gentlemen to bring into service some of their youthful gallantry.

After a couple of hours spent thus pleasantly the gentlemen tendered the ladies a hearty vote of thanks and all departed.

Much credit is due the president, who was the originator of the plan, and to the committee on entertainment for the success of the evening.

The sixty-fifth anniversary of the birth of Francis E. Willard was observed in Chicago by a noon-day meeting Wednesday, October 5, in the Women's Temple. Flowers from many States of the union and from Canada, sent by friends, were piled high on the platform. Tributes to Miss Willard were delivered by Miss Jane Adams and Dr. Howard O. Taylor. The next day the flowers received were laid on the tomb of Miss Willard in Rosehill cemetery.

Day by day the infamy of liquor selling becomes more and more apparent. The tendency, more and more each day is to condemn the business and those engaged in it. The man who wants to stand well with his fellowmen or the respectable portion thereof, must get out of the liquor business.

World's Temperance Sunday.

The fourth Sunday in November of each year has been designated "World's Sunday School Temperance Sunday."

The highest ecclesiastical bodies of nearly all denominations have given recognition to this day. The appointment is also made by the International Sunday School Convention, through the International Lesson Committee, and a provision is made for a World's Sunday School Temperance Lesson.

The drink curse is world wide, and young people in particular should be taught that it is a crime against the nation and a sin against God. It is fitting therefore that the subject be presented from both national and personal points of view.

We therefore call upon all pastors, Sunday School superintendents and teachers, all W. C. T. U. workers in the Sunday School and all friends of temperance teaching in the Sunday School to make the observance of World's Temperance Sunday..... a notable occasion. Let it be the great annual temperance field day for the Sunday Schools of the world.

DEAR SUNDAY SCHOOL WORKERS:—
We ought to plan at once for World's Temperance Sunday, November 27. Let us make it truly our Red Letter Temperance Sunday in the Sunday Schools.

The Kiron Chronicle

Miss Lena Johnson visited in Odebolt last week.

Oscar Larson transacted business in Chicago the first of the week.

Michael McVey of Odebolt was in Kiron's near neighborhood on Saturday last, still hunting for business.

Gust Odifer of Schleswig, is at present painting and papering the new home of Willie Schultz west of Kiron.

Gust Carlson, of California, is now at home in Kiron, having accepted a position with the P. A. Petersen blacksmith shop.

The Misses Emma and Edna Swanson and Mildred Larson were visitors at Schleswig between trains Friday forenoon.

Rev. C. Swift of Omaha visited Kiron between Wednesday and Thursday preaching at the Mission church on Wednesday evening.

One certain couple, (sorry to say of this town) indulged in the celebrating of Halloween night in such a manner that time can never erase the memory of the occasion.

E. H. Mauritz, who has accepted a position as traveling salesman with the Koss Manufacturing Pharmacy Co. at Chicago, left on Wednesday for a short tour on the road.

Halloween passed off with the usual amount of innocent pranks indulged in by a number of the boys. They seemed to enjoy the time as did those who indulged in the watch.

S. Walters of Sioux City, superintendent for this division of the C & N W R R Co. spent Tuesday in Kiron, calling on stock shippers and looking after interest in general for his good.

Larson Bros.' new fixtures have arrived, also the engine for their new butcher shop and before long they will be right in it. They expect to have a model place and to conduct their business so as to make it pay.

Our new barber, F. Schneider, has rented the basement in the Thunstrom building and is moving into the same. Mrs. Schneider arrived on Saturday morning and they will soon be at home in their new quarters.

Our friend, John Pithan, from near Ells, made Kiron a visit on Monday evening. He seemed to be most confident in the election of Parker, (?) and by the time this appears in print he will be grieving over his defeat, sure.

The G. A. Norelius two days' special drew quite a crowd last week and G. A. says the results were satisfactory. He advertised freely and worked hard to make it a success. Let others follow his example to draw people to our town to trade.

A festival was held at the Lutheran church on last Tuesday evening to which a large number was in attendance. An interesting program was rendered which included a lecture by Rev. J. A. Benander, on Sweden, the Land of the Midnight Sun. Refreshments were sold in the basement of the church.

On Thursday afternoon occurred a pleasant wedding at the home of Peter Eckman, north of Kiron when their daughter Lulu was joined in holy wedlock to Charles Johnson of near Arthur. Rev. A. Johnson of Odebolt officiating. There were present a good number of relatives and friends of the contracting parties. May success be theirs in their new relation.

Our restaurant man, Peter Miller, is now snugly located in his new restaurant and is well pleased with the patronage given him. He carries a choice line of canned goods, candies, and everything pertaining to a first-class restaurant. He sets a good table to which the many who are fed can testify to the good board. We wish him unbounded success in his quarters and bespeak for him a large and well deserved patronage.

The Sentinel says that there are several rumors of law suits in the air. It is too bad for our peaceful and honorable town to have an undesirable and unprofitable element around, and the wishes of all is that it may be of short duration. Let every upright citizen stand hand in hand for the riddance of all nuisances, and make this the best and most peaceful town in the county.

A sad misfortune occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hans Bonnicksen, five miles northeast of Kiron on Tuesday morning. Mrs. Bonnicksen leaving her children in the home and went out to the barn and during her absence the six-year-old daughter, while playing with matches, set her clothing afire and before her screams were heard she was burned so severely that death relieved her suffering in the evening. This is a hard stroke for the stricken family as one of their brightest members is now missed. The sympathy of the entire community goes out to the stricken family. The funeral occurred on Saturday afternoon.

Since our last appearance with our items of the doings of our people our town has had quite a building boom. The Peter Johnston residence has been completed and Johnston and wife have moved and are now comfortably settled. The fine Burrows residence is nearing completion, and this elegant home will soon be ready for its occupants. The Mrs. Palm's residence is already occupied, while the Christina Anderson new home is being rapidly pushed for its finishing touches. The eastern portion of town is being fast built up and the forsaken and shunned appearance it has had has fled and at the rate residences have been going up it will lay the beautiful west part in the shade. The third residence erected in this town by Jno. Jacobson will soon be completed and the large, roomy home for Jno. Tellgren will soon find his family living in it. Mrs. Berggrens house is now receiving its coat of paint and the interior is receiving its last doses for completion. Thus seven new and large residences have been erected and added to our town this season, and in the line of business houses we have the new Laurences' addition to his business building, also the new blacksmith shop of O. E. Johnson now under construction, will be added to the business addition for the year. The new butcher shop under erection by Larson Bros., is soon ready for that business. We have a reason to believe that the voters in this neck of the woods will vote against the extra appropriation for the new court house at Denison and have that money used when the county court house will be planted in Kiron. We forgot the new Miller restaurant which has also been built this year and in which our friend Miller is as busy as a bee feeding the hungry.
