News About Deloit.

Elder F. B. Farr conducted services at the L. D. S. church Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday evenings of last week.

Mrs. R. H. Childress and son Leslie, attended the Sabbath school at the L. D. S. church a week ago last Sunday.

Elder J. T. Turner is suffering from a severe attack of neuralgia of the face.

S. F. Wedlock bought the Lumley property adjoining his place on the north, and has torn down the old house and is cleaning up the lot which will add greatly to its appearance.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Robertsen, on Tuesday, Nov. 29, a daughter.

Among the improvements in town is a wood house built at Mr. Geo. Winans and Mrs. T. C. Dobson's homes, which will be a great convenience.

Miss Edna Myers visited a week with her aunt, Mrs. J. Devitt, at West Side recently.

Quarterly meeting was conducted at the M. E. church Saturday afternoon.

Married—Mr. Elmer Lewin and Miss Belle Cruzan, at the M. E. parsonage on Wednesday afternoon, Nov. 30, 1904, Rev. F. S. Stone officiating. Mr. Lewin spent several months in Deloit, stopping at the home of Chas. Brogden and is an industrious young man of good habits and character, and made many friends here. His bride is the accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Cruzan and has lived near Deloit many years and is well and favorably known. We understand they will go to housekeeping on a farm between here and Denison. Their many friends wish them joy and success.

The play entitled "The Corner Store" was delivered Friday evening to a very attentive audience of about 200 people. It proved to be a perfect success, and the best ever held in Deloit. Much credit is due those who took part. Many remarked the closing song alone was well worth the price of their money. It is expected another play will be given during the winter.

Miss Vinnie Rudd came up from Dow City Friday afternoon to attend the play in the evening.

Mrs. J. T. Newcom returned home from her trip to S. Dakota and Minnesota last week.

The Ladies Aid society met Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Thwing.

We understand the Deloit Dramatic Co will reproduce "The Corner Store" in the hall at Kiron next Saturday evening. We heartily recommend the company, and all will agree it is well worth the price.

TWEED RING "GRAFT."

Two Hundred Millions Its Direct and Indirect Cost to New York.

The new courthouse was still far from complete and miserably furnished, yet it had already resulted in the neat outlay of $11,000,000, when the most liberal estimate placed its value, finished and luxuriously furnished, at less than $3,000,000.

A few items will be sufficient to show the scale upon which the ring had conducted its financial policy:

Forty odd chairs and three tables had a record value of $178,729.00.

A charge for repairing fixtures, through J. H. Keyser & Co., was $1,149,874.50.

Thermometers, $7,500.

Another charge for furniture, through Ingersoll & Co., $240,564.63.

A single item of stationery was set down at $180,495.61. What, in heaven's name, could the 61 cents have paid for with stationery bought at ring rates?

Then there were carpets, shades and curtains, also supplied by that marvelous firm, Ingersoll & Co., at the fairly comfortable figure of $675,534.44. Nor must we overlook one G. S. Miller, a carpenter, who was set down as having received $300,747.61 for one month's work.

But Garvey, Andrew J. Garvey, the plasterer! Generations of plasterers yet unborn will take off their hats to his memory! Two million eight hundred and seventy thousand four hundred and sixty-four dollars and six cents had he earned at his humble trade in the brief period of nine months.

It is unnecessary to go further into the details of this monster and monstrous fraud; $5,068,246.83 had been paid through the single "firm" of Ingersoll & Co.

Matthew J. O'Rourke, who since that time made a careful study of the city's finances, states that, counting the vast issues of fraudulent bonds, the swindling of the city by wealthy tax dodgers, by franchises and favors granted, by blackmail and extortion, the total amount of the city's loss through the Tweed ring stands at not less than $200,000,000.—Pearson's Weekly.

GOWN GOSSIP.

Chaille and albatross make pretty sacks and house gowns.

White chiffon veils is the newest fabric for wedding gowns.

Skirts of plain tailored gowns are strapped with self material.

The light tint of apricot, fashionable many years ago, is again in favor.

Evening gowns are embroidered with glittering paillettes and trimmed with tiny flounces.

This is a bad year for the useful shirt waist suit. Jacket suits are evidently the favorites.

Shepherd's plaids are coming and have come, especially in black and white and dove and white.

Shot silks, plain and fancy, are used for vest, yoke and sleeve trimmings, those in checked effect being particularly effective.—Brooklyn Eagle.

All Awey.

The undertaker's jolly, though he ought to feel quite sad, and there's misery unbounded in the hired "comic man."

The average man's unruined, but the geniuses go mad.

Oh, I think this world should have been built upon another plan. —Judge.

WE LAUNDER MEN'S WHITE VESTS

And our way of Laundering them is better than the ordinary way—it produces better results. It does that because we see to it that the vests we launder are carefully handled—are properly starched and are ironed in such a manner they retain their original shape. We also launder Shirts, Collars and Cuffs in the same manner.

If you are particular about these points we can please you.
