M. W. A. election to-night.
Clem Mahon visited friends in Denison over Sunday.
Dr. Gibson spent Sunday with his family in Denison.
Chas. Luney is working at Johnson's book store during the holiday rush.
Mrs. John Kott was in Fort Dodge last week visiting with her parents. Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Cook
Mrs. G. W. Lee accompanied by her two children came down from Sac City last week for a visit with relatives.
Hugh Monagh Sr. went to DeWitt, Neb., last Friday where he will visit his daughter Mrs. Chesney for a while.
Miss Hattie Crawford who has been visiting friends in this county for some time, returned to her home in Marshalltown.
Miss Alice Kaul was at Carroll three days of last week, where she held a sale of hand painted china at the Burke Hotel.
Every hotel in Denison was filled to overflowing with guests over Sunday, many transients having to secure private homes.
J. H. Sibbert, who travels for a Chicago house, is at home until after the holidays. He reports an excellent business.
Jim Melton is now running a cab line and makes a specialty of answering private calls promptly and on time. If you desire a cab after the theatre call up Laub's barn and Jimmy's on the spot.
Read the many ads in this issue of THE REVIEW. Denison merchants are liberal users of printer's ink and fully realize the value of advertising. All lines of business are advertised in these columns and patrons of the advertisers are assured of fair treatment.

The Whist club will meet with Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Meyers on Thursday. Hans Christiansen and Liverman Cops of Charter Oak, were Denison visitors on Sunday last.
Mrs. S. G. Wright gave an exhibition of hand painted china at Carrel two days of last week. On Saturday Mrs. E. F. Tucker assisted her.
The Modern Woodmen of America will hold an important meeting on Wednesday evening of this week at which the election of officers will take place.
"That Little Swede" played to a fairly good house on Friday night and gave good satisfaction. Miss Green a "That Little Swede," was a "enough Swede," and acted her part well.
Mr. W. A. Saul, of Douglas, Wyo., visited in Denison last week. He had been down to Omaha with stock. He remained here longer than expected on account of the serious illness of his brother Charles' little son.
J. H. Tamm and his plumber, Mr. Dunn, were at Council Bluffs on Monday, where they were getting supplies. Mr. Tamm secured the contract for furnishing the heating plant in the Balle-Brodersen building, and the work of putting it in will begin at once.
Mr. Howard Peters, of Douglas, Wyoming, visited in Denison on Saturday and Sunday. He will be remembered as having been in the harness business with Geo. W. Apple in Denison years ago. The old time friends were glad to meet him again. He is engaged in the harness business out in Douglas and also is owner of a large sheep ranch.
Of the many attractive holiday displays in Denison, probably that of the Crockery and Queensware section of the Balle Brodersen Co.'s is attracting the greatest attention. The stock has been rearranged and tastefully displayed by Mr. Otto Moenck, who is again in charge of the window decorating. The first that he has undertaken since his return is the big dry goods window, which is as neat and attractive a display as has ever been made in Denison. The Crockery department shows up especially well in the evening. The Balle-Brodersen Co. will not close until 9:00 o'clock p. m. from now on and until after Xmas. Read their ad this week.

AN EVENING'S ENTERTAINMENT.
One of the best entertaining games which we have ever come across is Trix cards. It consists of a package of double numbered cards in appearance somewhat like some of the other games that have sprung up, but in playing just as different as can be from any other card games. There are ten distinct games included with the one package of cards, the principal of which is Trix, which was so popular in many localities last year, and with the improvements is this season selling far ahead of last season. For the foot ball player Trix Foot Ball makes a game as exciting as foot ball itself. For any who like a scientific game Forty-Two will fill the bill. The games are all made up for any number of players from twoup. For evening entertainments, for clubs or for progressive they have no equal. Trix is advertised extensively and has been sold in every state in the union. Large shipments have already been made to Canada and orders have recently been received from the Philippines, from Alaska, from Japan, from South America and from several other foreign countries. The cards, including rules and everything complete, can be had from most any dealer for 50 cents, or will be forwarded on receipt of cash or stamps direct from the manufacturers, the Reed & White Game Company, of Bloomington, Ill. If you are interested in games you will be more than interested in Trix.
L. CLYDE RUSMISEL PROMOTED.
The many friends of Professor L. Clyde Rusmisel in this city will rejoice to learn of his promotion to the head of the commercial department in the St. Joseph high school, where he has been assistant for several years. The St. Joseph News and Press of the 16th says: "L. C. Rusmisel was named last night to succeed A. S. Fries as head of the commercial department in the St. Joseph high school. The high school committee recommended the promotion of Mr. Rusmisel, who has been assisting Fries in the department the last three years, and the other directors concurred." We understand that this position carries with it a salary of $1500 per year and we are glad such a plum has fallen to a former Stafford county boy. Clyde is a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Rusmisel of this city and will be remembered by most of our citizens. He is one of the finest penmen in the country and in every way qualified to take charge of this responsible position.
Nuptials of C. S. Graves and Miss Sylvia Cavett.
The marriage of Charles S. Graves of Valley Junction and Miss Sylvia Belle Cavett was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Orlando Cavett, living on the old Trowbridge farm three miles east of this city, Nov. 30. Rev. L. K. Billingsley, pastor of the Wesley Methodist church, performed the ceremony. Quite a company of guests assembled. A wedding supper was served in four courses.
The groom is a successful farmer near Valley Junction. The bride has been private secretary for Dr. I. N. McCash, superintendent of the Iowa Anti-Saloon League—Register & Leader.
Many Crawford county people will remember Miss Cavett. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Orlando Cavett, who lived near Charter Oak for so many years.
AMONG THE EDITORS.
Bryan's appeal to the "plain, common people" to oppose the "plutocrats" so-called, is rather out of place in face of the fact that Roosevelt's popular plurality is about 2,500,000. The result of the election shows that those whom Bryan terms "plutocrats" have sunk into significance by the tremendous popular endorsement of President Roosevelt. The "plain common people," as Mr. Bryan calls them, voted the republican ticket on the 8th, and the record of the president shows that they did just right.—Webster City Freeman.
Mr. Hearst thinks that the democratic party needs a new leader but the Atlanta Constitution suggests that about two million more followers would be still better.—Jefferson Bee.
The only county in Iowa that went democratic in the recent election was Johnson county, and the majority she gave Parker was only 122. This poor lone, stray sheep needs care and attention. For "there were ninety-and nine that safely lay in the shelter of the fold, but one was out on the hills away, far off from the gates of gold." Strangely appropriate is it not?—Jefferson Bee.
Algona Upper Des Moines Republican: Some people who do not know what the present tariff rate is on any article declare that the tariff ought to be revised. Others who know as little about it are positive that it should not be changed. There is a small remnant who do not know what the tariff is nor know what it ought to be, and who know that they do not know.
The Sioux City Journal notes from the message that "the president is willing that the interstate commerce commission shall have a medium sized stick."
