Arion News Letter

Mrs. J. L. Larson came down from Rodney on Saturday and spent Sunday at the home of Levi Green, going to Denison Monday to have some dental work done at Robinson's.

On Sunday occurred the dedication of the new Congregational church here. A number of people from abroad were present and among them the Dow City choir from the Methodist church, who furnished the music for the occasion. It is a beautiful little church and does credit to its builders.

Ira Underhill spent Sunday under the parental roof. He is now selling candy on the road and doing a nice business.

The friends of Ted Sullivan will be glad to know that he is improving in health.

J. U. Wise has sold out his stock of clothing and will go into business elsewhere. Jim is an honest and reliable man and we wish him success.

Dr. and Mrs. Coon took Sunday dinner at Hotel Slocum in Dow City.

Our enterprising teachers are to give an entertainment in the school building on Friday afternoon.

Chas. Butler of Billings, Montana, is spending a few weeks in town looking after his farm and visiting relatives and friends. He looks hearty and says he likes the west.

Mr. Brundage, who was operated on last Tuesday is doing nicely and will soon leave the hospital.

Editor McVey spent Sunday in town. He was accompanied by his interesting family. Mack is O. K.

Miss Silvia Evans spent Sunday at home.

Dr. Frank Evans will spend Christmas with his parents in Arion.

Andy Mackey, our hustling marshal, makes the snow fly from our crossings these cold days.

Ira Brundage, of Missouri Valley, came up to see his brother who is in the hospital on Sunday last.

John Davis has sold his large farm and will go back to Canada to live. John and his most excellent wife have worked hard and have been successful and although we rejoice they have succeeded we regret extremely to have them leave our community.
