Mr. Baughman of near Dunlap, attended church at this place Sunday evening.

The death of Mrs. Susan Patchin occurred at her home at what is known as Elgin, east of Deloit on Tuesday afternoon, after a short illness which came as a surprise to her many friends. We understand she was 73 years of age. She has long been a resident of this place. Her husband, who was an "old soldier," preceded her to the grave a few years ago, and she was getting the pension. She leaves two daughters and two sons and grandchildren, also a young man, Orvil McKim, whom she has raised from childhood, to mourn their loss. The funeral was conducted from the L. D. S. church, she being a faithful member of that church. Elder C. J. Hunt preached the sermon and he remains were laid to rest by the side of her husband in the Deloit cemetery. The members of the M. W. A. took charge of the remains, two of her sons being members of that order. Her children all live here except her son, Eugene, who lives in Idaho. The family have the sympathy of the entire community.

Mrs. Nellie Lee and little daughter arrived from Minnesota last week to visit her parents and sisters, Mr. and Mrs. Morris and family.

Mr. Wm. Hensen came in Saturday morning from Montana, to spend Christmas with Mr. Morris and family. His wife preceeded him here two weeks ago.

Dr. Norman performed the operation assisted by Drs. Lehan of Dunlap and Baers of Defiance. The patient was getting along as well as could be expected at last accounts. The feet were both taken off just above the ankle.

Beware of Counterfeits.

"DeWitt's is the only genuine Witch Hazel Salve" writes J. L. Tucker, of Centre, Ala. "I have used it in my family for Piles, Cuts and Burns for years and can recommend it to be the best Salve on the market. Every family should keep it, as it is an invaluable household remedy, and should always be kept on hand for immediate use." Mrs. Samuel Gage, of North Bush, N. Y., says: "I had a fever sore on my ankle for twelve years that the doctors could not cure. All salves and blood remedies proved worthless. I could not walk for over two years. Finally I was persuaded to try Witch Hazel Salve, which has completely cured me. It is a wonderful relief." DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cures without leaving a scar. Sold by RUDOLPH KNAUL, CASSADAY & CO.

W. C. T. U. COLUMN.

THE VOICE OF AUTHORITY.

A great many young soldiers who are not accustomed to drink, contract drinking habits at these canteens and are ruined.—SURGEON-GENERAL STERNBERG.

The canteen stands as a constant invitation to the total abstainer to drink, as a temptation to the moderate drinker to drink more, and as a convenience to the drunkard to load up on beer when he has not the means to obtain anything stronger. The canteen system resolves itself, in my opinion, into this question: Is it best to keep a constant temptation before the total ab-

THE PALACE BAKERY
M. M. BRADBURY, PROP.

stainers and moderate drinkers for the purpose of controlling the few drunkards? —BRIGADIER-GENERAL DAG-CETT.

I do not believe that intoxicants should be handled by the army, except as medicine, nor do I find that beer is any more necessary for a soldier than it is for the employes of any great corporation, and I find that retail beer saloons are just as much of a nuisance on a reservation and called a "canteen," as they are outside and called a saloon. The army of the United States is not composed of drunkards and we are not at a loss as to how to cater to the beer-drinking appetites of the few who do want it.—COLONEL P. H. RAY.

A PRAYER.

May every soul that touches mine,
Be it the slightest contact, get there-
from some good,
Some little grace, one kindly thought,
One inspiration yet unfelt, one bit of courage
For the darkening sky, one gleam of faith
To brave the thickening ills of life,
One glimpse of brighter skies beyond
the gathering mist.
To make this life more worth while
And heaven a surer heritage.—ANON.

You ask my reasons for believing in women's suffrage. It seems to me almost self-evident, an axiom, that every householder and taxpayer should have a voice in the expenditure of the money we pay, including, as this does, interests the most vital to a human being.—FLORENCE NIGHTINGALE.

IMMORTAL LINCOLN'S TEMPERANCE VIEWS.

This legalized liquor traffic as carried on in the saloons and gong shops is the great tragedy of civilization. The saloon has proved itself to be the greatest foe, the most blighting curse that has ever found a home in our modern civilization, and this is the reason why I am a political prohibitionist. Prohibition brings the desired result. It suppresses the saloon by law. It stamps and brands the saloonkeeper as a criminal in the sight of God and man.
