

Arion News Letter

Happy New Year.
Dr. Frank Evans, who is practicing the profession at Colo, Iowa, spent New Year's Day at the home of his parents, Dr. and Mrs. W. B. Evans. Miss Sylvia came down from Denison to help make merry, and a delightful family reunion was held.

Dr. D. D. Talcott of Crofton, Neb., arrived in town on Friday from Illinois, where he was married to Miss Ethel Miller, a beautiful and talented young lady, who taught in the Arion schools some years ago. Their old friends were glad to again welcome them and to wish them success and happiness in their new home at Crofton, Neb., where the doctor has a good practice in partnership with his brother, Dr. Martin Talcott.

Arthur McColl visited relatives in Arion Saturday. He is now studying law in Des Moines.

Alfred Davis, a brother of John and George Davis, came down from St. Paul on Friday to close a deal whereby he sold his two farms in Union township to Dr. Coon.

Wm. Corey is the proud possessor of a dainty little miss of standard weight, who arrived just two days too late to be a New Year's present.

Mrs. King presented her husband with a fine baby girl as a New Year's present. All are doing well.

The event of the season occurred on Saturday evening at the pleasant home of Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Butler, it being the annual banquet of the Penelope club. This is the only time in the year in which the ladies of this popular club allow the men folk to have any part in their entertainment.

F. O. Ivens was down from Denison on Monday evening to meet with the councilmen in regard to the water works.

George Talcott has rented Hotel Arion for one year and has secured the services of Mrs. Sprague, who formerly ran the house, to cook.

Miss Tena Hansen is visiting her sister at Battle Creek.

W. W. Coon is laid up with a sprained knee.

L. C. Butler has traded for John Miller's 80 acres south of town.

The Misses Duell and Howorth spent the holiday vacation at their homes in Woodbine.

Buck Grove Letter.

John Faulkner and family enjoyed a few days visit from his niece Miss Ryan.

Mrs. Hagan's father Mr. Walworth arrived a few days ago from Lincoln, Neb., to spend the winter with his daughter.

News has reached here that Frank Dwyre and Mrs. Cox formerly of this place were recently married at Lincoln, Nebraska where they are at present residing.

Tade Sullivan has had another relapse, and his many friends regret to hear of his continued illness.

Dr. and Mrs. Bonney with their family of sons and daughters went to Manilla Monday. They returned on the afternoon train bringing the storm with them. Their friends say—no wonder there was a blizzard.

Tom Bonney after a few days visit at home, returned to his duties at Charter Oak Wednesday afternoon.

There was a dance at Manilla Monday night, which was well attended by many of the young people from here notwithstanding the bad weather.

John Griffin Jr. has gone to Neola to resume his studies, at school at that place.

There was a surprise party in honor of Grace Griffin at the home of her grand parents last Thursday. It was well attended and all report a fine time.

Miss Gertrude Bradbury of Denison is visiting her friend Minnie Paulsen for a short time.

Mrs. William Moffitt gave a party for her nephew Forest.

Bert Cruise of Green Co. arrived Monday for a visit with his sister Mrs. John Green and other relatives in this vicinity.

Roy Slater arrived home from Omaha for the holidays. He will go back after New Years to resume his studies. He is taking a course in telegraphy.

Bertha Miller Nellie Sullivan and a few others attended the Leap Year dance at Manilla Friday night.

There was a dance at Mr. Ferguson's Saturday evening. All present report a good time.

Frank Slater had quite a little excitement all to himself the other night. He heard a commotion among his chickens and went out to see what was the matter and found a badger was looking for a feast. It evidently thought Frank looked good and gave chase. Frank fled to the house and left the chickens to their fate with the badger in full possession of the field. The later facts we have not yet learned.

Mr. W. V. Whaley of Dow City, transacted business here Saturday.

Miss Nellie Conner of Manilla, visited friends in this vicinity Friday.

The Misses Mae and Fannie Hays have arrived home from their respective schools for the holidays. They will return to college in a few days.

Mrs. Ben Carpenter and Mr. Dick Pence visited the children of the latter, who are being well taken care of at an orphanage at Council Bluffs.

Mr. George Harvey was absent all last week invoicing for the Stewart Lumber Co. Miss Lydia Fry of Coon Grove visited friends in town Friday.

Sidney Bonney was a Deafness visitor last Saturday evening. Who is the attraction Sid?

H. G. Iseninger and wife after spending Christmas with their daughter Mrs. Miles at Underwood, returned home Saturday.

Mr. Ben Quathamer is enjoying a visit from one of his brothers from Nebraska.

Mrs. Jane Slater has been quite ill for several days but is better and able to be up which is good news to her many friends.

BAMFORD'S ANNOUNCEMENT

Make Your Every Dollar Worth Two Here Now

Extra Special

Don't pass this opportunity to buy Silks at a fraction of the Wholesale Cost. The single item quoted here will give you an idea of the phenomenal reductions. A full 36-inch guaranteed Black Beau de Soi Silk worth $1.50, the quantity is limited, so come quick, at per yd. 69c

Every Article In the House Marked Down

The final adjustment of the M. M. Bamford stock of Dry Goods and Men's and Women's Furnishings begins FRIDAY, JANUARY 6th, and continues for two weeks, ending Saturday, January 21st. The radical reductions made during the Forced Adjustment Sale September last, will sink into utter insignificance in comparison to the price concessions made here now to Finally Adjust This Stock to the size necessary and compatible with the existing circumstances. There are NO OLD GOODS HERE, everything the present season's stock and the quality as usual with M. M. Bamford, the best. Every article in the house is included, no matter what is wanted the price has been unmercifully CUT TO FORCE THE SELLING. To overlook this opportunity of supplying the future wants as well as the present is economical suicide, as the entire stock will be thrown on the market REGARDLESS OF PRICE VALUE OR COST. Come early and have the large assortment to choose from.

Remember this Slaughter of Good New Merchandise Begins Friday, Jan. 6th and Continues to Saturday, January 21st. Inclusive
