Laub Block, Denison, Iowa

is Tuesday with Mrs. Kahler, has returned from Iowa. Mrs. Mills has been having a bad grippe. Mr. Andrew Bell of Dow City spent Friday in Denison. Miss Rose Sarachon has been on the sick list this week. Mr. John Faszi was in Omaha on business on Saturday. Miss Lillie Raige made her usual trip to Dunlap on Friday. The Coffee Club will meet with Mrs. J. B. Romans on Thursday. Mr. W. C. Rollins transacted business in Omaha on Saturday. Mr. Gus Retman is visiting his sister in Edgar, Neb. this week. Frank Lally took No. 3 on Friday to visit with Woodbine friends. The W. C. T. U. will meet with Mrs. Branch on Thursday afternoon. The Coterie Club will meet Thursday with Mrs. O. A. Patterson. Mr. Earl Hart is much better and will soon be as well as ever again. Miss Rachel Baer is still very ill at the home of her brother S. M. Baer. The Shakespeare club will meet Monday night with Mrs. Geo. Richardson. Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Wiley of Dow City were Denison shoppers on Friday. Mr. H. W. Gould is improving very rapidly which will be good news to his friends. Miss Florence Baker spent her Christmas vacation with relatives at Charter Oak. Miss Mary Gebert is making a short visit with her grandmother Mrs. Osborne at Logan. Mrs. Will Laub was called to Jefferson Wednesday night by the illness of her mother, Mrs. Austin. Mrs. C. W. Carr was among those who attended the Fegan-Goddard wedding at Dow City last week. Mr. Fleming of Deloit transacted business in Denison on Saturday, not forgetting his old friend THE REVIEW. The Presbyterian Missionary Society will hold its meeting with Mrs. Jacobson on Wednesday afternoon of this week. The S. S. C. will meet at the club room Tuesday night. Miss Ione Romans is chairman of the menu committee. Miss Belle Marshall left on Sunday for Des Moines where she is taking a course in kindergarten at the Drake University. Mr. and Mrs. John Brown have returned from Spencer, Iowa where they went on a wedding trip and will soon be at home to their friends. Mr. Edward Griffith who has been visiting relatives in Denison and Missouri Valley for the past week has returned to his home in Mitchell, S. D. Miss Margaret Gibson who has been assisting in the care of her uncle Mr. Frank Gibson returned to her home in Des Moines on Wednesday. Mrs. R. A. Romang after so successfully carrying on the field meet of the P. E. O. Brothers-in-law has gone to Mapleton for a visit with Miss Christian. On Saturday evening Paul Kuhl gave a jolly party to his friends and on Monday evening Vernie Kuhl entertained her friends. Both parties were very pleasant. At a recent business meeting all the officers in the Presbyterian Sabbath school were re-elected by unanimous vote. The school is under splendid management and is doing fine work.

M. E. Steensen of Route 6, called on THE REVIEW man Saturday and deposited his guesses on the Plymouth Rock gentlemen, whose careers end on the 26th. The Nevada Representative tells that J. E. Drybread, formerly in business here, has taken his family to San Antonio, Texas, on a general health tour. Manager Wheeler informs us that it is not all profit in the Electric Light business. The coal bill for the Denison concern for the month of December was $500. A crowd of young people drove out to Pat Behan's on Friday evening. During the evening a number of games were played and at a late hour delicious refreshments were served. Mr. E. S. Miles is one of the few farmers who keeps up his interest in bee culture and who makes a success of it. The honey he has for sale is fine and finds a ready market. On Wednesday Mrs. Voss entertained at luncheon the Misses Rollinson, Kirkup, Galick, Sewell and Stoner. The young ladies had a most charming visit and lunch with their delightful hostess. Penelope had a delightful meeting with Mrs. Dr. Boyle on Thursday. Mrs. Boyle was assisted in serving very nice two course refreshments by Mesdames Kirkup and Gibson. The next meeting will be held with Mrs. Naeve. The Misses Schlumberger entertained on Friday evening the jolly high school young people. The young ladies proved to be charming hostesses and the evening was a delightful duplicate of the other parties given during the Yule-tide. The social whist club had a very pleasant meeting with Mr. and Mrs. Kuehn on Thursday. The guests were delighted to meet Mrs. Kuehn's sisters, Mesdames Perkins and Bartholomew. Mrs. Kuehn served very elegant refreshments. Mrs. Jones has received word that her sister Miss Miles reached her new home in Buenos Ayres. She met with a very warm reception from her friends there and is now nicely settled in her new studio with all of her old pupils and many new ones. Mrs. Phoebe Lister called at THE REVIEW office to make sure that her advertisement of furniture for sale was not in this issue. She said the people commenced coming the morning the paper was out and that she could have sold twice as much had she wished. She is convinced that advertising pays. Our old time friend, P. W. Weberg of Kiron, called on us on Saturday. Mr. Weberg is a democrat, but a good friend of THE REVIEW of which he has been a reader for more than twenty years. We trust that, in spite of politics, Mr. Weberg and THE REVIEW may continue on the best of terms for another twenty years. The High School young folks have been finding vacation "one sweet but alas not long song." On Wednesday night they went en masse to the home of Miss Clara Strahn and had such a good time that it was morning by the bright light before they returned. However no one felt of the hay rack either coming or going. Miss Ethel Gulick left Wednesday for what promises to be "the time of her life". As a guest of Secretary and Mrs. Shaw, social Washington will be an open sesame to her, and we are sure in the garden of pretty girls Miss Ethel will hold her own. We join with all her friends in wishing her a most delightful winter and a safe return.

Mr. E. W. Pierce paid Dow City a visit on Monday. Mr. J. W. Mills went to Des Moines Tuesday on a business trip. Miss Mary O'Shea of Vail, was a Saturday shopper in Denison. Mr. W. E. Cole of the McHenry farm is among the sick ones this week. Mrs. Geo. Flint of Manilla, is a guest at the home of Mr. M. Bohart this week. Mr. W. H. Laub is still confined to his home entertaining a life-sized case of la grippe. Mrs. E. C. Baum and children returned last Saturday from a visit with relatives at Soranton. Mrs. Chamberlin and Mrs. Hailo-well and daughters of Dow City, spent Saturday in Denison. Misses Emma and Nettie Winklehofer of Newark, N. S., visited last week with Mrs. N. J. Wheeler. Misses Jennie and Clara McAndrews, of Vail, were the guests of Miss Stacy Denahy one day last week. Mr. Robert Bollen returned to his home in Clinton, this week after a pleasant visit with his brother, Chas. Bollen. Architect E. Schoentgen, of Council Bluffs, spent Monday in Denison, going over the details of construction of the Balle-Brodersen block. Elmer Mauritz of Kiron was a pleasant Denison caller on Friday. He is now on the road representing Ross and Co. the Chicago drug concern. Mr. and Mrs. L. D. McLeod of Armour, S. D., were welcome guests at the Bradbury home last week. Mrs. McLeod is a sister to Mrs. Bradbury. Mr. Geo. Berlinghoff of Beatrice, Neb., architect in the construction of the new court house, is in Denison this week supervising the work of the building. Mr. Joachim Heick of Bloomfield, Neb. is in Denison visiting relatives. He left Denison some seven years ago and this is his first visit to his old home. Mrs. Adeline Smith of Zeating, Iowa, visited with her brothers, Mr. Green McAhren and W. J. McAhren, this week on her return home from an Omaha trip. Born to Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Barber on Friday, Jan. 6, a son. Mother and child are doing well and great is the joy in the Barber household. THE REVIEW congratulates. Mr. Wm. Rule, who is managing the Arion Mill, made Denison a brief visit on Monday. He says that Arion is growing steadily and that the mill is doing a good business. Mr. and Mrs. D. Ringer and children are spending their vacation time visiting Denison friends. Mr. Ringer has a good position in South Omaha and appears hearty and prosperous. The ladies of Trinity Guild are planning to hold a social afternoon on Wednesday of next week at the home of Mrs. S. G. Wright. They extend a cordial invitation to all to attend. The Woman's club met Monday night in the club room. Mrs. Nash read the history paper and Mrs. Cochran the art paper. The club are enjoying the year in Holland very much. Mr. J. A. Langan of Sioux City was in Denison on Friday coming to Crawford to look after his business interests. He will keep track of our county affairs through the medium of the REVIEW hereafter. THE REVIEW is anxious to obtain good correspondent service from all points in the county not now represented in our columns. We will take it as a favor if you will suggest some good correspondent from your vicinity.

Mr. P. W. Harding made Kiron a business visit on Friday. Little James Schlumberger knows how to spend his vacation. Monday after school let out he went into the country to visit at Geo. Hugg's place and did not return until the Saturday before school began. Friends have received word from Muskogee, I. T., that Miss O'Hare has a fine position in the schools of the city and that Sam O'Hare is in partnership with his brother-in-law, Mr. James Hart, in the law business. Installation of officers of the Sons of Veteran Camp will take place on Saturday evening, Feb. 11. The editor acknowledges an invitation which he accepts most willingly, having in mind numerous pleasant similar occasions of the past. Through an error in our account of the Mahan-Lally wedding last week the beautiful soprano solo sung at the church was given by Mrs. Alice White-Lorenzen. Mrs. Lorenzen has a beautiful voice of which the public has heard but little of late. On Friday night Mrs. Sears McHenry paid Mr. C. C. Tabor the pretty compliment of a dinner. Eight guests enjoyed a perfectly elegant dinner. The table decorations were a beautiful bouquet of the queen of flowers, roses. A four course dinner was perfectly served and the guests had a very delightful evening together. On Saturday the Denison postmaster conducted the examination of three applicants for carrier on the route to be established out of Arion on Jan. 16th. These papers are all marked by the civil service commission in Washington and the postmaster who holds the examination is in charge simply to see that no applicant takes an unfair advantage. Mr. A. Christy, who is now residing at Bell, spent Monday in Denison. Mr. Christy has been ill for some time and is now making his rounds for the first time in several months. He reports that Lovering & Brown, the firm for which he has worked for twenty-four years has recognized his services by giving him the general agency of several counties. Mr. Frank Carr, who has been visiting his brother, Dr. C. W. Carr, returned to his Chicago home on Sunday evening. Dr. Carr is improving slowly and expects as soon as his health permits to go to a sanitarium in Omaha, and from thence probably to Hot Springs, Ark. It will be some months before he regains his former health. Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Bullock leave this week for an extended California visit. They will go by the Southern route, spending a few days at El Paso, making an excursion in Old Mexico and then re-suming their trip to the coast, where they expect to remain until warm weather comes again in Iowa. We trust they will have a delightful time and we send greetings to the Denison colony in Southern California. Mr. J. D. Kelly, formerly of this county, but now a resident of Mitchell, S. D., has been spending the past two weeks visiting friends and relatives in this vicinity. Mr. Kelly is evidently prosperous and appears to like his Dakota home very much. He deposited his guesses on THE REVIEW rooster and left shipping orders for the handsome buggy which he will doubtless win unless some one else does. On Tuesday evening of last week the American Odd Fellows installed the following officers for the ensuing year: H. W. Scaggs, Deputy Grand Master performing the installation services; John Weiss, N. G.; S. M. Thew, V. G.; Peter Krauth, Sec.; John Schnoor, Treas.; H. W. Scaggs, R. S. V. C.; J. W. Barber, I. G.; Wm. VonDohlen, and John Mount, R. and L. Scene Supporters; Theo. Kuhl, Past Grand Selection of this fine corps of officers guarantees to the lodge a successful year's work.

Diphtheria is prevalent at Schleswig. Mr. Chas. Tabor spent Tuesday in Omaha. Dr. L. M. Coon, of Arion, visited Denison on Monday. Mr. and Mrs. B. McCord of Kenwood were shopping in our city Friday. J. W. Baker had a pleasant birthday surprise on Wednesday of last week. Mr. Frank Gibson and Charles Saul Jr. are reported as slowly improving. Mrs. Staley had a pleasant visit with her daughter from Webster City, during the holidays. Mrs. Schafer left this week for a visit with her son M. J. Schafer, of Portsmouth, Iowa. Mr. H. L. Messenbrink of Mapleton, was a business caller at the county seat Monday. The Presbyterian ladies are planning to hold a Rummage Sale sometime in the near future. At the semi-annual election of the German M. E. Epworth League, Mr. Emil Hugg was elected President for the ensuing term. Elder Pett of Union township, spent Monday in Denison. He is one of the "old timers" whom it is always a pleasure to see. Mrs. Crandall of Dow City, was a guest on Saturday of Mrs. A. L. Hart. Earl is improving and will soon be able to be out once more. Born to Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Cramer on Wednesday, Jan. 11th a son. The Senator is happy and we congratulate him upon the new deputy. Bartley Haley was in from Paradise Saturday and reported his brother John as convalescing; his friends were pleased to hear the encouraging report. Such is life. Last week we issued what might be termed a "wedding number;" this week our columns contain the notice of many deaths. And such is journalism. The Rev. K. B. Welland of Le Mars a retired minister of the German Presbyterian church occupied the German M. E. pulpit Sunday morning. He visits at the home of Mr. H. F. Schwartz. Many friends will be grieved to learn of the death on Tuesday morning of Mrs. Feurman a sister of Mrs. P. J. Farrelly. The deceased had recently graduated as a trained nurse and returned to the hospital in Sioux City for an operation for appendicitis which proved fatal. Mr. Taid Sullivan died at the Faulkner home in Washington township on Monday, Jan. 19th. The funeral services were held at St. Rose of Lima's church on Tuesday afternoon, Rev. Father M. J. Farrelly officiating. Mr. Sullivan was a man of thirty and leaves a wife and numerous relatives to mourn his death.

WE LAUNDRER

Men's White Vests

And our way of laundering them is better than the ordinary way—it produces better results. It does that because we see to it that the vests we launder are carefully handled—are properly starched and are ironed in such a manner they retain their original shape. We also launder shirts, collars and cuffs, in the same manner. If you are particular about these points we can please you.

Architect Berlinghoff is rejoicing over having been awarded a $120,000 court house at Seward, Neb. Mr. James Dawes of the United States Army, stationed at Fort Riley, Kansas, is at home on a brief furlough. Miss Leona Grantz entertained a number of her girl friends at six o'clock dinner on Saturday at the home of Dr. Robinson. Chairman H. C. Schroeder went to South Omaha on Monday for the purpose of buying feeders for his fine farm in Morgan township. Tonight promises to be a busy one for Denisonites. The supper given by the Home Mission Society at the Scriber home will attract many, while later in the evening the Masons have a special meeting, the Modern Woodmen install their officers, the Redmen install their officers and the Commercial Club holds its annual election.
