A marriage license was issued by the county clerk last night to Fernin J. Newcom and Miss Edna Brodgers. Both of these young people are well known and we hope to tell more concerning their wedding in our next issue.

Mr. Geo. Rae and family are having a delightful winter in Los Angeles. Mr. Rae met Mr. W. H. Woolston on the street by a happy chance and has met many of the Crawford County Colony. Mr. Rae's health is much improved.

Mr. M. T. Glasco agent for the Great Western Accident Association is in the city and is meeting with good success. The company is a sound one and the policy is fair and liberal. Mr. John Rollins will act as local agent of the company.

H. H. Sturgis of the Charter Oak Times and C. C. Vail of the Vail Observer were interested onlookers at the board meeting to-day. They seemed perfectly friendly even though they do claim each others lists are fraudulent.

Sher Ainsworth reports that the new laundry has been doing very nicely and that the patronage has been all that he could ask for the opening week. Mr. Woodruff, the superintendent, says they are having their hands full and that all patrons have been satisfied both with the quality and the speed of the work done.

The concert given by the Symphony orchestra gave general satisfaction, although perhaps the orchestra was not as good as in former appearances here, the program lacking variety. The next Lecture Course number is the Temple Quartette, billed here for Feb. 8th. Leon Cassaday says this quartette is the finest and the most expensive obtainable from any Lyceum bureau.

On Tuesday Mrs. Naeve entertained Penelope most charmingly. Her hospitality included a number of guests outside the club and all the ladies present had a most social afternoon. Mrs. George Rumsey, the Misses Barber, Bedford and McHenry were the out-of-town guests. Mrs. Naeve's home was beautifully decorated with flowers and carnations were guest favors. The Misses Naeve, McHenry and Mrs. Rumsey assisted Mrs. Naeve in serving perfect refreshments.

"Every cell has a cold steel lining" is the new version adopted at the county jail. A steel jacket, eight feet high is being placed around three sides of the main room of the county jail. The old jail has been as full of port-holes as an old-time battle ship and it is hoped that the steel lining will at least induce prisoners to leave some of the jail behind them when they make their getaway in future. The Romans Co. has the contract which amounts to something over $500.

OBITUARY.

Annie Tregetta Hemby, daughter of David P. and Ann Delila Hemby was born in Little Rock Pulaski county, Ark. Apr. 30 1842. During the war of 1846 when a little child she went with her mother to Charleston S. C. where her mother died, after which she went to live with her grandmother Pendleton at Peru, Indiana. At about 12 years of age she moved to Geneseo, Ill.

She united with the Methodist Episcopal church at the age of 18. September 14, 1861 she was united in marriage at Wethersfield, Ill. to Lyman Francillon Morris. They moved to Deloit in 1865 where they resided up to the time of her death which occurred Jan. 11 1905

She leaves a kind and loving husband to mourn her loss. Unto them were born Lilly L. wife of Stephen D. Newton, of this place, Jennie Louisa, wife of Wm. R. Hensen, Chinook, Mont., Helen Leona wife of Rev. W. C. Lee of West Concord Minn., Lois Lovicie the youngest daughter who is still living at home. She has one sister Mrs. Wm. Cose who has lived near her most of her life and was able to help care for her during her illness, also three grandchildren, Ethel daughter of Stephen and Lilly Newton married to Albert Winey, Sadie her sister and Helen Maude daughter of Rev. W. C. and Helen Leona Lee and one great grandson Eldridge Lyman Winey son of Ethel and Albert Winey.

The funeral services were held Friday at one o'clock from the Methodist Episcopal church by Rev. Thomas Stone from her chosen text found in Mark 14 chapter 8 verse. "She hath done what she could" Lesson St. John 14th chapter. The remains were laid at rest in the Deloit cemetery. She was a loving wife and Christian mother and a kind neighbor always ready to lend a helping hand to those in need, was patient and cheerful during her long illness. Her children can indeed rise up and call her blessed.

"The last feeble step has been taken The gates of that city appear, The beautiful songs of the angels Float out on my listening ear; Now all that seemed so mysterious Is as bright and clear as the day; Now the tolls of the road are nothing For I've got to the end of the way."

Mrs. Peter Beeremaker died at her west of Denison on Saturday, Jan. 14th. The cause of her death was pneumonia. The funeral services were held on Tuesday at the home, Rev. W. E. Bryoe officiating. Mrs. Beeremaker was a native of Paris, France and was about 80 years of age, she had 30 relatives in this country except her grandson, Mr. Frank Nelson. Mrs. Beeremaker was a good christian woman, devoted to her home and her family and beloved by all who knew her.

Prof. M. C. Hover has left Denison and has started a music studio at Sioux City. During his stay here Mr. Hover has proved himself a music teacher of great ability. As a violin teacher he was very good and as Sioux City seems to be short of first class teachers of this instrument he hopes to do well in that line. As a gentleman and a citizen Mr. Hover has been all that could be asked and we heartily commend him to Sioux City people in every way and hope for his continued success. Miss Lillie Raine, Miss Bertha Newcome and Miss Genevieve Lally are taking up his work at the Denison College for the present and all of them are competent and work will be carried on successfully.

WE LAUNDRY

Men's White Vests

And our way of laundering them is better than the ordinary way—it produces better results. It does that because we see to it that the vests we launder are carefully handled—are properly starched and are ironed in such a manner they retain their original shape. We also launder shirts, collars and cuffs, in the same manner. If you are particular about these points we can please you.
