NEDDERMEYER CASE A DRAW.

Detailed Account of Court Proceedings Mch Business Transacted in a Short Time; Docket Well Cleared.

Neddermeyer vs Crawford county occupied the attention of the court and jury Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of last week. The county changed the location of the highway past the plaintiff's farm in Charter Oak township, and in the change took about an acre and a quarter of Neddermeyer's land. Neddermeyer claimed that by reason of the change in the highway he was unable to drive his cattle across the railroad track to his pasture and corn stocks, without great danger of having his stock killed, thus necessitating the employment of extra help to carry on the business of his farm; also that the county had made a sharp angle in the road which made it impossible to drive around the curve with a four horse team, and he asked $5000 damages. The court instructed the jury that they must find for the plaintiff in some amount, and submitted to them a form of verdict leaving a blank space for the jury to fill in the amount. The jury, however, stayed out until 4 o'clock Saturday morning and returned a sealed verdict. When the court opened the verdict it was found that the jury had simply signed the blank verdict without filling in any amount. A motion for a new trial will undoubtedly be filed.

O. J. Pett vs S. Vengrovitch was tried to the court, the jury being waived. Pett borrowed $400.00 from Vengrovitch of Dow City and gave him a mortgage on his farm. Vengrovitch gave Pett a check on Green's Exchange Bank for the money, and the next day when Pett went to the bank to get the money on the check the bank was closed. Pett then demanded the return of his note and mortgage, but Vengrovitch refused to give them up and transferred to a third party and Pett had them to pay, so Pett brought action against Vengrovitch to recover back the money. Vengrovitch contended that if Pett had presented the check on the day he received it he would have received the money, and Pett was therefore negligent and to blame for the nonpayment of the check. Pett claimed, however, that he did not receive the check until after banking hours. The court found that the plaintiff had presented the check and gave him judgment for the amount claimed.

Gustav Jeschke vs Reinhard Jeschke; judgment for plaintiff for $435.00, 6 per cent interest.

Monheimer & Co. vs Marcus Horst; judgment for plaintiff on account of $228.84, 6 per cent interest.

John Clausen vs Max Stickleburg; judgment for plaintiff on itemized account for $44.10; 6 per cent interest.

Schmitt & Henry Mfg. Co. vs L. E. Anthony; judgment for plaintiff on an account for $303.26, 6 per cent interest.

Miller, Stewart & Beaton Furniture & Carpet Co. vs L. E. Anthony; judgment for plaintiff on an account for $72.02, 6 per cent interest.

Geo. R. Knight vs Hannah Nissen and Niss Nissen; judgment for plaintiff on promissory note for $351.58, 8 per cent interest.

Schmitt & Henry Mfg. Co. vs T. E. Shaw; judgment for plaintiff on account for $120.77, 6 per cent interest.

A. F. Kadoch vs R. C. Jesenke; judgment for plaintiff on promissory note for $750.35, 8 per cent interest.

P. W. Harding, Trustee, vs Henry Hoefler; judgment for plaintiff on promissory note for $567.78, 8 per cent interest.

Divorces were granted to the plaintiffs in the following cases, the defendants failing to appear and make defense: Silencie Daz vs Albert Daz, desertion; Marilda Matthews vs Oliver Matthews, desertion.

Martha Dederick vs T. J. Dederick, habitual drunkenness.

Aloneda Denison vs Alva H. Denison, desertion.

In the cases of Chas. W. Betsche & Co. and Bonderot, Chase & Co. vs Henry Hoefler, Julius Clausen, garnishee, the garnishee answered that he had about 1300 bushels of corn in his possession belonging to the defendant. The court ordered the garnishee to turn over to the sheriff enough of the corn to pay the judgments of the plaintiffs in both cases.

Matilda Groth vs John Groth; plaintiff was given judgment for possession of household goods. Mrs. Groth also obtained a divorce last week.

In the case of Ellis vs the Bulletin Publishing Co. the plaintiff has filed a motion for a change of venue on the ground that he cannot obtain a fair trial in Crawford county on account of the prejudice of the people. The court has not yet ruled on the motion.

The cases of W. H. Smith vs W. J. McAlhren, David Oakley vs T. A. Kearnes & Co.; Abner Graves vs Edmund (Riddle were stricken from the calendar.

When the case of G. T. Hood vs S. E. Wright, et al was reached for trial the plaintiff dismissed, without prejudice. E. Gulick vs Frank Nelson; dismissed and costs paid.

The following cases were settled and dismissed; Beebe & Runyan vs Henry Hoefler; New York Wall Paper Co. vs Henry Hoefler; Herman Grill vs Mary Hepler; Ernestine Schneider vs Carl Schneider; Pat Hederman vs Hans Ch. Jensen.

Will of Susan Patchin, deceased, admitted to probate and Geo. S. Jordan, appointed administrator. Will of James H. Smith admitted to probate; Edward M. Smith appointed executor with will annexed, bond fixed at 100.00; Will of Carl Schult admitted to probate, Mary Schult appointed executor without bond.

Final reports were filed and approved and executors and administrators discharged in the estates of John O'Connor, Joseph Barta and Bridget Vernon.

In the Matter of the Probate of the Will of Rhinehart Klnkefus, Kate Hench and Rosens M. Cotrell, daughters of the deceased, have filed objections to the probating of the will on the ground that the testator was not of sound mind at the time he executed the will. His widow also files an election to take under the law instead of under the will, and an application for an allowance for her support. The estate is valued at about $15,500.00. Case was continued until the next term of court.

The case of Ahart Bros. vs Shugart will be taken up today before jury. This case grows out of a railroad excavating contract.

RESOLUTIONS.

RESOLVED By Deloit Camp No 5881, M. W. A. in open session assembled that WHEREAS In the inexorable workings of Nature and the will of the Divine Father Mrs. Susan Patchin, the aged, honored and beloved mother of our esteemed neighbors, Milo Patchin, E. K. Patchin, Orval McKim, and of the wife of our esteemed neighbor, C. J. Newcom, Mrs. Nellie Newcom, has passed beyond the border that divides this short span we call life from eternity now therefore. Be it

RESOLVED by this camp that our hearts go out in sympathy for these sorrowing ones in this their hour of deep bereavement.

That we realize that in the departure of mother a loss is sustained that this life can never repair. Therefore, we can only commend these bleeding souls to the All-Father and to the hope ever verdant in the human breast that the passing is all for a little time, to be followed by a happy reunion in the realms of light beyond.

RESOLVED That a copy of these resolutions be sent to each of the sorrowing ones; be published in THE DENISON REVIEW and be spread upon the record of the camp.

STANLEY BROWNE SKINSEVER HORROR.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Weiss are rejoicing over the advent of their thirteenth child, a daughter, born Jan. 24, 1905. We congratulate the happy parents. Thirteen is an unlucky number, but then it is not as if the matter could not be remedied.

Arion News Letter

C. W. Underhill is making the towns around here on his spring trip, and dropping in to spend the night occasionally with his parents.

Peter Eggers of Hartington, Neb., come in on Saturday night and went to Denison to see his father Henry Eggers who is very sick.

Frank Stone was up from Dow City on business Saturday.

Chas. McHenry was transacting business in this vicinity Saturday.

N. P. Underhill took in six hundred bushels of wheat all in one consignment of 12 teams on Saturday.

Our enterprising merchant Mr. Conrad served hot biscuit to his customers on Monday and hot coffee on Tuesday advertising a new baking powder and a new coffee of Faxton Gallagher.

We are glad to announce that Miss Deuel is again able to be in her place in the school room. Miss Deuel was offered a position much better than the one she now holds here if she would go into the Denison schools, and we feared we should lose her, but are glad for the good of Arion that she has decided to remain with us.

Rev. Bentley was a guest at the W. W. Coon home on Monday. He is the new Baptist minister at Dow City and an effort is being made to have him preach in Arion two Sundays in each month.

Dr. Coon will give a talk in the school building Friday evening next at 8 o'clock sharp. All the school children in the upper room, and the parents of the children and any one interested in a Higher Education are invited to be present. Admission free, and the subject will be The Wonders of the Body and its Care and Development. The orchestra will render some beautiful music and everyone is cordially invited to come, whether they live in town or in the country.

Mrs. Henry Doidge met with a painful accident last week which caused her lots of trouble for a small thing. She stuck a large needle in the palm of her hand and it broke off, leaving a small piece in the joint so that she could not bend the finger. On Thursday she came to the hospital and an operation was done, and the offending needle point removed.

On Friday Mrs. Jackson and Mrs. Cassaday from Denison and Frank McHenry and family of Dow City were all at the W. W. Coon home to celebrate the seventieth birthday of Mrs. Coon as they were unable to come on the first of October when her birthday really was and was celebrated.

A young lady who is blind gave an eloquent entertainment in the Congregational church on Monday evening assisted by home talent. A good time is reported.

FRANK YOUNG HURT.

Seriously Injured in Denver Runaway Accident.

UNCONSCIOUS SINCE SUNDAY

Bright Denison Boy Suffers Concussion of the Brain. Doctors Say He Will Live. His Mother With Him.

F. J. Young, jr. was seriously injured in a runaway accident at Denver on Sunday. He now lies unconscious at St. Luke's hospital in that city. His mother is with him and a letter from her this morning states that while he is still unconscious the doctors state that this is not unusual in such accidents, that there are no broken bones or contusions and that on account of his splendid physical condition he will undoubtedly survive the fearful accident.

The account of the accident is best given in the Denver paper from which we quote:

Frank Young of the real estate firm of Griffith & Young, 312 Boston building, was hurled from his runabout at 11 o'clock yesterday morning, at the corner of Thirteenth and Grand avenues, and sustained a severe fracture of the skull. Late last night he was still unconscious and small hopes were entertained for his recovery.

Mrs. Edith Samuelson, proprietress of the Sylvania at 305 West Colfax avenue, where Mr. Young lived, and with whom he was driving at the time, was also thrown, but with the exception of slight bruises and severe nervous shock she was uninjured.

Mr. Young was to have been married to Miss Edith Delay of Onarga, Ill. in a month. Immediately after the accident telegrams were sent to Miss Delay and to the parents of Mr. Young at Denison, Ia., the family home. The fiancée of the injured man is now speeding to his bedside as fast as steam can carry her. She will arrive this afternoon.

Although he has been in Denver only four months, Mr. Young is well known. He is a member of the Denver Athletic club and an excellent athlete. He is 26 years old. He bought a horse and runabout last week and was exceedingly proud of his acquisition. Yesterday was about the third time he had driven his horse. The couple had been gone from the boarding house only a few minutes before the horse took fright.

Dashing down Grand avenue, the frenzied animal swerved at Thirteenth avenue. Young was violently hurled to the ground. As he fell he threw the reins over the horse's back. Mrs. Samuelson was helpless. The horse struck the high stone wall which surrounds the old Tabor residence. This was taken at a bound. The buggy was dashed to pieces, but Mrs. Samuelson's coat caught, supposedly on the whip socket, and she was dragged for fifty feet.

The crazed horse, with remnants of the light runabout, tore through the trees and shrubs, across the big yard, through a heavy iron fence which divides the old Tabor property and that of Attorney A. C. Phelps. The animal was finally caught after it had demolished another heavy iron fence between the Phelps residence and that of Charles Boettcher, 1201 Grant Ave. Picked up unconscious, Mr. Young and Mrs. Samuelson were carried into the home of Mrs. W. R. Armstrong, 1260 Sherman avenue, the former Tabor residence. Mrs. Samuelson regained consciousness after a short time and was removed to her home.

The injured man was taken to St. Luke's hospital, where he still lies under the almost constant care of Drs. Chas. Jaeger, Edmund Rogers and Howell Perishing.

News of the accident was received here on Sunday evening and Mrs. Young left for Denver on the earliest possible train. His father is nearly distracted with grief and anxiety and his many friends here are anxiously awaiting the latest news from him.

On Saturday last Frank wrote his parents that he had just been examined for life insurance and that the physicians had pronounced him in perfect health. His friends are therefore banking on his splendid physique to pull him through.

Frank Young is one of the most deservedly popular young men Denison has ever produced. Some years ago he fell heir to a large sum of money enough to have turned the heads of most lads, but he remained the same quiet, gentlemanly fellow. He attended the university at Evanston, Ill. and there met the young lady who is to be his bride in June. Last November he went to Denver and there entered into the real estate business with H. M. Griffiths. He was highly successful and bade fair to become as popular as he was here. As we go to press we learn that a telegram has been received from Mrs. Young saying that "Frank is slowly recovering. No serious results anticipated." Our sincerest best wishes go to Frank for his speedy recovery. As soon as he is sufficiently recovered it is planned to bring him home to Denison for rest and convalescence.
