

THE COUNTY REVIEW

Latest News from all parts of Crawford, Gathered by the Field Editor and Corps of Correspondents.

Buck Grove

Dr. Bonney transacted business in Arion Monday.

Dr. Coon of Arion, was in town Monday on professional business.

Dr. Bonney arrived home Thursday after a two months' absence.

Mr. W. V. Whaley of Dow City, transacted business here on Monday.

Dr. Bonney wanted to make garden Monday, but the neighbors persuaded him to wait a pair of months.

Pearle Bonney, after a few days' experience with the la grippe, resumed her school duties on Monday.

Lucy Kane closed a very successful term of school last Friday, and is now enjoying a well earned vacation.

Jack Welsh found it necessary to put a concrete foundation under his engine. It was ready to use again Monday, and Jack is busy.

Andrew Miller visited at home from Manila Sunday and Thursday. He brought a friend, Mr. Claasson, with him to dinner on the latter day.

Richard Hansen of Scranton, has purchased Mr. Brownell's barbering outfit and will after this attend to the wants of the people in that direction.

Marie Gigax, who has been Mr. R. J. Moffitt's very efficient clerk for over a year, has resigned, and we will see her smiling face behind the counter no more.

Julia Rusterholtz, after a severe illness of two weeks' duration, is again at her post of duty in L. W. Hagan's store. Her many friends are glad to see her back again.

Mr. Brownell, the barber, has sold out his interest here and will move his family to Sioux City this week. He will not follow the barber trade any more for the present.

Mrs. White, who has been quite sick for several weeks, was considerably better, but caught a little cold and had a relapse, from which she is slowly recovering at this writing.

Berice Bonney arrived home from Denison Tuesday afternoon and was sick all week with la grippe, but was able to go back to school on Monday, after nearly a week's illness.

Anna Jensen is lying very ill at the home of her father, Henry Jensen. It is to be hoped that her sickness will not prove serious, and that she will soon be restored to health.

Patrick Sullivan and family moved last Tuesday onto a farm they recently purchased near Dunlap. We are sorry to lose this estimable family, and hope they will do well in their new home.

Onie Bicknell of Sioux City, visited with friends here last Sunday. Onie and his brother Jay left this week for North Dakota, where they will remain a certain length of time on their claims that action, so as to comply with the law.

Mrs. George Harvey enjoyed a visit of Friday from an old friend, a pharmer from Cherokee. He was looking for a location for a dry goods store, but as this field is already occupied he decided to go farther.

Sidney Bonney rode home on horseback a week ago Sunday for a visit at home. The mud was only a few feet deep in places, but Sid said he didn't mind a little thing like that, just so he could get back to Buck Grove a little while.

The popular conductor of the C. M. and St. Paul R. R., Mr. Jackson, who passes through here daily, has been having a very serious time with hay fever for a week past. He is better at this writing and his numerous friends rejoice.

Services were held at the Catholic church Sunday at 9 o'clock a. m., at the Methodist at 11 o'clock, a. m., and at the German Lutheran at 4 p. m. It is something unusual to have so many services in one day in our little town.

When Mr. Fowler, our general station agent, opened up his cave, thinking summer had come, he found that a gopher had penetrated to the warm, dark confines, and proceeded to have a hilarious old time, as a result of which it took Mr. Fowler many weary hours to remove the ton or so of dirt that the industrious little quadruped drew into the cavern.

Dow City.

George Crandall is a little better this week.

Chas. Miller went to Colorado Wednesday night.

N. R. Wilder tried farming last week and got his ankle sprained.

J. N. Leslie and Wm. Pett each shipped a car of hogs to Omaha Thursday.

Mrs. J. E. Nicewonger went to Albany, Illinois, Friday, to visit her parents.

Will Butler, Jr., left on Wednesday for Denver, Colorado, for a change of climate.

Wm. Claycomb went to Boone Saturday to look for a position as railway fireman.

Thomas Ahart and Robert Houston shipped two cars of cattle each to Chicago Saturday.

John Hargens of near Mondamin, came in Saturday afternoon to call on former neighbors.

Jacob Wiess of Denison, was down on Saturday to look after the shipment of two cars of cattle which he shipped to Chicago Monday.

Mrs. J. R. Best was at Denison Friday visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Koenekamp.

J. B. Davis and wife, and her sister, Miss Ethel Robinson, left on Friday for Los Angeles, California. They could not get berths on Wednesday.

J. L. Maurer was down from Arion on business Saturday afternoon.

Robert Woodruff drove to Denison Saturday to transact some business.

Rev. N. V. Sheldon is home for a visit with his family from his missionary labors.

Thomas McBride of Defiance, visited with relatives and friends here this week.

Miss Metta McHenry went to Denison Saturday to make her home with her grandparents again.

Mrs. J. U. Wise was down from Arion Saturday calling on friends before going to Council Bluffs to live.

W. A. Spice loaded his goods for Hemmingford, Nebraska, Saturday, where he has homesteaded a section of land.

Mrs. H. B. Lewis, who was here visiting her brother, R. A. Slocumb, and sister, Mrs. J. E. Nicewonger, returned to her home at Overton, Nebraska, on Friday.

Jackson

Jack Kelly made a flying trip to Wall Lake last Saturday.

Frank Jentz and Mary Peters were married at Arcadia March 1st.

Mr. Milton Sherwood of Wall Lake, visited his brother Logan last week.

Don't stand and talk for hours with the mail man. Other people want their mail as well as you.

Henry Terlesner and Miss Tracy Ennebeck were married at the bride's home near West Side Feb. 28.

Miss Anna Heindrickson got her finger caught in a sausage mill while making sausage last Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Benton have just returned from California and landed safe at West Side last Tuesday.

Bert Justice gave a farewell dance at the old Shadle place last Friday evening. "Bryan" showed the people a merry time.

Mr. Thomas Sullivan entertained a party of twelve couple last Friday evening. All played cards for a prize. Mrs. John O'Donnell received the plate and Mr. Ed. Downey received the rag doll.

Deloit

Oscar Knoblock was in Denison on business Tuesday.

Mrs. Lawrence Winans, east of town is dangerously ill.

P. A. Carlson of Dayton, spent Sunday with his son Frank.

The best dance of the season was held at the hall Friday night.

Jay G. Meyers and family moved on the B. F. Wicks farm Monday.

The Misses Florence and Bertha Nixon were in Denison Saturday.

Parley Spencer moved north of Deloit to a farm joining the N. P. Larson farm.

Mrs. Silas Streeter was a Denison caller Tuesday, also Mrs. Merl Meyers.

Silas Stuetter and Jacob Sachan were transacting business in Denison Monday.

Mr. Carlson the C. N. W. section foreman received a visit from his father last Sunday.

Deloit Dramatic Company will render "The Country Kid" at Halberg's hall next Friday night.

Mrs. Thomas Munsey and daughter Josephine went to Buck Grove Tuesday to visit relatives and friends.

Mrs. S. C. Richards took the train Monday morning for Ida Grove to visit her daughter and family.

It is expected that D. M. Rudd of Dow City will preach at the L. D. S. church Sunday morning and evening.

Mrs. S. Horr, Ella Richardson and Mrs. Wm. McKim and daughter Eva, were among the Denison callers Friday.

John Williams is building an addition to his house he bought of J. M. Turner and will soon have it ready to live in.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Worley spent Friday at Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Winans. Mrs. Winans has been very sick for a few weeks.

Rev. Stone went to Sioux City Monday to attend a missionary convention which is being held there three days. Beginning Tuesday morning.

James T. Turner who has been suffering with an affliction in his face this winter was up town on Friday a short time. He has not improved much and still suffers very badly.

Mrs. David Winey received a telegram Wednesday evening of last week of the serious illness of her brother A. J. Albright at Charlotte, Iowa. Mrs. Winey took the train Friday morning for his home. Later word was received that he died Friday night.

Boyer.

Kunte Matteson marketed a car load of hogs here last week.

Emil Hultander moved last week to the farm he recently purchased and Swan Sjostrom, who had occupied it, moved to the Hanson farm, north of town.

Anton Christiansen and wife visited at Schleswig on Tuesday, Anton going on to Denison and Charter Oak before returning.

John Kullberg moved into his new house last week, and Erick Hanson moved into the old house.

Frank Aylward went to Charter Oak Wednesday to visit friends and transact some business.

Jake Kropf, R. J. Riley and Frank Aylward were in Denison on business last week.

Ellis

Mr. Gust Carlson of Kiron spent Sunday in our city.

Mrs. B. B. Howard visited in Woodbine Tuesday.

Clyde Shivas of Missouri is visiting relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. John Wooley visited Denison Saturday.

Mr. Fred Hackman is building an addition to his house.

Claude Brogden of Deloit was in this vicinity last week buying up oats.

Schroeder Bros. shipped a car of cattle to Omaha Wednesday night.

Quite a number of Ellis people went to Boyer to hear the Rev. Southwall Monday night.

Mrs. C. A. Shivas has moved in with her daughter, Mrs. Hitchings where she will make her home for the present.

E. P. Monaghan went to Chicago with cattle Saturday night. Mr. Monaghan expect to visit at his old home before returning and we wish him a pleasant trip.

Willow

Fred Shirtcliff started farming last week.

The roads are getting quite dry in our neighborhood now.

Quite a number of changes have been made in our vicinity this spring.

Mrs. B. Vollertsen of Charter Oak was visiting at the home of James Bixler last Thursday.

The Willow boys are going to have a ball team this season they expect to be one of the best in Crawford county.

Manilla

J. M. Hladik is sick of grip at present.

Mrs. W. H. Hert, was a Manning visitor last Friday.

W. B. Barstov made a business trip to eastern Iowa last week.

Grandma McNettney does not improve any as time goes on.

Deputy Sheriff H. J. Cummings was down from Arion Thursday.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ehrke on February 28th.

Miss Pearl Hathaway of Manning spent Sunday at Dr. Graham's home.

Dr. Draper did not go to the inauguration Saturday; he went duck shooting.

Rudolph Becker left on Monday for Sioux City where he expects to work.

The social at the Presbyterian church last Friday night was a great success.

The little daughter of Chas Dempster was very sick last week, but is better at present.

F. L. Van Slyke cashier of the Manilla National Bank was duck hunting the last of the week.

J. C. Ruby accompanied his father-in-law D. Clough as far as Arion Thursday on his way to Waterloo to visit his son.

Mr. Harry Lamp, Manager of the Neola Lumber yard at Aspinwall was in town Saturday.

Mr. Wm. Flint and wife returned from a three months visit with relatives in Madison, Wisconsin, last week.

Our up to date hardware firm of Hochett & John have been very busy getting in several car loads of machinery preparing for spring trade.

Dr. John Graham of Early, Iowa has been in Manilla the past week helping care for his mother, grandma Graham who has been very sick, and not expected to recover.

The engine on number three set fire to the grass along the right of way just north of town last Friday and before the fire was under control it had burned one stack of hay and about 100 acres of meadow and stalk ground. Had the wind been in the north Manilla would have had a close call.

Mr. Wm. Heiden and Miss Deliah Luth were married at the home of the brides parents, last Wednesday at 4 p. m. The groom is one of Crawford county's most highly respected and prosperous young farmers. The bride is the lovely and accomplished daughter of Wm. Luth one of our prosperous farmers. The happy couple expect to live on the Velle Sowles farm 6 miles north of Manilla.

Mr. Alva Milligan, an old gentleman was run down on the crossing of the street near the opera house, by a team and buggy on Tuesday of last week and had his arm crushed at the elbow. The team was driven by Mrs. Canter, living four miles south of town, who drove on without stopping after the old gentleman had been run over. A warrant was sworn out and she was arrested by assault and fast driving and she was brought before Justice Robertson on Thursday for hearing. She said she did not see the man when he was run down, that she was adjusting the robe to keep off the mud. The fine was fixed at five dollars and she went home to try to get the money. It is claimed that she was driving at a pretty swift gait when he was struck, and so it must have been from the extent of the injury. His damages will be a further matter for adjustment later, as suit has been commenced therefor.

Mr. Alva Milligan, an old gentleman was run down on the crossing of the street near the opera house, by a team and buggy on Tuesday of last week and had his arm crushed at the elbow. The team was driven by Mrs. Canter, living four miles south of town, who drove on without stopping after the old gentleman had been run over. A warrant was sworn out and she was arrested by assault and fast driving and she was brought before Justice Robertson on Thursday for hearing. She said she did not see the man when he was run down, that she was adjusting the robe to keep off the mud. The fine was fixed at five dollars and she went home to try to get the money. It is claimed that she was driving at a pretty swift gait when he was struck, and so it must have been from the extent of the injury. His damages will be a further matter for adjustment later, as suit has been commenced therefor.

Mr. Alva Milligan, an old gentleman was run down on the crossing of the street near the opera house, by a team and buggy on Tuesday of last week and had his arm crushed at the elbow. The team was driven by Mrs. Canter, living four miles south of town, who drove on without stopping after the old gentleman had been run over. A warrant was sworn out and she was arrested by assault and fast driving and she was brought before Justice Robertson on Thursday for hearing. She said she did not see the man when he was run down, that she was adjusting the robe to keep off the mud. The fine was fixed at five dollars and she went home to try to get the money. It is claimed that she was driving at a pretty swift gait when he was struck, and so it must have been from the extent of the injury. His damages will be a further matter for adjustment later, as suit has been commenced therefor.

Mr. Alva Milligan, an old gentleman was run down on the crossing of the street near the opera house, by a team and buggy on Tuesday of last week and had his arm crushed at the elbow. The team was driven by Mrs. Canter, living four miles south of town, who drove on without stopping after the old gentleman had been run over. A warrant was sworn out and she was arrested by assault and fast driving and she was brought before Justice Robertson on Thursday for hearing. She said she did not see the man when he was run down, that she was adjusting the robe to keep off the mud. The fine was fixed at five dollars and she went home to try to get the money. It is claimed that she was driving at a pretty swift gait when he was struck, and so it must have been from the extent of the injury. His damages will be a further matter for adjustment later, as suit has been commenced therefor.

Mr. Alva Milligan, an old gentleman was run down on the crossing of the street near the opera house, by a team and buggy on Tuesday of last week and had his arm crushed at the elbow. The team was driven by Mrs. Canter, living four miles south of town, who drove on without stopping after the old gentleman had been run over. A warrant was sworn out and she was arrested by assault and fast driving and she was brought before Justice Robertson on Thursday for hearing. She said she did not see the man when he was run down, that she was adjusting the robe to keep off the mud. The fine was fixed at five dollars and she went home to try to get the money. It is claimed that she was driving at a pretty swift gait when he was struck, and so it must have been from the extent of the injury. His damages will be a further matter for adjustment later, as suit has been commenced therefor.

Mr. Alva Milligan, an old gentleman was run down on the crossing of the street near the opera house, by a team and buggy on Tuesday of last week and had his arm crushed at the elbow. The team was driven by Mrs. Canter, living four miles south of town, who drove on without stopping after the old gentleman had been run over. A warrant was sworn out and she was arrested by assault and fast driving and she was brought before Justice Robertson on Thursday for hearing. She said she did not see the man when he was run down, that she was adjusting the robe to keep off the mud. The fine was fixed at five dollars and she went home to try to get the money. It is claimed that she was driving at a pretty swift gait when he was struck, and so it must have been from the extent of the injury. His damages will be a further matter for adjustment later, as suit has been commenced therefor.

Mr. Alva Milligan, an old gentleman was run down on the crossing of the street near the opera house, by a team and buggy on Tuesday of last week and had his arm crushed at the elbow. The team was driven by Mrs. Canter, living four miles south of town, who drove on without stopping after the old gentleman had been run over. A warrant was sworn out and she was arrested by assault and fast driving and she was brought before Justice Robertson on Thursday for hearing. She said she did not see the man when he was run down, that she was adjusting the robe to keep off the mud. The fine was fixed at five dollars and she went home to try to get the money. It is claimed that she was driving at a pretty swift gait when he was struck, and so it must have been from the extent of the injury. His damages will be a further matter for adjustment later, as suit has been commenced therefor.

Mr. Alva Milligan, an old gentleman was run down on the crossing of the street near the opera house, by a team and buggy on Tuesday of last week and had his arm crushed at the elbow. The team was driven by Mrs. Canter, living four miles south of town, who drove on without stopping after the old gentleman had been run over. A warrant was sworn out and she was arrested by assault and fast driving and she was brought before Justice Robertson on Thursday for hearing. She said she did not see the man when he was run down, that she was adjusting the robe to keep off the mud. The fine was fixed at five dollars and she went home to try to get the money. It is claimed that she was driving at a pretty swift gait when he was struck, and so it must have been from the extent of the injury. His damages will be a further matter for adjustment later, as suit has been commenced therefor.

Mr. Alva Milligan, an old gentleman was run down on the crossing of the street near the opera house, by a team and buggy on Tuesday of last week and had his arm crushed at the elbow. The team was driven by Mrs. Canter, living four miles south of town, who drove on without stopping after the old gentleman had been run over. A warrant was sworn out and she was arrested by assault and fast driving and she was brought before Justice Robertson on Thursday for hearing. She said she did not see the man when he was run down, that she was adjusting the robe to keep off the mud. The fine was fixed at five dollars and she went home to try to get the money. It is claimed that she was driving at a pretty swift gait when he was struck, and so it must have been from the extent of the injury. His damages will be a further matter for adjustment later, as suit has been commenced therefor.

Mr. Alva Milligan, an old gentleman was run down on the crossing of the street near the opera house, by a team and buggy on Tuesday of last week and had his arm crushed at the elbow. The team was driven by Mrs. Canter, living four miles south of town, who drove on without stopping after the old gentleman had been run over. A warrant was sworn out and she was arrested by assault and fast driving and she was brought before Justice Robertson on Thursday for hearing. She said she did not see the man when he was run down, that she was adjusting the robe to keep off the mud. The fine was fixed at five dollars and she went home to try to get the money. It is claimed that she was driving at a pretty swift gait when he was struck, and so it must have been from the extent of the injury. His damages will be a further matter for adjustment later, as suit has been commenced therefor.

Mr. Alva Milligan, an old gentleman was run down on the crossing of the street near the opera house, by a team and buggy on Tuesday of last week and had his arm crushed at the elbow. The team was driven by Mrs. Canter, living four miles south of town, who drove on without stopping after the old gentleman had been run over. A warrant was sworn out and she was arrested by assault and fast driving and she was brought before Justice Robertson on Thursday for hearing. She said she did not see the man when he was run down, that she was adjusting the robe to keep off the mud. The fine was fixed at five dollars and she went home to try to get the money. It is claimed that she was driving at a pretty swift gait when he was struck, and so it must have been from the extent of the injury. His damages will be a further matter for adjustment later, as suit has been commenced therefor.

Mr. Alva Milligan, an old gentleman was run down on the crossing of the street near the opera house, by a team and buggy on Tuesday of last week and had his arm crushed at the elbow. The team was driven by Mrs. Canter, living four miles south of town, who drove on without stopping after the old gentleman had been run over. A warrant was sworn out and she was arrested by assault and fast driving and she was brought before Justice Robertson on Thursday for hearing. She said she did not see the man when he was run down, that she was adjusting the robe to keep off the mud. The fine was fixed at five dollars and she went home to try to get the money. It is claimed that she was driving at a pretty swift gait when he was struck, and so it must have been from the extent of the injury. His damages will be a further matter for adjustment later, as suit has been commenced therefor.

Mr. Alva Milligan, an old gentleman was run down on the crossing of the street near the opera house, by a team and buggy on Tuesday of last week and had his arm crushed at the elbow. The team was driven by Mrs. Canter, living four miles south of town, who drove on without stopping after the old gentleman had been run over. A warrant was sworn out and she was arrested by assault and fast driving and she was brought before Justice Robertson on Thursday for hearing. She said she did not see the man when he was run down, that she was adjusting the robe to keep off the mud. The fine was fixed at five dollars and she went home to try to get the money. It is claimed that she was driving at a pretty swift gait when he was struck, and so it must have been from the extent of the injury. His damages will be a further matter for adjustment later, as suit has been commenced therefor.

Mr. Alva Milligan, an old gentleman was run down on the crossing of the street near the opera house, by a team and buggy on Tuesday of last week and had his arm crushed at the elbow. The team was driven by Mrs. Canter, living four miles south of town, who drove on without stopping after the old gentleman had been run over. A warrant was sworn out and she was arrested by assault and fast driving and she was brought before Justice Robertson on Thursday for hearing. She said she did not see the man when he was run down, that she was adjusting the robe to keep off the mud. The fine was fixed at five dollars and she went home to try to get the money. It is claimed that she was driving at a pretty swift gait when he was struck, and so it must have been from the extent of the injury. His damages will be a further matter for adjustment later, as suit has been commenced therefor.

Mr. Alva Milligan, an old gentleman was run down on the crossing of the street near the opera house, by a team and buggy on Tuesday of last week and had his arm crushed at the elbow. The team was driven by Mrs. Canter, living four miles south of town, who drove on without stopping after the old gentleman had been run over. A warrant was sworn out and she was arrested by assault and fast driving and she was brought before Justice Robertson on Thursday for hearing. She said she did not see the man when he was run down, that she was adjusting the robe to keep off the mud. The fine was fixed at five dollars and she went home to try to get the money. It is claimed that she was driving at a pretty swift gait when he was struck, and so it must have been from the extent of the injury. His damages will be a further matter for adjustment later, as suit has been commenced therefor.

Mr. Alva Milligan, an old gentleman was run down on the crossing of the street near the opera house, by a team and buggy on Tuesday of last week and had his arm crushed at the elbow. The team was driven by Mrs. Canter, living four miles south of town, who drove on without stopping after the old gentleman had been run over. A warrant was sworn out and she was arrested by assault and fast driving and she was brought before Justice Robertson on Thursday for hearing. She said she did not see the man when he was run down, that she was adjusting the robe to keep off the mud. The fine was fixed at five dollars and she went home to try to get the money. It is claimed that she was driving at a pretty swift gait when he was struck, and so it must have been from the extent of the injury. His damages will be a further matter for adjustment later, as suit has been commenced therefor.

Mr. Alva Milligan, an old gentleman was run down on the crossing of the street near the opera house, by a team and buggy on Tuesday of last week and had his arm crushed at the elbow. The team was driven by Mrs. Canter, living four miles south of town, who drove on without stopping after the old gentleman had been run over. A warrant was sworn out and she was arrested by assault and fast driving and she was brought before Justice Robertson on Thursday for hearing. She said she did not see the man when he was run down, that she was adjusting the robe to keep off the mud. The fine was fixed at five dollars and she went home to try to get the money. It is claimed that she was driving at a pretty swift gait when he was struck, and so it must have been from the extent of the injury. His damages will be a further matter for adjustment later, as suit has been commenced therefor.

Mr. Alva Milligan, an old gentleman was run down on the crossing of the street near the opera house, by a team and buggy on Tuesday of last week and had his arm crushed at the elbow. The team was driven by Mrs. Canter, living four miles south of town, who drove on without stopping after the old gentleman had been run over. A warrant was sworn out and she was arrested by assault and fast driving and she was brought before Justice Robertson on Thursday for hearing. She said she did not see the man when he was run down, that she was adjusting the robe to keep off the mud. The fine was fixed at five dollars and she went home to try to get the money. It is claimed that she was driving at a pretty swift gait when he was struck, and so it must have been from the extent of the injury. His damages will be a further matter for adjustment later, as suit has been commenced therefor.

Mr. Alva Milligan, an old gentleman was run down on the crossing of the street near the opera house, by a team and buggy on Tuesday of last week and had his arm crushed at the elbow. The team was driven by Mrs. Canter, living four miles south of town, who drove on without stopping after the old gentleman had been run over. A warrant was sworn out and she was arrested by assault and fast driving and she was brought before Justice Robertson on Thursday for hearing. She said she did not see the man when he was run down, that she was adjusting the robe to keep off the mud. The fine was fixed at five dollars and she went home to try to get the money. It is claimed that she was driving at a pretty swift gait when he was struck, and so it must have been from the extent of the injury. His damages will be a further matter for adjustment later, as suit has been commenced therefor.

Grandma Munster is no better but no worse. She remains about the same.

H. C. Stempel and Willie Nemitz made a business trip to Schleswig Wednesday afternoon.

Herman Krohnke will farm the Jurgen Krohnke place, east of town this year.

Miss Augusta Tech is spending a few weeks with her sister, Mrs. Geo. Krohnke.

H. C. Stempel made a business trip to Masedonia the first of the week. He will also visit his parents who live there.

Mrs. Chas. Colburn and children went to Soldier where she will spend a few days with her aunt before they move to North Dakota.

Mrs. J. Dorflar and son Frank returned Monday from a few days visit with her parents at Lake View. Her mother Mrs. Meyer returning with her.

Hugo Krohnke drove down from Schleswig Wednesday on business. His brother George rode back with him, returning on the way freight at night.

Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Timm entertained a number of their friends at Trix and Pit Thursday eve and on Friday evening the Misses Freeda and Minnie Voss entertained the same crowd at Ping Pong. Ricketts is small but the young people can have a good time.

Arion

J. L. Maurer made a business trip to Denison Saturday.

T. P. Farrington was down from Kenwood on business Saturday.

Mrs. Warren Talcott has rented the Tripp farm east of town this season.

Alfred Denker and August Green, of Denison, were in town Wednesday.

Mrs. R. S. Herbison of Charter Oak, was registered at Hotel Arion on Thursday.

Mrs. Jacob Kepford is very sick, and has Mrs. Ellithorp of Denison, nursing her.

W. A. Nelson and wife will occupy the rooms over the bank, vacated by Mrs. Wise.

Garfield Rule goes to Dunlap to clerk in the hardware store for his uncle, A. L. Rule.

Mrs. J. R. Rollins and baby are at home for a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Cole.

F. A. Maurer was out from Wilton Junction a few days last week, looking after business interests.

Levi Green was able to be out a little last week, and it is hoped he will soon be restored to his usual health.

Mrs. A. C. Heath and Mrs. J. E. Nicewonger were up from Dow City one day last week calling on friends.

Burton Evans has taken a position at Creighton, Nebraska, as bookkeeper and night operator for the telephone exchange.

Mrs. Oscar Goodrich was down from Denison Friday and Saturday looking after business interests and visiting relatives.