The many friends of Mr. F. Gibson were pleased to hear that he is slowly improving. We hope he may soon regain his usual health.

The Presbyterian missionary society held an interesting meeting at the home of Mrs. Sears McHenry last Wednesday afternoon. There was a good attendance and one new member was received.

Mr. John Richardson called at our office and paid for the REVIEW for his 32nd year. We believe Mr. Richardson is our "Star" subscriber both as a continuous reader and as one who has never allowed his subscription to get behind.

Bascomb Nicewonger came in from Arkansas yesterday, where he has been acting as railway news agent. He finds that during his absence his wife has procured a divorce and is married to another man and with him is living near Logan.

The teachers enjoyed themselves wonderfully at the home of Mrs. Wygant on Friday night. The future was unfolded and many wonderful things foretold by a pictured fortune telling. These meetings have been bright spots all year in the hard working lives of our faithful teachers.

Miss Culmer and Miss Iva Smith have been entertaining a friend Miss Knight of Griswold, Iowa. On Saturday evening Miss Culmer entertained a few at tea in honor of Miss Knight and in the evening Miss Culmer and Miss Smith were joint hostesses at the home of Miss Smith when the guests had a very pleasant social party.

The Teacher's Social Club had an unusually pleasant meeting Friday evening with Misses Schneider and Allsup, at the home of Mrs. Wygant who helped greatly in the entertainment by a surprise which consisted of a dainty lunch. The nature of the entertainment was "grabbing" from beginning to end and all were delighted with their good fortune.

The revival meetings at the Baptist church have been characterized by considerable interest. The meetings will be continued each evening at 7:30. Except Saturday. A cordial invitation to attend is extended.

This is the only play on the stage dealing with events in Old Mexico and its two years before the American Theatre-goers have won for it remarkable popularity, not only from a literary standpoint, but as a scenic production it has rarely been equaled for magnificence.

The little daughter born to Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Bollen was destined for but a few days of life. The little spirit was soon called home leaving her parents heartbroken indeed. Funeral services over the little one were held on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Romans returned on Sunday evening from a trip to Boone to visit Rev. J. B. Harris. Mr. Romans tells us that Rev. Harris is very ill and that unless there is a decided improvement in his condition this saintly man has not much longer to live.

The grand concert given by Miss L. Estelle Ellis promises to be a great success. The City Federation of Women's Clubs feel that all of our people have been very kind and liberal with them and they hope to do something for the city. Don't forget the date, the 22nd of this month. Miss Randall has kindly consented to help and the concert will be well worth while.

"A Royal Slave" which has created a sensation among play goers of this country for two seasons will be seen at the opera house next Saturday March 18th matinee and evening with the same cast and beautiful scenic effects that has made it so conspicuous and will be one of the notable events of the theatrical season in this city. It is seldom that local play-goers of this country have such an opportunity of seeing one of the best things in the amusement world and it is to be hoped that Manager Sibbert's efforts in securing this excellent attraction will be appreciated.

R. C. Saunders was over from Manilla Monday.

Roy Wedlock, Jake Brogden, Mike Myers and Harry Johnson are Deloit people who are transacting business here today.

"A Royal Slave" which is recognized as one of the very best attractions on the road this season will be seen at the opera house next Saturday afternoon and evening. The play which deals with life in Old Mexico is out of the ordinary run of melodramas and gives the scenic artist wonderful scope for some very elaborate scenic effects. This will be one of the very best attractions that Manager Sibbert will offer this season and he is looking forward to a well filled house.

Rev. G. E. Morphy is conducting an interesting series of revivals services at the Baptist church. Denison certainly needs a revival of true christianity. Christianity never harmed any man and it has been the guiding star of countless millions. The sorrows of the past few weeks tell us eloquently of the weakness of the flesh and would seem to urge us to claim as our own part of the great salvation, christianity offers to maintain.

The city federation of clubs held a well attended meeting on Saturday. Mrs. J. B. Romans was paid the well deserved compliment of a re-election as was Mrs. Sears McHenry for treasurer. Both ladies have served the federation faithfully and well. Miss Jennie Austin was made recording secretary and Miss Meyers corresponding secretary. After a number of reports of committees light refreshments were served and very much enjoyed. Mrs. Morgan was to have given a talk on her visit to Washington but this was postponed owing to the lateness of the hour and the fact that Mrs. Morgan was still fatigued from her trip.
