CAUCUSES ARE HELD

Both Parties Place Tickets in The Field.

WALKER FOR SOLICITOR

Wright, Nielsen and Simpson For Alderman, Compose the Republican Ticket. Contest Good Natured.

The novelty of holding the caucuses of both parties on the same evening and at the same place drew a large number to the city caucuses held on Thursday night. Although both caucuses were called for the same hour the republicans agreed to go ahead and transact their business first. At the general republican caucus that veteran, stalwart Dr. Wm. Iseminger was called to the chair and Mr. E. F. Tucker was made Secretary. On motion Mr. J. H. Walker was nominated for City Solicitor by acclamation and Mr. J. E. Balle was re-elected to the position of city committeeman. This being all the business before it the general caucus adjourned and the ward caucuses took place.

The ward caucuses furnished surprises all around. In the first ward Mr. Mark Wright had been an active candidate during the day and more than two-thirds of the "Silk-stocking" ward was found to be in his favor. Several other candidates were voted for, but Mr. Wright received a good majority over all and was declared the nominee.

The second ward developed a close race between Mr. John F. Holst and Mr. Thos. Nielsen. The informal ballot stood Holst six, Nielsen five. A formal ballot was taken in which the figures were reversed and Mr. Nielsen was declared the nominee. On motion his nomination was made unanimous.

The Big Third showed a fine field of candidates and it was anybody's race for a while. Dr. H. C. Simpson soon became the favorite, however, and won by a length.

THE DEMOCRATS.

No sooner had the republicans finished their work than the democrats took possession of the hall. In general caucus they named their veteran candidate, Mr. K. Burch, for city solicitor and in the ward caucuses S. M. Thew was named in the first ward, Julius Mahler in the second, and John Schaefer in the third.

There is no reason why the contest should not be a friendly and good-natured one and for our part we do not intend to engender ill feeling by any hard words about the democratic candidates. There is no good reason why the republicans should not support their ticket. They will if they remember that the democrats are always willing to take but never to give. This has been the universal experience in this town. The democrats howl about non-partisanship when they have something to gain by it, but they can never see a republican if there is any opportunity to reciprocate. All of the democratic candidates have been before the people at a prior election save Mr. Mahler, who is said to represent some special street interests in the second ward. Mr. Burch is such a veteran candidate that he needs no introduction as a candidate of any party for any office.

Mr. Thew is a retired farmer of populist rather than democratic tendencies. He was defeated for alderman last year. Mr. Mahler has been frequently spoken of as a democratic candidate for this position, although never nominated before. He would undoubtedly be satisfactory to the portion of the ward he represents.

Mr. Schnoor is a good, straight-forward business man and just why he should have been marked for slaughter in the "Big Third" is more than we can understand. It was not a kindness on the part of his democratic friends to nominate him.

The republican ticket is headed by J. H. Walker. He is a young attorney, who has made his own way and earned his own legal education. He has never been afraid of hard work. He worked on the section here in Denison, worked at any employment that offered while at Iowa City and he is gradually forging to the front by his determination, grit and perseverance. He is the kind of a young man whom it is a pleasure to help and the electors of Denison will show their appreciation of his worthy efforts by giving him a large majority.

To Mr. Burch the election means very little. He is an old practitioner, a man who has had plenty of time and opportunity to show the stuff that is in him. To Mr. Walker the election means a great deal. It means a firm start, it means a recognition of his merit as a young, hard-working man. Let the republicans of Denison take off their coats, if need be, and show the people that it is such young men that they delight to honor. Despite the difference in their ages the candidates have equal rank as attorneys in Denison. One has his life-record largely behind him, the other has his way to make and is full of energy and strength and determination to make his record a good one.

In the first ward the republicans have taken occasion to give the lie to the "Silk-Stocking" epithet by nominating a man who will tell you instantly that he is one of the plain people. Mark Wright has lived in Denison for more than a third of a century and we have never heard any man question his honesty or ability. He is bluff, hale and hearty, but the rough exterior covers a tender heart and a well-ordered mind. He would make it his ambition on the council to see that Denison got value received for every dollar expended and the people could rely on him to fulfill his promises. Mr. Wright has always been a stalwart republican. He has never sulked in his tent, but has been ready and willing at all times to lend a helping hand. The republicans of the first ward cannot afford to go back on Mark Wright. If they should it would have a tendency to alienate a large element of the party. We trust that Mr. Wright will receive an old-time republican majority in his ward.

In the second ward the republicans have chosen an ideal candidate in Mr. Thos. Nielsen. He is a man who has who has earned his way through life. He has shown his faith in Denison by investing his all in one of the finest improvements to our city. He is faithful, intelligent, law-abiding and self-respecting.

Mr. Holst, whose friends presented him to the caucus, is another man having a splendid record as a citizen and a republican and either of them would have made good candidates. As it is, we believe the republicans will unite on Mr. Nielsen with loyalty and that he will command the votes of a majority of the good citizens of the ward.

Dr. H. C. Simpson is another self-made man. Quiet, unassuming, gentlemanly, he has earned a high place in his profession and in the hearts of the people of Denison. He is a property owner, but has no special interest to conserve. We predict his election by a safe majority. While the hard and fast rule of partisanship is not always applied in municipal affairs, yet we would warn the republicans that they never yet have yielded an inch that the democrats did not demand an ell; they have never been magnanimous without having it thrown at them by the democrats as a sign of weakness rather than of good fellowship. They have never known a time when the democratic party was ready and willing to reciprocate.

The entire republican ticket should be elected in Denison and every republican who has the large things in mind as well as the small things should help to win the victory. Nothing would weaken the party in the county like a factional quarrel which might be engendered by a republican defeat in this city.

Miss Genevieve Schneckloth was at home from her school duties at Manning over Sunday.

GOOD ROADS TRAIN.

Will Spend a Day in Denison Next Month.

HOW TO MAKE DIRT ROADS.

D. Ward King the Apostle of Good Roads Will Be Here April 13, Lecturing Morning and Evening.

The Great Northwestern has still another educational gift to make to the people of this county this year. A Good Roads train will be run and lectures will be delivered by Mr. D. Ward King who has become the leader of the good roads movement in the west.

Mr. Henry Wallace seems to be entitled to the credit of inciting this movement for the benefit of Iowa roads. From his paper, Wallace's Farmer, we learn that Mr. King has to deal only with the common dirt road, the roads of Iowa and Missouri. His talk is not about macadamizing or expensive road machines, it is a talk about just such roads as we have in Crawford county, how to keep them well drained and in comparatively good condition the year around. The experiment was tried in Sac county under Mr. King's plans last year and twenty-three miles of road were kept in good condition the entire year at a cost of between a dollar and two dollars and half per mile.

It appears to us that this is just the kind of a road we have been looking for and cursing ourselves blue in the face because we did not have. The loss to the farmers of this county on account of bad roads amounts to thousands of dollars each year. As we understand it Mr. King's plan does not involve additional expense, but is meant to aid in seeing that the money is expended to the best advantage. We would suggest that every farmer should be present and especially should every road supervisor and township trustee be on hand. The board of supervisors should also be present and if possible the board should arrange some way in which the township officers shall attend. The matter of good roads has already been before the Commercial Club and we would suggest that a special meeting be called to co-operate with the board of supervisors in securing as large an attendance as possible. The Club should also attend the lecture so that each member may be able to tell his farmer friends about it. Remember the date, Thursday April 13th, and the further fact that Denison is the only town in the county that will be favored by these lectures. Mr. King will lecture both morning and afternoon and we would suggest that the Commercial Club attend the morning lecture in a body.

GOOD ROADS TRAIN.

The management of the Chicago & North-Western Railway has, through Mr. Henry Wallace, editor of Wallace's Farmer, arranged with Mr. King to spend sixteen days along its lines in Iowa and tell the folks in fourteen different counties how to make good roads for themselves without any expense to speak of and with very little labor when applied at exactly the right time. Mr. King is an entertaining talker and he knows what he talks about. His methods have stood the test of practical experience.

The Good Roads Gospel movement will be conducted in much the same manner as the North-Western's corn gospel trains which have proved of such value to the people along its lines, but fewer meetings will be held and more time will be given to each point. Following is a list of the points and dates, at which meetings will be held:

Onawa	Monday	April 10th
Odebolt	Tuesday	April 11th
Holstein	Wednesday	April 12th
Denison	Thursday	April 13th
Lake City	Friday	April 14th
Jewell Jct.	Saturday	April 15th
Ames	Monday	April 17th
Eagle Grove	Tuesday	April 18th
Luverne	Wednesday	April 19th
Bancroft	Thursday	April 20th
Rolf	Friday	April 21st
Eldora	Tuesday	April 25th
Gladbrook	Wednesday	April 26th
Belle Plaine	Thursday	April 27th
DeWitt	Friday	April 28th

Demonstrations will be held both morning and afternoon at 10:30 a. m. and 2:00 p. m. at each point named, showing the practical workings of Mr. King's inexpensive and valuable plans for good hard earth roads.

Those who are familiar with Mr. King's work believe that this Good Roads Gospel train will do as much to improve the roads of the section it covers as the corn gospel trains improved the corn.

COURT NEXT WEEK

Usual Grind of Business on the Docket.

JUDGE CHURCH PRESIDES.

Numerous Damage Suits Pending. Several Divorces, But No Criminal Cases of Importance.

District court convenes next Monday, but the jury has not been called until the beginning of the second week. Judge Z. A. Church will be on the bench.

A glance at the docket does not show any especially sensational suits pending. There are two suits against the city of Denison, a slander suit, a suit for malpractice and several applications for release from the bonds of matrimony. A damage suit against a Dow City saloon-keeper and a will contest promises to be interesting if they come to trial at this term.

Among the more important of the new cases are the following:

- Francis Gibson vs City of Denison, a suit for $5000 damages.
- Hedwig Ahlquist vs Ingemar Lind, a suit for $5000 damages.
- F. V. Kniest vs J. M. Glynn, a suit for commission.
- W. W. Stacey vs W. J. Campbell et al.
- J. G. Schumaker vs Franz Miller.
- J. L. McLeod vs W. A. Thomson
- Lena Frahm vs F. Boettger, a slander suit for $5000 damages.

- Hattie A. Poitevin vs Frank Binnall.
- A. J. Gary vs C & N W R'y.
- John Berndt vs Illinois Central, suit for personal damages.
- Chas. Galbraith vs U. G. Johnson.
- C. M. & St. P. R'y. vs G. V. Jordan.
- Bridge Kerigan vs Jas. Kerigan, divorce.
- Addie B. Nellis vs Oliver A. Nellis, divorce.
- Addison Morgan vs Phillis Morgan, divorce.
- Rhinehart Klinkefus will case.

There are a number of cases from the old docket still pending and the term promises to be a busy one.
