Mrs. A. W. Sage had the misfortune to step on a rusty nail and has been quite lame as a result. She is improving slowly.

Mr. Wright now has a chance to make his Mark on the city council and if we mistake not there will be something doing.

No, brother Bulletin, the returns of Monday are ineffectual to quench our good spirits after the election of last November.

Mr. H. K. Harthun enters the Auditor's office on April 1, but Mr. Collins will remain during the coming session of the board of supervisors.

The D. A. R. meeting Monday night was very interesting. Messdames Patterson and Morphy read papers on Colonial ways and days.

Mr. A. C. Balle and Miss Sophia returned on Friday from Chicago. While in the city they had the pleasure of hearing the German Parsifal.

Everything was done to make the visitors to Spencer enjoy themselves, except a prize and we will have better luck with that another year we trust.

Mr. Ira Gilmer has been making thorough tests of his seed corn using the Holden methods and we presume will have his reward by a bumper crop this fall.

Mrs. Bateson will visit in Denison this summer while Mr. Bateson is in England. Mrs. Bateson's friends will be glad to see her once more and only regret that Mr. Bateson can not come with her.

Coterie had a delightful meeting with Mrs. Chris Kemming in her new and cozy home. In the evening Mr. and Mrs. Kemming entertained at whist, Mrs. Kemming serving very nice refreshments.

Denison has ten women clubs and is one of the strongest club towns in the state for its size. We believe they are a fine thing for women too and far from thinking we have too many, hope to be able to chronicle more in the near future.

Mrs. Eugene Gulick returned from a short visit in Boone on Saturday. She found Mr. Harris very ill but brave and cheery. His Denison friends are much concerned over his illness and will be very glad to hear better news from him.

Have your children's picture taken, it's a mighty good thing to have in the house when they are well, and a great comfort to have when they are sick, and a pleasure to look back on as they outgrow their tiny frocks and baby ways. This is not an "ad" just good advice.

P. E. O. meets Friday.

Mr. Ira Chase and Mr. Chas. Chase of Buck Grove made THE REVIEW office a pleasant call today. They say they could not keep house without the old REVIEW. They are the kind of friends THE REVIEW likes to have.

A cordial invitation is extended to all to attend the annual Thanks offering services of the W. F. M. S. at the Methodist church Sunday, April 2. Mrs. Owner S. Dow of Garner, Iowa, will deliver an address both morning and evening.

Mr. N. G. Moeller celebrated his birthday on Sunday and his children came from their different homes to do him honor. Although afflicted with blindness for many years Mr. Moeller has always been brave and cheerful and helpful and it was with loving hearts that his children gathered around him. Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Chamberlain of Dunlap, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Moeller of Flandreau were those returning to Denison to join in the celebration.

Two pioneers of Crawford made THE REVIEW office a pleasant visit on Monday. They were Mr. John Rolls and Mr. R. Vore, both of whom live in the vicinity of Dunlap. They are men who have been in the county many years and who have earned a competency and are now able to rest as a reward of their toil. Mr. Vore tells us that he has been in the county for fifty years. Both of these men are honored readers of THE REVIEW and we trust they may be on our list for many years to come.

The S. S. club had a very pleasant meeting Tuesday-night. Miss Raine had charge of the menu and Miss Iseminger of the program. Both were highly successful. The club was honored by a number of visitors, who seemed to enjoy the meeting as much as the members. An executive board of three were elected, the Misses Raine, Marshall and Meyers. Miss Marshall has charge of the supper next time and Miss Kelly the program. Miss Strahan was elected vice president. Miss Iva Smith played a lovely solo that was much enjoyed.

Mr. Geo. Peck, an up-to-date commercial salesman from Clinton, Iowa, was the guest of his uncle, Mr. J. H. Gable, this week.

Mr. Geo. Bidlack of Manilla, spent Saturday in Denison. He expects to spend the summer in South Dakota, leaving Manilla next week.

Mrs. J. McCord has been on the sick list since her return from Oklahoma, where she had been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Rob't Grason.

The Kindergarten youngsters called on Frederick Louis Meyers en masse this morning. The visit was mightily appreciated as it is hard on a little chap to stay in doors these spring days.

Chester Dixon was reported not so well which will be sad news to his many friends, as they were hopeful that the western climate might prove beneficial to him.

Mr. Ingwer Hollander, one of the prosperous republican Germans, living northwest of Denison, spent Monday in this city visiting his son, who is in Denison college.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. DuBois are expected home from California this week, where they have been visiting relatives. They expect to go to their ranch in North Dakota after visiting here for a while.

THE REVIEW is in receipt of a pleasant letter from Mrs. A. L. Oldfield, ordering THE REVIEW sent to their present home at Nevada, Iowa, and stating that Mr. Oldfield is in the railroad employ and is prospering finely.

A little romance developed at the post office last week. A well dressed, bright looking man came to town in search of his betrothed, who had recently moved here. He knew she was in Denison but did not know where to find her. She was a new arrival in the city and her mail had come in another's care. There was no mail for her in the office. It was difficult for the post office force to remember just in whose care her mail had been sent. This was finally ascertained and the persistent lover was rewarded.
