Mrs. Jess Bennett and children left Saturday for their home at Warsaw, Nebraska, after several weeks' visit here and vicinity.

In the last few days many cars of cattle have passed through here going north over the Sioux City branch to the pastures in the Dakotas.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Welch and family took a trip into the country last Sunday and enjoyed the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Byron McMullen.

Mrs. Jess Bennett and children, after a few days' visit at the home of Mrs. Willis Wiggins at Dow City, returned to Grandpa Griffin's on Sunday.

Mr. Ben Quathamer and family transacted business in Denison Thursday afternoon. They also called on the photographer and had a family group taken.

The most of the farmers living adjacent to this place have finished corn planting. While the weather has averaged a trifle cool and damp, the opinion is that prospects are good for a fine crop.

Mr. Jack Griffin of B. Idon, Nebraska, arrived Tuesday for a few days visit with his parents, and incidentally with his wife and son, who are visiting at his parental home.

Miss Millie Bicknell came back from Sioux City Thursday after a month's visit to that town. Miss Millie expects to go to Denison next week to visit relatives and friends there.

On the John Griffin farm last week Sidney Bonney picked up a fine specimen of ammonite, an extinct type of the pearly nautilus, a rare geological specimen for this part of the country.

The ladies of the Catholic church had a cleaning house bee in that edifice one day last week. The ladies had a good time if they did do a lot of hard work and they left every thing shining as usual.

The Holiness Society had a meeting in the school house last Sunday, but owing to inclemency of the weather, of the weather the people from out of town could not attend, which was a great disappointment to all concerned.

Mr. Ornie Bicknell who visited here a short time ago had a serious relapse of the mumps, from which he thought he had recovered while here. At last accounts he is able to be out, but he thinks people should not make fun of the mumps. He says he won't again.

There is a rumor afloat that Mr. Jacob Bills has sold his farm and will move to Missouri in the near future. We hope this report is a false one as Mr. Bills is one of our oldest settlers and substantial farmers, and we don't like to lose that kind from our midst.

The many friends of Mrs. Tade Sullivan will be pleased to hear that she is recovering nicely from her injuries received from the boiling oil and is able to be out again, although it will be some time before her hands are healed so as to take off the bandages.

Mr. Robert Beutal came near having a serious accident last Monday afternoon. He fell off of a ladder and struck his leg above the knee on a rock. At first it was feared that a bone was broken, but on examination it was found to be only a bad bruise which was quite painful for a day or two, but nothing further resulted.

Friday, during the lull in trade the Misses Hagan, Quathamer, Finnegan, Slater and Hansen, wiled away the time shooting at a target. I did not learn what they were shooting for, but whatever it was, it was safe, as there were few if any, marks on the side of the building they shot at after the contest was over.

A number of young girls from the Manilla school made our street's resound with their college yell. They came down to look for specimens for their botany class. They must have felt fully repaid for their visit for our beautiful grove, is full of wild flowers that are a delight to everyone who is fortunate enough to see them. The school girls seemed to enjoy themselves and we hope they will come again.
